Stories of Heart and Home, 2002 The beloved Stories for the Heart compiler chose these comforting stories to demonstrate how today is infinitely more important than any number of misty imagined tomorrows and how the sweet simple pleasures of home are the real treasures after all July

The Demeter-Persephone Myth as Writing Ritual in the Lives of Literary Women Jana Rivers Norton, 2017-01-06 This volume explores the life stories of Elizabeth Bishop Virginia Woolf Alice James and Edith Wharton whose individuation process mirrored Demeter Persephone's mythic journey from abduction and rage to purposeful reconciliation These authors often courted humiliation and consequent exile by voicing what others did not want to acknowledge yet each took restorative action to discover and preserve emotional and mental wellbeing Writing during the 19th and early 20th centuries when an association between female authors and physical ailments neurasthenia hysteria and other nervous complaints by the medical patriarchy reflected how society in general understood mental illness as well as the narrative perceptions of women Bishop Woolf James and Wharton claimed personal autonomy by speaking truth about sorrow and suffering in their lives Despite restrictions and limiting gender norms each author continuously recast painful experiences of loss abuse and mental illness as fodder for the imagination to forge lasting literary careers The book emphasizes the therapeutic value of narrative disclosure and its ability to yield a deeper understanding of the impact of childhood trauma and adversity on women writers and how their creative response shaped modern culture As such it contextualizes trauma as lived experience for each writer along with current research on early loss and mourning childhood abuse and family systems theory in order to appreciate more fully how writing as ritual may help transform mental and emotional debility
