Εὐαγγέλιον αἰώνιον της οἰκουμένης της μελλουσης, or, the Saints first revealed and convenanted mercies, shortly approaching, etc William SHERWIN (Minister of the Gospel.),1676 Perpetual Kin Pat Kaufman,2002-09-01 Living the End of Empire Jan-Bart Gewald,Marja Hinfelaar,Giacomo Macola,2011-08-12 Building on the foundational work of the Rhodes Livingstone Institute the essays contained in Living the End of Empire offer a nuanced and complex picture of the late colonial period in Zambia The present volume based on untapped archival material and sources that have emerged in recent years throws new light on some of the historical trajectories that the teleological gaze of nationalist scholars tended to ignore or belittle By bringing to view the deep rooted tensions underlying the Zambian nationalist movement the painful dilemmas faced by chiefly and religious institutions and the contradictory experiences of European and Asian minorities Living the End of Empire draws inspiration from and contributes to a growing literature that is concerned with the study of social political and cultural forces that did not readily fit into the then dominant narratives of united anti colonial struggles

Nachituti's Gift David M. Gordon,2006-02-01 Nachituti s Gift challenges conventional theories of economic development with a compelling comparative case study of inland fisheries in Zambia and Congo from pre to postcolonial times Neoclassical development models conjure a simple abstract progression from wealth held in people to money or commodities instead Gordon argues primary social networks and oral charters like Nachituti s Gift remained decisive long after the rise of intensive trade and market activities Interweaving oral traditions songs and interviews as well as extensive archival research Gordon s lively tale is at once a subtle analysis of economic and social transformations an insightful exercise in environmental history and a revealing study of comparative politics Honorable Mention Melville J Herskovits Award African Studies Association A powerful portrayal of the complexity fluidity and subtlety of Lake Mweru fishers production strategies Natchituti s Gift adds nuance and evidence to some of the most important and sophisticated conversations going on in African studies today Kirk Arden Hoppe International Journal of African Historical Studies A lively and intelligent book which offers a solid contribution to ongoing debates about the interplay of the politics of environment history and economy Joost Fontein Africa Well researched and referenced Natchituti s Gift will be of interest to those in a wide variety of disciplines including anthropology African Studies history geography and environmental studies Heidi G Frontani H SAfrica The Translation of Culture T. Violent Memories Judith Zur,2019-05-20 This local study of the impact of political violence on a Maya Indian village is based on intensive fieldwork in the department of El Quiche Guatemala during 1988 1990 It examines the processes of fragmentation and realignment in a community undergoing rapid and violent change and relates local social cultural and psychological phenomena to t The Early History of Malawi Bridglal Pachai,1972 The Evolution of Social Institutions Dmitri M. Bondarenko,Stephen A. Kowalewski,David B. Small,2020-09-12 This book presents a novel and innovative approach to the study of social evolution using case studies from the Old and the New World from prehistory to the present This approach is based on examining social evolution through the evolution of social institutions Evolution is defined as the process of structural change Within this framework the society or culture is seen as a system composed of a vast number of social institutions that are constantly interacting and changing As a result the structure of society as a whole is also evolving and changing The authors posit that the combination of evolving social institutions explains the non linear character of social evolution and that every society develops along its own pathway and pace Within this framework society should be seen as the result of the compound effect of the interactions of social institutions specific to it Further the transformation of social institutions and relations between them is taking place not only within individual societies but also globally as institutions may be trans societal and even institutions that operate in one society can arise as a reaction to trans societal trends and demands The book argues that it may be more productive to look at institutions even within a given society as being parts of trans societal systems of institutions since despite their interconnectedness societies still have boundaries which their members usually know and respect Accordingly the book is a must read for researchers and scholars in various disciplines who are interested in a better understanding of the origins history successes and failures of social institutions

Translocality Ulrike Freitag,Achim Von Oppen,2009-12-31 Drawing on case studies mostly from Asia and Africa this book reconsiders the increasing interconnectedness between world regions from a perspective of translocality It suggests a more comprehensive reading of processes often simplified as global very recent unidirectional and Western dominated Slavery in Africa Suzanne Miers,Igor Kopytoff,1977 This collection of sixteen short papers together with a complex and very much longer introductory essay by the editors on African Slavery as an Institution of Marginality constitutes an impressive attempt by anthropologists and historians to explore describe and analyze some of the various kinds of human bondage within a number of precolonial African societies It is important to note that in spite of the precolonial emphasis of the volume all of the essays are based at least partly on anthropological or ethnohistorical field research carried out since 1959 All but one have been augmented greatly by more conventional historical research in published as well as archival sources And although the volume s focus is upon the structures and conditions of servitude within the several African societies described many of the essays illustrate and some discuss the conceptual as well as the practical difficulties of separating the institutions and customs of domestic African slavery from those of the European dominated commercial slave trade in which many of the societies participated from JSTOR <http://www.jstor.org> May 24 2013

A History of West Central Africa to 1850 John K. Thornton, 2020-03-26 Based on substantial new research from primary sources and archives this accessible interpretative history of West Central Africa from earliest times to 1852 gives comprehensive and in depth coverage of the region With equal focus given to both internal histories or inter state interactions and external dynamics and relationships this study represents an original approach to regional histories which goes beyond the existing scholarship on the area By contextualising and expanding its range to include treatment of the Portuguese colony of Angola John K Thornton provides new understandings of significant events people and inter regional interactions which aid the grounding of the history of West Central Africa within a broader context A valuable resource to students and scholars of African history The Historical Study of African Religion Terence O.
