Perpetration Induced Traumatic Stress The Psychological Consequences Of Killing:

Perpetration-Induced Traumatic Stress Rachel M. MacNair, 2002-08-30 This volume introduces the concept of Perpetration Induced Traumatic Stress PITS a form of PTSD symptoms caused not by traditionally expected roles such as being a victim or rescuer in trauma but by being an active participant in causing trauma Sufferers of PITS may be in the roles of soldiers executioners or police officers where it is socially acceptable or even expected for them to cause trauma including death Scattered evidence of PITS is consolidated its implications are explored and exciting potentials for future research are suggested Compared to the more widely understood PTSD there appears to be greater severity and different symptom patterns for those affected by PITS Obvious differences to be explored for those who kill include questions of context guilt meaning content of dreams and sociological questions leading to special implications for therapy research into the causality of PTSD and violence prevention efforts Disciplines including sociology public policy history philosophy and theology will also find applications for this groundbreaking material

Transmitted Wounds Amit Pinchevski, 2019 Transmitted Wounds explores the ways media shape the social life of trauma both clinically and culturally Through a series of case studies from the radiocasts of the Eichmann trial to virtual reality therapy for PTSD Pinchevski offers a bold thesis about the deep association of media and trauma media bear witness to the human failure to bear witness making the traumatic technologically transmissible and reproducible

Images of Traumatic Memories Anja Meyer, 2020-12-14 By employing the lens of the most recent critical studies on intermediality the author analyses the interaction between literature and photography in three contemporary hybrid novels Miss Peregrine s Home for Peculiar Children by Ransom Riggs 2011 Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close by Jonathan Safran Foer 2005 and The Dark Room by Rachel Seiffert 2001 sharing the narration of traumatic historical events The intermedial dimension realised by the confluence of the two media devices offers new ways to create meaning and to reflect upon the nature of collective and individual trauma by re enacting the distortion and the inaccessibility to the memories of those experiences In this context the reader emerges as an active participant in the process of fiction making as the act of reading becomes a renewed act of witnessing

The Psychology of Peace Rachel M. MacNair, 2011-11-08 Despite our advances in technology and education we still live in a world permeated by violence This introductory textbook in the field of peace psychology addresses the psychological causes of violence and nonviolence conflict resolution nonviolent struggle and the confluence of public policy and private lifestyles Just as health providers study disease and its prevention understanding the causes of violent behavior and how to prevent such behavior is a basic cornerstone for those who are working towards a healthy society Another parallel maintaining physical health involves positive practices similarly positive nonviolent approaches need to be psychologically understood and encouraged The second edition of The Psychology of Peace An Introduction demonstrates what can be learned through the lens of peace psychology providing a solid foundation in the psychological theories needed for building and maintaining a peaceful society and peaceful individuals This second edition incorporates the tremendous amount of new research and subsequent events since 2003 including post 2003 violent and nonviolent revolutions such as the ongoing war in Iraq and Afghanistan and the nonviolent overthrowing of dictators in Tunisia and Egypt Author MacNair again outlines why application of psychological study to the soundness of decision making for public policy and to the policies themselves is crucial knowledge and how applying the study to private practices and even art can help build up a peaceful society The Third Harmony Michael N. Nagler, 2020-03-31 In the latest fruit of a brilliant career Michael Nagler argues that nonviolence not just as a tactic but as a way of being is the only way to unite deeply divided people and enable progressive movements and leaders of all stripes to fulfil their promise and potential So many of the problems that beset us war poverty isolation and the climate crisis have their roots in an old story about the universe we are purposeless matter in a random void and scarcity competition and violence are inevitable Citing the convergence of modern science and the essence of the world's wisdom traditions Michael Nagler argues for a new story the universe is conscious and purposeful humans are spiritual beings and cooperation and collaboration are our natural way of interacting This new story has had other champions but Nagler is the first to realize that a piece is missing For the new story to take hold we have to embrace nonviolence not only as a social change tactic but as a way of life Nonviolence is the only power strong enough to move the heart toward this deep and revolutionary change in worldview Nagler refers to this as the third harmony which is the harmony within and among us to resolve the crisis of the human image Calling on us to realize the urgency of nonviolence for resolving our personal and collective problems Nagler focuses on how to shift to our story on a personal everyday level and then integrate it into the very foundations of our understanding of humanity and community for our sake for the sake of future generations and the sake of nonviolence itself

A Theory of the Drone GrŽgoire Chamayou, 2015-01-06 The Parisian research scholar and author of Manhunts offers a philosophical perspective on the role of drone technology in today's changing military environments and the implications of drone capabilities in enabling democratic choices 12 500 first printing Censored Landscapes Isabella La Rocca González, 2024-11-12 Censored Landscapes unveils the hidden reality of farming animals offering a powerful and emotionally charged exploration Photographs essays poetry and research together tell a factual story about the most abusive industry of the twenty first century Isabella La Rocca González's lens captures the haunting beauty of landscapes that portray the animal agricultural industry A number displayed with each image represents the lives imprisoned within the facility drawing attention to the magnitude of suffering behind the banal exteriors Portraits of nonhuman animals who have been confined in such facilities are emblematic of the vast number of animals whose individuality sentience and beauty are obliterated by the industry Censored Landscapes maintains a lyrical quality through evocative photographs poetry and personal narrative The project also provides a robust basis in verifiable facts and scientific research Readers are encouraged to confront the intricate web of connections between animal agriculture animal suffering environmental devastation worker exploitation

Visions in Conflict Brian C. Alston, 2010 A conflict in visions stands at the center of major international and national crises in the Middle East Africa Asia or elsewhere Whether in mass killing genocide or intractable conflict ideology is usually present and plays important role By ideology political religious economic social or some other is meant visions of social arrangements and human relations that provide meaning and hope for a group Such ideologies can identify others as enemies who stand in the way of their fulfillment The present volume contains essays written by authors from around the world on powerful vehicles of conflict resolution namely religion psychology education and training psychotherapy and sports It is our sincere hope that these essays shed light on the process of peace and reconciliation Give a Sh*t Ashlee

Piper, 2018-06-26 The time for stepping up and protecting our planet is now And this book is an easy enjoyable place to start Moby It s time to put your good intentions into action It s time to give a shit about your health your footprint and your planet Give a Sh t guides you through the transition to a kinder healthier more conscious and sustainable life like no book has done before With a humorous and nonjudgmental tone savvy eco friendly lifestyle expert Ashlee Piper walks you through easy but impactful shifts anyone can make to live and be better every damn day In your home Room by room guidance and tactics for a chic affordable sustainable living space no matter where or how you live In the kitchen 20 unfussy quick and delicious plant based recipes for every life occasion from pantry staples like White Witch Almond Milk to exciting everyday fare like Walnut Chorizo Tostadas to kick ass desserts like Jamocha Silk Pie In your closet Advice for building a polished ethical wardrobe in a world of fast fashion In the mirror Beauty and grooming tips and DIY products from skin care to foundation to ahem ladytime provisions that are safer natural cruelty free and best of all effective In the wild How to maintain your values and your moxie at work in your social life and when abroad Give a Sh t isn t a manual of restrictions it s a practical handbook that meets you where you are and finally harmonizes doing good with living well Moral Injury Tom Frame, 2015-11-01 This collection of essays from ex soldiers military historians chaplains and psychologists examines the unseen wounds sustained by Australians deployed to armed conflict peacekeeping missions humanitarian assistance and disaster relief While many psychical injuries heal there is growing awareness that unseen wounds affecting the mind and the spirit are often the deepest and the most lasting This book the first Australian examination of moral injury shows there are no easy answers and no simple solutions It suggests where existing approaches are misguided and how a multi disciplinary approach is needed to gain a better sense of moral injury Responsibilities to Protect David Whetham,Bradley J. Strawser,2015-03-20 Following the humanitarian horrors of the 1990s the international community began to seek consensus on a new norm to help address the tension between upholding the sovereign right of states to administer their own internal affairs and the pressing need for civilian populations to be protected from their own government in certain situations The result was the responsibility to protect initiative from the UN accepted as an emerging norm and based on existing legal structures although not itself necessarily accepted as law This volume looks not only at the humanitarian inspired interventions of the past 15 years such as those that took place under the Force for Good banner of the UK Government under New Labour but also looks at what this has meant for the people actually involved in doing them What responsibilities do states have towards their own soldiers when sending them to protect other people Should that responsibility extend to moral and psychological protection as well as physical protection and if so how How far does the duty go when considering the protection of one s own citizens who have deliberately placed themselves in harm s way such as journalists who have chosen to leave the safety of a protected area What happens when institutions are faced with the choice of protecting their people or their reputation What does it feel like for the inhabitants of a state who become protected by the international community The book brings together international scholars and practitioners to address these concerns from both sides of the coin recognising that international initiatives have practical implications Combat Stress Injury Charles R. Figley,William Nash,2011-02-14 Combat Stress Injury represents a definitive collection of the most current theory research and practice in the area of combat and operational stress management edited by two experts in the field In this book Charles Figley and Bill Nash have assembled a wide ranging group of authors military nonmilitary American international combat veterans trainers and as diverse as psychiatrists psychologists social workers nurses clergy physiologists military scientists The chapters in this volume collectively demonstrate that combat stress can effectively be managed through prevention and training prior to combat stress reduction methods during operations and desensitization programs immediately following combat exposure
