The National and Beyond Pietari Kääpä, 2010 The films of Aki and Mika Kaurismäki are part of a globalising Finnish cinema challenging conventional parameters at every turn This work examines the films that the Kaurismäkis produced individually and in collaboration between 1981 and 1995 films which mobilise various methods to reflect criticise counteract and contribute to the globalisation of Finnish society in the era of late capitalist development This work provides an in depth analysis of these films exploring the aesthetic and narrative content of the films as well as their production and reception in Finland The theoretical scope of the work situates the films not only in the field of transnational cinema but also that of post national cinema Exploring the Kaurismäki films in a post national framework points to new emergent understandings of both the fragility and the persistence of national culture and identity in a globalising world

Lived Nation as the History of Experiences and Emotions in Finland, 1800-2000 Ville Kivimäki, Sami Suodenjoki, Tanja Vahtikari, 2021-06-07 This open access book uses Finland in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries as an empirical case in order to study the emergence shaping and renewal of a nation through histories of experience and emotions It revolves around the following questions What kinds of experiences have engendered national mobilization and feelings of national belonging How have political and societal conflicts turned into new communities of experience and emotion What kinds of experiences have been integrated into or excluded from the national context in different instances How have people internalized or contested the nation as a context for their personal family and minority group experiences In what ways has the nation entered and affected people s intimate spheres of life How have national experiences been transmitted to children in the renewal of the nation This edited collection points to the histories of experience and emotions as a novel way of studying nations and nationalism Building on current debates in nationalism studies it offers a theoretical framework for analyzing the historical construction of lived nations and introduces a number of new methodological approaches to understand the experiences of the nation extending from the investigation of personal reminiscences and music records to the study of dreams and children s drawings

Historical Dictionary of Scandinavian Cinema John Sundholm, Isak Thorsen, Lars Gustaf Andersson, 2012-09-20 Although relatively small the northern countries of Scandinavia have made a disproportionately large contribution to world cinema Indeed some of their films are among the best known of all times including The Seventh Seal Dancer in the Dark and The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo And Scandinavian directors are also among the best known just to mention Ingmar Bergman and Lars von Trier But there is much more to the cinema of Denmark Norway Sweden Finland and Iceland than that and this book shows us what they have been accomplishing over more than a century from the beginnings of cinema until the present The Historical Dictionary of Scandinavian Cinema shows just how long and busy this history has been in the chronology starting in 1896 The introduction then describes the situation in each one of the component countries all of which approached and developed the field in a similar but also slightly different manner The dictionary section with over 400 substantial entries looks at the situation in greater detail with over 400 substantial entries on major actors directors and others significant films various genres and themes and subjects such as animation ethnicity migration and censorship Given its contribution to world cinema it is good to finally have an encyclopedia like this which can meet the interests of the scholar and researcher but also the movie fan

Post-Tsunami Reconstruction in Indonesia Marjaana Jauhola, 2013-06-26 This book offers a critical analysis of gender mainstreaming initiatives in the post tsunami context in Indonesia Aiming to challenge the terms of the debate in gender mainstreaming and disaster reconstruction efforts Jauhola offers an important contribution for the discussion of what feminisms and disasters could be The work provides an in depth analysis of three governmental practices of gender mainstreaming the use of the concept pair sex gender the use of gender analysis and the use of project management tools and local subversion that challenges the potential normative violence of gender mainstreaming Providing feminist intersectional reading of gender mainstreaming the book aims to illustrate that this framework does not lack political alternatives but rather it offers an alternative focus for feminism and for the re conceptualisation of political and provides tools for practitioners of aid aiming to come to grips with the complexity of gender equality policy agenda and its potential violent social consequences in global politics Drawing on extensive field research in Aceh this text is one of the first book length studies and thus provides a significant addition to Indonesian literatures on intersectional analysis of gender religion heteronormativity and feminist subversive practice It is a vital resource for those interested in understanding global interconnections of localised disaster and conflict reconstruction Carnal Aesthetics Marta Zarzycka,Bettina

Papenburg,2012-12-18 Art today is an increasingly multifaceted phenomenon encompassing transgressive works that intervene in war and ecological disasters in inequalities and revolutionary changes in technology Carnal Aesthetics is a fascinating new examination of this aspect of contemporary visual culture Employing recent theories of transgressive body imagery trauma affect and sensation it provides a fresh look at the meeting point between the politics of representation and the politics of perception through the prismatic lens of feminist theory Acclaimed scholars analyse a wide range of seminal case studies coming from different media digital photography painting video film and multimedia art They explore here a number of transgressive movements that significantly reconfigure the relationship between the body and the image Unlike other books on the complex relationship between politics and aesthetics Carnal Aesthetics seeks to provide a novel approach to art and culture by challenging the primacy of vision and by injecting an intersectional perspective into the fields of visual studies film and media studies as well as trauma studies It is a significant contribution across these dynamic fields of exploration for scholars who deal with the socio political nature of contemporary visual culture in their work Nordic

Literature Steven P. Sondrup,Mark B. Sandberg,Thomas A. DuBois,Dan Ringgaard,2017-12-15 Nordic Literature A comparative history is a multi volume comparative analysis of the literature of the Nordic region Bringing together the literature of Finland continental Scandinavia Sweden Norway Denmark and S pmi and the insular region Iceland Greenland and the Faroe Islands each volume of this three volume project adopts a new frame through which one can recognize and analyze significant clusters of literary practice This first volume Spatial nodes devotes its attention to the changing literary figurations of space by Nordic writers from medieval to contemporary times Organized around the depiction of various scapes and spatial practices at home and abroad this approach to Nordic literature stretches existing notions of temporally linear nationally centered literary history and allows questions of internal regional similarities and differences to emerge more strongly The productive historical contingency of the North as a literary space becomes clear in this close analysis of its literary texts and practices Crime and Fantasy in Scandinavia Andrew Nestingen,2011-12-31 Scandinavian popular novels and films have flourished in the last thirty years In Crime and Fantasy in Scandinavia Andrew Nestingen argues that the growth and visibility of popular culture have been at the heart of the development of heterogeneous publics in Scandinavia in opposition to the homogenizing influence of the post World War II welfare state Novels and films have mobilized readers and viewers serving as a preeminent site for debates over individualism collectivity national homogeneity gender and transnational relations Crime and Fantasy in Scandinavia provides insight into the changing nature of civil society in Scandinavia through the lens of popular culture Nestingen develops his argument through the examination of genres where the central theme is individual transgression of societal norms crime films and novels melodramas and fantasy fiction Among the internationally known writers and filmmakers discussed are Henning Mankell Aki Kaurismäki Lukas Moodysson and Lars von Trier
