Roloff Beny, Mitchell Crites, Husain Nasr, 1976 In Search of the Sacred Seyyed Hossein Nasr, Ramin Jahanbegloo, 2010-07-14 In this book a series of interviews offers an accessible revealing human and intellectual biography of leading Islamic scholar Seyyed Hossein Nasr Seyyed Hossein Nasr is one of the preeminent philosophers writing today Sure to be a key resource for decades to come In Search of the Sacred A Conversation with Seyyed Hossein Nasr on His Life and Thought illuminates Nasr's experiences and shares his insights on topics from religion and philosophy to science and the arts Based on a series of interviews the book combines traditional autobiography with an exploration of the intellectual and spiritual trajectories of the author's thought during key periods of his life In doing so it presents a fascinating panorama not only of the life and ideas of one man but also of major events ranging from intellectual life in Iran during the Pahlavi period and the Iranian Revolution to some of the major religious and intellectual debates between Islam and modernism Nasr writes that his whole life has been a quest for the sacred This work connects that quest with some of the most important issues of the day in encounters between Islam and the West Saffron Sky Galareh Asayesh, 2000-10-19 This lyrical memoir evinces the author's passion for constructing an American life with the spiritual fervor and deeply aesthetic rituals that were part of her childhood in Iran Asayesh who immigrated to North Carolina as a girl writes too of her struggle to arrive at an acceptable sexuality in the face of parental panic and tells of her frustration during later trips to post Shah Iran with the sisters the Ayatollah's ubiquitous enforcers of female modesty This Heavenly Wine, 2014-11-30 Heartopening poetry of longing and love from the last great poet in the classical Persian tradition Following in the footsteps of the Persian mystical poets Rumi Hafez Nizami and others the timeless works in this collection express the poet's overwhelming devotion to and longing for the Divine Beloved The Perilous Trade Roy MacSkimming, 2012-01-11 A book that will fascinate and inform readers who love Canadian writing Part cultural history part personal memoir this accomplished sweeping yet intimate book demonstrates that the story of Canadian publishing is one of the cornerstones of our literary history In The Perilous Trade former publisher literary journalist and industry insider Roy MacSkimming chronicles the extraordinary journey of English language publishing from the Second World War to the present During a period of unparalleled transformation Canada grew from a cultural colony fed on the literary offerings of London and New York to a mature nation whose writers are celebrated around the world Crucial to that evolution were three generations of book publishers mavericks gamblers entrepreneurs political activists and true believers sharing a conviction that Canadians need books of their own Canadian publishing has long made headlines be it Jack McClelland's outrageous publicity stunts American takeovers the collapse of venerable imprints or bold political moves to ensure the industry's survival Roy MacSkimming takes us behind the headlines to draw memorable portraits of the men and women who built Canada's literary renaissance With a novelist's eye for character and incident he weaves their tangled relationships with authors agents booksellers and each other into a lively narrative rich in anecdote and revealing personal recollection Canadian publishers large and small have nurtured a literature of extraordinary diversity and breadth MacSkimming argues giving us English Canada's greatest cultural achievement

Martyrdom and Ecstasy Sylwia Surdykowska, 2012-04-25 The book is concerned with one of the most important issues in Persian culture that is to say a broadly conceived idea of sacrifice and martyrdom At present it is contained in the concept of shahadat which arouses much controversy in the Western world today In successive chapters the author discusses the origin and evolution of this concept in Persian culture the process of shaping attitudes conducive to the attainment of readiness for shahadat and the role of this concept in propaganda as well as presenting its modern day interpretation The basic research material was provided by political and religious publications of contemporary Iranian authors including Ali Shari'ati Morteza Motahhari Ruhollah Khomeini and Abdolkarim Soroush who have exerted a significant influence on the formation of the Iranian consciousness The book is an interdisciplinary publication The author refers to philology literary studies cultural anthropology social psychology and interestingly to the psychology of emotions in order to explicate the traditional Persian system of upbringing and shaping the readiness for martyrdom and sacrifice The book shows the idea of shahadat as part of the Persian cultural paradigm which due to religious and literary tradition has influenced the shaping of Iranian identity over the centuries and as a result it has affected social and political attitudes of the Iranian people The book is mainly directed to Iranologists Nevertheless it will also be of interest to anthropologists psychologists of culture sociologists and philosophers due to its interdisciplinary character Development, architecture, and the formation of heritage in late twentieth-century Iran Ali Mozaffari,Nigel Westbrook,2020-10-13 What is the relationship between development as a globalizing project and the production of cultural specificities in developmental contexts Utilising an architectural lens this book illustrates how development instigates interest in the past and in the process creates heritage It shows multiple uses of the past and their contestation in highly fluid social contexts

Nationalism in Architecture of Modern Iran Niloofar Kakhi,2024-04-03 A historical account of the development of nationalism in Iranian architecture between 1905 and 2015 Nationalism in Architecture of Modern Iran is the first comprehensive book on modern architecture in Iran to be published in English It addresses the relationship between nationalism and architecture in Iran and discusses the role Western architects played in the development of modern architecture in the country while introducing some of the most significant and recent projects in Iran It investigates what it means to design a building that bears an Iranian or Islamic Iranian identity and how to construct a conceptual platform for critically assessing representations of national identity in contemporary architecture This book will directly help practicing architects and policymakers of the built environment especially in Iran as well as give a comprehensive understanding of the modern history of architecture in Iran to art historians and a broader audience It introduces some of the most significant and recent projects in Iran for the first time

Irangenes Jonathan Friedlander,Anita Colby,Ron Kelley,2023-12-22 Following Iran's Islamic revolution in 1979 hundreds of thousands of Iranians fled their homeland For a great number Los Angeles was their destination and today more Iranians live there than anywhere else in the world outside of Iran This compelling collection of photographs essays and interviews explores that exodus from Iran and the Iranian presence in Southern California While capturing the remarkable diversity of this immigrant community Irangeles also confronts the sprawling metropolis that is increasingly influenced by its large ethnic and immigrant populations Iranians too are inexorably linked to the demographic changes in California changes that raise questions of assimilation and cultural survival and that will see minority populations become the majority in the next century Integrating visual textual and oral sources this book explicates and humanizes the Iranian experience for scholars and general readers alike We come to know people from a broad range of occupations and income levels political persuasions and religious faiths Supporters of the deposed Pahlavi regime and staunch followers of Khomeini are here along with other Muslims Jews Zoroastrians and Baha is We hear the voices of women those who veil themselves in public and those who have adopted Western cultural practices and learn how both old and new gender roles pressure Iranian women and men Social relations among Iranian adolescents and the conflicts with their elders are also illuminated Irangeles is a fascinating portrait of a community caught between two cultures It offers a new perspective on Iran and its people as well as on immigrant communities in general Following Iran s Islamic revolution in 1979 hundreds of thousands of Iranians fled their homeland For a great number Los Angeles was their destination and today more Iranians live there than anywhere else in the world outside of Iran This compelling Iran's Troubled Modernity Ali Mirsepassi, 2018-12-13 Ahmad Fardid 1910-94 the anti Western philosopher known to many as the Iranian Heidegger became the self proclaimed philosophical spokesperson for the Islamic Republic famously coining the term Westoxication Using new materials about Fardid s intellectual biography and interviews with thirteen individuals Ali Mirsepassi pieces together the striking story of Fardid s life and intellectual legacy Each interview in turn sheds light on Iran s twentieth century intellectual and political self construction and highlights Fardid s important role and influence in the creation of Iranian modernity The Fardid phenomenon was unique to the Iranian story and yet contributed to a broader twentieth century Heideggerian tradition that marked the political destiny of other countries under a similar ideological sway Through these accounts Mirsepassi cuts to the nerve of how deadly political authenticity movements take hold of modern societies and spread their ideology Combining a sociological framework with the realities of lived experience he examines Iran s recent and astonishing upheavals experiments and mass mobilizations From Behind the Walled Garden F.A. Adams, 2002-02-05 This is a story of love passion and political upheaval at the turn of the century in Persia A young woman struggles against oppression in her society as a revolution rages on between constitutionalists and monarchists Torn between two loves Princess Yasamin struggles to keep her own identity in this poetic and sensitive tale
