Performance Ralf Lisch,2016-05-06 In service societies the tertiary sector has long become the primary sector in terms of GDP and employment Quality research and testing means better service and success in the service industries demands quality Nonetheless complaints about insufficient inconsistent or bad service abound Quality decides on success and failure Where so much is at stake management decisions call for systematic research and consumers look for relevant results that provide guidance in complex markets Research into quality and customer satisfaction gets to the core of a business However many so called studies hardly meet essential criteria of empirical research and deliver artefacts rather than facts This book puts an end to common misconceptions of quality studies Measuring Service Performance is an appeal for an approach to quality research that meets quality criteria itself It is a compelling argument against widespread but rather dubious dealings with measurement data and statistics Ralf Lisch calls for a reconsideration of the research process focussing on content instead of method and adding meaning to results Because service excellence deserves research excellence Written in a practical accessible style the book offers practitioners as well as market researchers MBA students and others involved in the service sector a critical analysis and discussion of the essentials of Practical Research for Better Quality God's Companions Samuel Wells,2008-04-15 We are pleased to announce that God s Companions by Samuel Wells has been shortlisted for the 2007 Michael Ramsey Prize for theological writing www.michaelramseyprize.org.uk Grounded in Samuel Wells experience of ordinary lives in poorer neighborhoods this book presents a striking and imaginative approach to Christian ethics It argues that Christian ethics is founded on God on the practices of human community and on worship and that ethics is fundamentally a reflection of God s abundance Wells synthesizes dogmatic liturgical ethical scriptural and pastoral approaches to theology in order to make a bold claim for the centrality of the local church in theological reflection He considers the abundance of gifts God gives through the practices of the Church particularly the Eucharist His central thesis which governs his argument throughout is that God gives his people everything they need to worship him be his friends and eat with him Wells engages with serious scholarly material yet sets out the issues lucidly for a student audience
