One Arm And Other Stories:

One Arm and Other Stories Tennessee Williams, 1967 Here are the eleven remarkable stories of Tennessee Williams's first volume of short fiction originally published in 1948 and reissued as a paperback in response to an increasingly insistent public demand. It was this book which established Williams as a short story writer of the same stature and interest he had shown as a dramatist. Each story has qualities that make it memorable. In One Arm we live through his last hours and memories with a rough trade ex prizefighter who is awaiting execution for murder. The Field of Blue Children explores some of the strange ways of the human heart in love. Portrait of a Girl in Glass is a luminous and nostalgic recollection of characters who figure in The Glass Menagerie while Desire and the Black Masseuse is an excursion into the logic of the macabre. The Yellow Bird well known through the author's recorded reading of it which tells of a minister's daughter who found a particularly violent but satisfactory way of expiating a load of inherited puritan guilt may well become part of American mythology.

Video Verite and Other Stories William Petrick, 2010 In our media saturated world the line between reality and fiction has grown thinner and more confusing. With sharp clear prose and an insider's view of the media Petrick's stories take us into a hall of mirrors where men and women struggle to understand themselves and their relationships with one another. In a climate defined by images does love stand a chance when no one is certain what is real? In the title story an accomplished skydiver goes airborne with a video camera to capture the love of his life but a small oversight upends his best intentions. In Sins of the Father a man arriving in Huntsville Texas to commute his son's death sentence clashes with a documentary producer intent on chasing the story to its bitter end. In Telling Time a corporate video producer conflicted by his own immoral conduct learns that sometimes the absolute truth is the most effective lie.

the small deep sandy valley closed in on all sides by barren slopes apart from the Officer and the Traveller there were present only the Condemned a vacant looking man with a broad mouth and dilapidated hair and face and the Soldier who held the heavy chain to which were connected the small chains which bound the Condemned Man by his feet and wrist bones as well as by his neck and which were also linked to each other by connecting chains The Condemned Man incidentally had an expression of such dog like resignation that it looked as if one could set him free to roam around the slopes and would only have to whistle at the start of the execution for him to return The Traveller had little interest in the apparatus and walked back and forth behind the Condemned Man almost visibly indifferent while the Officer took care of the final preparations Sometimes he crawled under the apparatus which was built deep into the earth and sometimes he climbed up a ladder to inspect the upper parts These were really jobs which could have been left to a mechanic but the Officer carried them out with great enthusiasm maybe because he was particularly fond of this apparatus or maybe because there was some other reason why one could not trust the work to anyone else It s all ready now he finally cried and climbed back down the ladder He was unusually tired breathing with his mouth wide open and he had pushed two fine lady s handkerchiefs under the collar of his uniform These uniforms are really too heavy for the tropics the Traveller said instead of asking some questions about the apparatus as the Officer had expected That s true said the Officer He washed the oil and grease from his dirty hands in a bucket of water standing ready but they mean home and we don t want to lose our homeland Now have a look at this apparatus he added immediately drying his hands with a towel and pointing to the device Up to this point I had to do some work by hand but from now on the apparatus should work entirely on its own The Traveller nodded and followed the Officer The latter tried to protect himself against all eventualities by saying Of course breakdowns do happen I really hope none will occur today but we must be prepared for it The apparatus is supposed to keep going for twelve hours without interruption But if any breakdowns do occur they ll only be very minor and we ll deal with them right away
