Perspectives On War And Peace In Central America:

Perspectives on War and Peace in Central America Sŭng-ho Kim, Thomas W. Walker, 1992 This volume records the perspectives of a highly diverse group of prominent individuals who met late in 1988 in an important international symposium concerned with the continuing conflicts in Central America Included are presentations by leading conservative and liberal scholar authors high ranking diplomats from the governments of Mexico the United States and Nicaragua directors of conservative and liberal think tanks a spokesperson for a state governor opposed to Ronald Reagan's policy of sending National Guard troops to train in Central America a centrally involved media practitioner and a media critic It also includes an unofficial translation of the final report of the International Verification and Follow up Commission established by the Arias Peace Agreement A preface and an introduction by the editors set this lively and historic debate in context

Between War and Peace in Central America Canada-Caribbean-Central America Policy Alternatives (Organization), 1990 War and Peace in Central America Frank McNeil, 1988 A perspective on the Sandinista Contra war by a former American ambassador to Costa Rica Biennial Report of the United States Institute of Peace United States Institute of Peace, 1991 Current Bibliographical Information Dag Hammarskjöld Library, 1993 Addressing

Global Environmental Challenges from a Peace Ecology Perspective Hans Günter Brauch, Úrsula Oswald Spring, Juliet Bennett, Serena Eréndira Serrano Oswald, 2016-10-08 Addressing global environmental challenges from a peace ecology perspective the present book offers peer reviewed texts that build on the expanding field of peace ecology and applies this concept to global environmental challenges in the Anthropocene Hans Günter Brauch Germany offers a typology of time and turning points in the 20th century Juliet Bennett Australia discusses the global ecological crisis resulting from a tyranny of small decisions Katharina Bitzker Canada debates the emotional dimensions of ecological peacebuilding through love of nature Henri Myrtilinen UK analyses preliminary findings on gender peacebuilding and climate change in Honduras while Úrsula Oswald Spring Mexico offers a critical review of the policy and scientific nexus debate on the water energy food and biodiversity nexus reflecting on security in Mexico In closing Brauch discusses whether strategies of sustainability transition may enhance the prospects for achieving sustainable peace in the Anthropocene Peace in Latin America David Díaz Arias, Christine Hatzky, Werner Mackenbach, Sebastián Martínez Fernández, Joachim Michael, Hinnerk Onken, 2024-12-30 This volume shifts the focus from violence to peace studies in Latin America and sheds light on how social groups and individuals resist to violence and strive to create peaceful or at least less violent conditions of conviviality Drawing on social sciences history and anthropology but also on cultural literary and film studies the book examines the role of social mobilizations civic activism and cultural artistic initiatives as responses to the crisis of violence which the state is unable or unwilling to address In this sense it debates what a culture of peace could mean in Latin America Divided into four chapters Chapter 1 discusses peace from an epistemological and philosophical perspective In Chapter 2 the authors discuss the contours of a culture of peace with a particular focus on literary and cinematic narratives Chapter 3 analyses the public debate about the role of the state in peace processes in the case of Costa Rica Central America Chapter 4 examines the importance of civil society activities in peace processes Peace in Latin America is written for a wide and diverse audience that includes researchers professors specialists students civil society activists and political actors not only from Latin America but from all over the world

Perspectives on International Relations and World History Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2023-06-23 In this book we will study about the subject of Perspectives on International Relations and World History exploring its key themes developments and importance in the broader context of the discipline The book offers foundational and in depth understanding tailored to build academic insight and critical thought

Latin America and the Illusion of Peace David R. Mares, 2018-01-17 This book explores interstate conflict and its dynamics in the context of Latin Americas contemporary conflict management experience The myth of Latin America as a region of peace means that each time the use of force rises to the level of global attention e g Ecuador Peru 1995 or Colombia Ecuador 2008 analysts and the press ask how could that happen here Yet the official uses of military force in interstate relations are significantly more prevalent than most analysts within and outside the region understand and the region is facing new and potentially destabilizing challenges It is the contention of this book that mitigating the threat raised by militarized interstate relations requires understanding the various ways in which military force can be employed short of war this in turn requires illuminating the decision making process that produces militarization of a disagreement considering options for dissuading the decision makers from choosing to militarize and limiting escalations when militarization does occur

Seeking Peace in El Salvador D. Negroponte, 2012-01-17 The resolution of the civil war in El Salvador coincided with the end of the Cold War After two years of negotiations and a decade long effort to implement the peace accords this work examines how peace was made and whether it has endured

Peace and Violence in Brazil Marcos Alan Ferreira, 2021-10-28 This edited volume examines how the multiple manifestations of social violence in Brazil impacts the building of a peaceful society The chapters reflect on the role of state organized crime and civil society They provide a unique analysis of how the Brazilian state deals with criminal violence but also finds challenges to comply with Sustainable Development Goal 16 to interdict police violence and to provide an efficient gun policy The book shows the agency of civil society in a violent society in which NGOs and communities engage in key peace formation action including advocacy for human rights and promoting arts The overall aim of this book is to advance the research agenda regarding the intersections between peace public security and violence under the lens of peace studies In Brazil the challenges to peace differ markedly from areas in regular conflict

South America and Peace Operations Kai Michael Kenkel, 2013-07-18 This volume is the first English language work to focus specifically on South America in the context of peace operations The region of South America has been undergoing significant changes recently with regard to its attitudes towards participation in peace operations Leaving behind a strong reluctance with regard to intervention the states have recently taken on a much stronger presence among UN peacekeepers The foremost showcase of this more robust and responsible stance has been MINUSTAH the current UN mission in Haiti South American contributors provide over half the operation s troops and the Force Commander is provided by Brazil This book is intended as an introduction for researchers to the nexus of issues surrounding South America s increasing influence as a contributor to peace operations The authors provide the reader with a historically and theoretically grounded understanding of what motivates defence policy and decisions on intervention in the region Featuring contributions from prominent thinkers in the field and a broad range of case studies this volume successfully combines practical applicability with diversity of analysis This book will be of much interest to students of peacekeeping South American politics peace and conflict studies security studies and International Relations in general

Exploring Betty A. Reardon's Perspective on Peace Education Dale T. Snauwaert,2019-05-15 This book presents commentaries by a leading international group of peace education scholars and practitioners concerning Reardon s peace education theory and intellectual legacy The guiding question throughout the book is How can her foundational work be used to advance the theory and practice of peace education In an attempt to find answers the contributing authors explore three general areas of inquiry 1 Theoretical Foundations of Peace and Human Rights Education 2 Feminism and the Gender Perspective as Pathways of Transformation Toward Peace and Justice and 3 Peace Education Pedagogy and Practices A contemplative commentary by Reardon herself rounds out the coverage

War, Peace, and Violence: Four Christian Views Paul Copan,2022-09-13 In a world of war terrorism and constant threats to global stability how should Christians honor Jesus Christ Four experts in Christian ethics political philosophy and international affairs present four different views of just war nonviolence Christian realism and church history orienting readers to today s key positions

Wars of Latin America, 1948-1982 René De La Pedraja,2013-04-29 This book continues the narrative begun by the author in Wars of Latin America 1899 1941 It provides a clear and readable description of military combat occurring in Latin America from 1948 to the start of 1982 In an unusual peaceful lull Latin America experienced no wars from 1942 to 1947 Although the text concentrates on combat narrative matters of politics business and international relations appear as necessary to explain the wars The author draws on many previously unknown sources to provide information never before published The book traces the many insurgencies in Latin America as well as conventional wars Among the highlights are the chapters on the Cuban and Nicaraguan insurrections and on the Bay of Pigs invasion One goal of the text is to explain why of the many insurgencies appearing in Latin America only those in Cuba and Nicaragua were successful in overthrowing governments The book also helps explain why even unsuccessful insurgencies have survived for decades as has happened in Colombia and Peru Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Zones of Peace in the Third World Arie Marcelo Kacowicz, 1998-01-01 Provides a critique and an extension of the democratic peace theory by focusing on the regional level and by offering alternative explanations for the maintenance of democratic and non democratic zones of peace The Long-Term Perspective of Human Impact on Landscape for Environmental Change and Sustainability Anna Maria Mercuri, Assunta Florenzano, 2019-11-19 The research studies included in this Special Issue highlight the fundamental contribution of the knowledge of environmental history to conscious and efficient environment conservation and management The long term perspective of the dynamics that govern the human climate ecosystem is becoming one of the main focuses of interest in biological and earth system sciences Multidisciplinary bio geo archaeo investigations into the underlying processes of human impact on the landscape are crucial to envisage possible future scenarios of biosphere responses to global warming and biodiversity losses This Special Issue seeks to engage an interdisciplinary dialog on the dynamic interactions between nature and society focusing on long term environmental data as an essential tool for better informed landscape management decisions to achieve an equilibrium between conservation and sustainable resource exploitation
