Perfect Poise Perfect Life:

Perfect Poise, Perfect Life Noël Kingsley, 2005 Noël Kingsley combines insights on how balance and poise affect you on all levels with practical help on how they can be improved Through case studies and simple exercises he explains the reasons why we lose our poise the principles of perfect balance and how it can be regained Stress-Proof Your Life (52 Brilliant Ideas) Elisabeth Wilson, 2008-04-01 Let's face it if you're the type of person who enjoys lighting lavender candles and spending an hour in the bath every night chilling out then you're probably not the type that's going to get that stressed to begin with Stress proof your life is for the people who struggle to find time for a shower much less a bath It's for the ones who are still clicking their mouse or ironing a shirt at 11 30pm The ones who don't take their annual leave and worry that stress is affecting their health and relationships Or they would worry if they weren't so knackered and that report wasn't due in at 9am It's going to take a lot more than a candle lit bubble bath to sort them out Elisabeth Wilson Stress is not a generic thing although it's always treated that way Some people are really good at avoiding some stresses without realising that they are slaves to another kind Elisabeth looks at the sources occupational genetic and environmental and reveals 52 clever techniques and ideas that focus on the causes rather than simply telling people how to deal with the symptoms Here are just some of the chapters to be discovered Admit your addiction The power of positive stress Give a little get a lot why volunteering could be the best decision you've ever made Too stressed to sleep it happens here's what to do if it happens to you Strictly no lavender candles and The stop and collapse effect if you're fed up with getting sick on the very first day of your holiday here's how to prevent it With the 52 Brilliant Ideas series readers can enhance their existing skills with negligible investment of time or money and will substantially improve their performance over the course of a year Each of the 52 chapters tackles a single aspect of the subject in an entertaining and lively way At the end of each chapter is a how did it go feature which allows readers to reflect on the lesson in a classical experiential learning pattern The tone of each book is personal and informal readers will feel as though they are having a one to one with their favourite coach Making a Welcome Maria Poggi Johnson, 2011-11-08 Making a Welcome combines an engaging personal story with an examination of the meaning and possibilities of hospitality both as a domestic practice much in need of revival and as a fundamental Christian orientation with emotional intellectual and spiritual implications Maria Poggi Johnson draws on her knowledge of the Christian tradition and on two decades of personal experience of trying to welcome well to consider what happens when we open our homes to others what is involved in offering a genuine welcome and how the skills we develop in doing so can shape our relationships with our spouses with the society around us with our own beliefs and commitments and with God Illustrated by stories drawn from Scripture literature film and from the author's own experience Making a Welcome challenges readers to discover the life changing practice of true hospitality not only in their homes but in all aspects of their lives The Soul: The Quality of Life Alice A. Bailey, 2023-11-01 This compilation from the books of Alice Bailey seeks to increase understanding of the immortal soul addressing many aspects under sixty two headings The creative nature of the Soul On its own plane the soul knows no separation and the factor of synthesis governs all soul relations The soul is occupied not only with the form that the vision of its objective may take but with the quality or the meaning which that vision veils or hides The soul knows the Plan its form outline methods and objective are known Through the use of the creative imagination the soul creates it builds thought forms on the mental plane and objectifies desire on the astral plane It proceeds then to externalise its thought and its desire upon the physical plane through applied force creatively actuated by the imagination of the etheric or vital vehicle Yet because the soul intelligence motivated by love it can within the realised synthesis which governs its activities analyse discriminate and divide The soul likewise aspires to that which is greater than itself and reaches out to the world of divine ideas and thus itself occupies a midway position between the world of ideation and the world of forms This is its difficulty and its opportunity
