long been neglected just as how much opera and its stars have influenced the world of perfumery from the nineteenth century to the present day In the first book length study on the topic Professor Mary May Robertson explores the relationship between opera perfumes and their respective protagonists in order to map out the previously undiscussed connection between the two Through compelling close readings of librettos and rigorous research through thousands of bottles of perfume the reader will come to appreciate and recognise the influences and exchanges between operas and perfumes and their ultimate marriage in the previously unrecognised genre of Operatic Perfumes which is to say perfumes named after operas composers and their divas
