Edited by W. J. Butler William John BUTLER (Dean of Lincoln.),1865

Cumulated Index to the Books ,1999 Behold, My Mother and My Brethren! Bryan M. Christman,2022-10-18 In this Kierkegaardian reading of Mark s Gospel two of the most creative and passionate witnesses of Christ s gospel are brought together to mutually inform its superlative wonder Both writers winsomely revealed the nature of human existence in sin and the new life Jesus lived and made possible for all as the paradoxical God man They highlighted the single individual against the frenzied crowd in untruth driven by despair whether conscious or unconscious and vulnerable to enticing publicity and deceptive propaganda The entrenched societal systems unjustly determined for time and eternity who God favored or disfavored In dramatic contrast Mark and Kierkegaard both elucidated God s good news calling forth the highest and happy passion of faith capable of creating a new family unconstrained by the status quo of the established order s old wineskin In short through the gospel they powerfully challenged the system whether modern Christendom or its first century equivalent and did so by merely following Jesus out over 70 000 fathoms weathering demonic storms and overcoming dehumanizing societal bureaucracies set against them and humanity at large This Kierkegaardian reading of Mark reveals two kindred spirits after Christ s spirit demonstrating the redemptive love of God for all humanity centered in Christ
