The Philosophy of the Novel J. M. Bernstein, 1984 Lukács's Theory of the novel has long been a key work in the philosophy but not the sociology of literature J M Bernstein shows that Theory of the Novel must be seen in conjunction with History and Class Consciousness as a major contribution to a Marxist hermeneutics He ties the philosophy of Lukács to Kant Hegel and Marx and contends that the categories structuring the novel are the central concepts of Kant's philosophy and that therefore the novel is marked by the same antinomies that infect Kant's system Bernstein offers a concise account of dialectical theory and a telling analysis of Western Hegelian Marxism He concludes with a critique of contemporary literary and critical practices practices which only reinforce the antinomies already present in the novel From cover
