Peripheral Space Of Photography:

The Peripheral Space of Photography Murat Nemet-Nejat, 2003 This profound short essay by Turkish born poet and translator Murat Nemet Nejat explores what separates photography from other artistic media He argues that photographic seeing is not a plastic experience but a meditative one built around a relationship between image and words Through a critique of photographs in the Metropolitan Museum of Art exhibition of 1993 he shows repeatedly how the focal points in photographs are often their mistakes blurs over or under exposure etc and spatially exists in their peripheries Essays on the Peripheries Peter Valente, 2021-04-22 Essays on the Peripheries contains essays written by translator and scholar Peter Valente over a twenty year period stretching from the 1990s to 2019 They are a record of literary exploration and discovery concerned with the recovery of lost works with those writers whose works were out of print or hard to find and whose names were somehow not fashionable in the current discourse but who are important nevertheless Edouard Roditi Barbara Barg and Tom Savage for example should be better known but their books are largely ignored This collection of essays highlights those works on the periphery such as Turkish poets Seyhan Er z elik and K k skender while it also includes several essays on better known queer authors like Pierre Guyotat and Pier Paolo Pasolini focusing on often overlooked qualities in their work that bear looking at closely These essays on works of literature are complemented by a number of texts on jazz again highlighting important and interesting figures in the world of jazz and free improvisation that may have fallen through the cracks such as the pianist Richard Twardzick and the Ganelin trio which recorded their great experimental work Ancora da Capo in 1980 behind the Iron Curtain Attention is also given to more popular figures such as Stan Getz The volume is completed with a series of essays reappraising Roman poets in the twenty first century offering fresh new translations and readings of authors such as Catullus and Callimachus A collection of essays like an anthology is by its nature incomplete Essays on the Peripheries is a kind of sketch rather than a finished portrait of the author s changing impressions on various subjects over the years Figurations of Peripheries Through Arts and Visual Studies Maiju Loukola, Mari Mäkiranta, Jonna Tolonen, 2023-12-01 This edited volume breaks new ground for understanding peripheries and peripherality by providing a multidisciplinary cross exposure through a collection of chapters and visual essays by researchers and artists The book is a collection of approaches from several disciplines where the spatial conceptual and theoretical hierarchies and biased assumptions of peripheries are challenged Chapters provide a diverse collection of viewpoints analyses and provocations on peripherality through bringing together international specialists to discuss the socio political aesthetic artistic ethical and legal implications of peripheral approach The aim is to illuminate the existing hidden often incommensurable and controversial margins in the society at large from equal ethical and empathic perspectives The book is designed to assist established researchers academics and students across disciplines who wish to incorporate novel arts and practice based research and critical approaches in their research projects artwork and academic writing Providing both a consolidated understanding of the peripheries visual studies and artistic research as they are and setting expansive and new research insights and practices this book is essential reading for scholars of arts and humanities visual culture art history design philosophy and cultural studies Architecture and Affect Lilian Chee,2023-05-17 Architecture and Affect is motivated by two questions Why does dismissed affective evidence trouble us What would it mean for architecture to assemble such discrepant evidence into its discourse Arguing that the persistent refrains of lived affect dwell in architecture this book traces such refrains to a concept of architecture wedged in the middle ground jammed amidst life things and events Rather than being aloof from its surrounds architecture in the midst challenges an autonomous epistemology Beyond accounting for the vivid but excluded this book develops a frame and a disposition for thinking critically about speculatively through and being grounded by encounter Examining affect through a constellation of spaces in contemporary Singapore it details architecture s uneasy but inextricable relationship with key subjects relegated to the incommensurate the peripheral the scenic and the decorative The outcome is a politicized architectural discourse simultaneously grounded and speculative bridging depth and intuition thinking and feeling Photography, Temporality, and Modernity Kris Belden-Adams,2019-01-14 This book examines the photography s unique capacity to represent time with a degree of elasticity and abstraction Part object study part cultural philosophical history it examines the medium s ability to capture and sometimes defy time while also traveling as objects across time and space nexuses The book features studies of understudied widespread practices studio portraiture motion studies panoramas racing photo finishes composite college class pictures planetary photography digital montages and extended exposure images A closer look at these images and their unique cultural historical contexts reveals photography to be a unique medium for expressing changing perceptions of time and the anxiety its passage provokes The Anatomical Record ,1927 Ineffably Urban: Imaging Buffalo Miriam Paeslack,2016-12-05 Buffalo in New York state is ineffable a typical city in transition between its past and future It is a classic example of one of many shrinking cities in North America and elsewhere which once prospered because of heavy industrialization but which now have to deal with various degrees of urban decay Bringing together a range of scholars from the humanities the social sciences art and architecture this volume looks at both the literal city image and urban representation generated by photographs video historical and contemporary narratives and grass root initiatives It investigates the notion of agency of media in the city and in return what the city s agency is This agency matters particularly as it is both transforming shrinking fading being redefined and being shaped through its visual and spatial mediation While illustrated by Buffalo in particular the book examines a broader phenomenon the identity of those cities that were built and blossomed during the late 19th and early 20th century and are now in different stages of decline and disintegration However while such cities are all confronted with complex issues of economic instability social and racial segregation urban sprawl and shrinking processes both in the inner city and more and more in their ex urban belts they are too often described through dramatically simplifying visual and linguistic tropes In Buffalo such tropes refer dialectically either to the city's past glory or its presumed current cultural political and economical stasis and decline This book takes such tired and familiar tropes and questions them The American Photo Engraver, 1922

Proximity and Distance in Northern Landscape Photography Darcy White, Chris Goldie, 2020-07-02 Northern landscapes are both real places and representations imagined spaces notions which are bound to collide in landscape photography In this book photographers academics curators and archivists from Germany Finland Scandinavia the US and the UK address urgent questions about environmental degradation globalization consumerism and the role of new technologies of representation in relation to landscape Wide ranging case studies examine the interpretation experience and appropriation of landscape in northern Europe northern England Scotland and the Nordic countries The book explores tensions in landscape photography between an emphasis on proximity and the embodied experience of place and space and an advocacy of distance and critical engagement and a questioning of the primacy of direct experience

Spaces of Justice Chris Butler, Edward Mussawir, 2017-02-10 This collection is inspired by the transdisciplinary possibilities posed by the connections between space and justice Drawing on a variety of theoretical influences that include Henri Lefebvre Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari Doreen Massey Gillian Rose Walter Benjamin Elias Canetti Antonio Negri and Yan Thomas the contributors to this book conduct a series of jurisprudential aesthetic and political inquiries into just modes of occupying space and the ways in which space comes under the signs of law and justice Bringing together leading critical legal scholars with theorists and practitioners from other disciplines within the humanities Spaces of Justice investigates unexplored associations between law and architectural theory the visual arts geography and cultural studies The book contributes to the ongoing destabilisation of the boundaries between law and the broader humanities and will be of considerable interest to scholars and students with an interest in the normative dimensions of law's spatial turn

Performance at the Urban Periphery Cathy Turner, Sharada Srinivasan, Jerri Daboo, Anindya Sinha, 2022-06-30 This edited volume considers performance in its engagement with expanding Indian cities with a particular focus on festivals and performances in Karnataka Tamil Nadu and Kerala The editors ask how performance practices are affected by urbanisation the effects of such changes on their cultural economy and the environmental impacts of performance itself This project also considers how performance responds to its context and the potential for performance to be critical of the city's development and of its own compromises Bringing together perspectives from the humanities natural and social sciences the book takes a multi faceted analytical view of live performance connecting contemporary with heritage forms and human with more than human actors The three sections themed around heritage everyday life and future ecologies will be of great interest to students and scholars in performance heritage studies ecology and art history

Basic Linguistic Theory Volume 1 R. M. W. Dixon, 2009-10-01 In Basic Linguistic Theory R M W Dixon provides a new and fundamental characterization of the nature of human languages and a comprehensive guide to their description and analysis In three clearly written and accessible

volumes he describes how best to go about doing linguistics the most satisfactory and profitable ways to work and the pitfalls to avoid In the first volume he addresses the methodology for recording analysing and comparing languages He argues that grammatical structures and rules should be worked out inductively on the basis of evidence explaining in detail the steps by which an attested grammar and lexicon can build up from observed utterances He shows how the grammars and words of one language may be compared to others of the same or different families explains the methods involved in cross linguistic parametric analyses and describes how to interpret the results Volume 2 and volume 3 to be published in 2011 offer in depth tours of underlying principles of grammatical organization as well as many of the facts of grammatical variation The task of the linguist Professor Dixon writes is to explain the nature of human languages each viewed as an integrated system together with an explanation of why each language is the way it is allied to the further scientific pursuits of prediction and evaluation Basic Linguistic Theory is the triumphant outcome of a lifetime s thinking about every aspect and manifestation of language and immersion in linguistic fieldwork It is a one stop text for undergraduate and graduate students of linguistics as well as for those in neighbouring disciplines such as psychology and anthropology Embodying Peripheries Giuseppina Forte,Kuan Hwa,2022-12-31 This book combines approaches from the design disciplines humanities and social sciences to foster interdisciplinary engagement across geographies around the identities embodied in and of peripheries Peripheral communities bear human faces and names necessitating specific modes of inquiry and commitments that prioritize lived human experience and cultural expression Hence the peripheries of this book are a question not a given the answers to which are contingent forms assembled around embodied identities Peripheries are urban fringes periphery countries in the modern world system Indigenous lands occupied territories or the peripheries of authoritative knowledge among others No form can exist outside historical relations of power enacted through knowledge political structures laws and regulations

Gee,2017-07-05 Based on rare archival material and numerous interviews with practitioners Art in the North of England 1979 2008 analyses the relation between political and economic changes stemming from the 1980s and artistic developments in the principal cities of the North of England in the late 20th century Looking in particular at the art scenes of Liverpool Manchester Leeds Sheffield and

Newcastle Gabriel Gee unveils a set of powerful aesthetic reactions to industrial change and urban reconstruction during this period on the part of artists including John Davies Pete Clarke the Amber collective Richard Wilson Karen Watson Nick Crowe Ian Rawlinson John Kippin and the contribution of organisations such as Projects UK Locus East Street Arts the Henry Moore Sculpture Trust and the Bluecoat Gallery in Liverpool While the geographical focus of this study is highly specific a key concern throughout is the relationship between regional national and international artistic practices and identities Of interest to all scholars and students concerned with the developments of British art in the second half of the 20th century the study is also of direct pertinence to observers of global narratives which are here described and analysed through the concept of trans industriality

The Fabric of Space Matthew Gandy, 2014-11-07 A study of water at the intersection of landscape and infrastructure in Paris Berlin Lagos Mumbai Los Angeles and London Water lies at the intersection of landscape and infrastructure crossing between visible and invisible domains of urban space in the tanks and buckets of the global South and the vast subterranean technological networks of the global North In this book Matthew Gandy considers the cultural and material significance of water through the experiences of six cities Paris Berlin Lagos Mumbai Los Angeles and London Tracing the evolving relationships among modernity nature and the urban imagination from different vantage points and through different periods Gandy uses water as a lens through which to observe both the ambiguities and the limits of nature as conventionally understood Gandy begins with the Parisian sewers of the nineteenth century captured in the photographs of Nadar and the reconstruction of subterranean Paris He moves on to Weimar era Berlin and its protection of public access to lakes for swimming the culmination of efforts to reconnect the city with nature He considers the threat of malaria in Lagos where changing geopolitical circumstances led to large scale swamp drainage in the 1940s He shows how the dysfunctional water infrastructure of Mumbai offers a vivid expression of persistent social inequality in a postcolonial city He explores the incongruous concrete landscapes of the Los Angeles River Finally Gandy uses the fictional scenario of a partially submerged London as the starting point for an investigation of the actual hydrological threats facing that city
