Books on Asia from the Near East to the Far East Eleazar Birnbaum, 1971-12-15 This is a selected annotated list of some 2 000 books on Asia in English and French currently in print chosen with the aim of providing a long term historical perspective for the general reader The list is presented in four main parts Asia as a whole the Islamic world India South and Southeast Asia the Far East Subdivisions cover such topics as general and reference works history social science and law history of literature literature in translation religion and ideas arts crafts architecture and science and the lands in modern times Portraiture in South Asia since the Mughals Crispin Branfoot, 2018-06-30 One of the most remarkable artistic achievements of the Mughal Empire was the emergence in the early seventeenth century of portraits of identifiable individuals unprecedented in both South Asia and the Islamic world Appearing at a time of increasing contact between Europe and Asia portraits from the reigns of the great Mughal emperor patrons Akbar Jahangir and Shah Jahan are among the best known paintings produced in South Asia In the following centuries portraiture became more widespread in the visual culture of South Asia especially in the rich and varied traditions of painting but also in sculpture and later prints and photography This collection seeks to understand the intended purpose of a range of portrait traditions in South Asia and how their style setting and representation may have advanced a range of aesthetic social and political functions The chapters range across a wide historical period exploring ideals of portraiture in Sanskrit and Persian literature the emergence and political symbolism of Mughal portraiture through to the paintings of the Rajput courts sculpture in Tamil temples and the transformation of portraiture in colonial north India and post independence Pakistan This specially commissioned collection of studies from a strong list of established scholars and rising stars makes a significant contribution to South Asian history art and visual culture The Prophet's Ascension Christiane J. Gruber, Frederick S. Colby, 2010-02 The tales of the mi raj describe the prophet Muhammad s journey through the heavens his encounters with prophets and angels and his visit to heaven and hell The tales are among Islam s most popular appearing in Arabic Persian and Turkish literature and in later adaptations throughout the Muslim world Often serving as narratives designed to promote the worldview of particular Muslim groups the tales were also a means for communities to construct rules of normative behavior and ritual practices and were used to assert the superiority of Islam over other religions The essays in this collection discuss the formation of this narrative the mi raj as a missionary text its various adaptations its application to esoteric thought and its use in performance and ritual Turkish Miniature Paintings and Manuscripts from the Collection of Edwin Binney 3rd Edwin Binney, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1973 The Journey of Maps and Images on the Silk Road Philippe Forêt, Andreas Kaplony, 2008 This book covers new ground on the diffusion and transmission of geographical knowledge that occurred at critical junctures in the long history of the Silk Road Much of twentieth century scholarship on the Silk Road examined the ancient archaeological objects and medieval historical records found within each cultural area while the consequences of long distance interaction across Eurasia remained poorly studied Here ample attention is given to the journeys that notions and objects undertook to transmit spatial values to other civilizations In retracing the steps of four major circuits right across the many civilizations that shared the Silk Road The Journey of Maps and Images on the Silk Road traces the ways in which maps and images surmounted spatial historical and cultural divisions Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair, C.
