Personal And Social Development For All:

Assessing Children's Personal And Social Development MARTIN BUCK, Helena Burke, Sally Inman, 2005-07-28 Social and personal development of pupils is an area of growing interest. However, while much has been done in relation to provision for development, there is little available on how teachers might assess the development of pupils, be it spiritual, moral, social or cultural. The contributors also examine how we might accredit such development. With provision for development on the national agenda, this title looks at the repercussions and examines the difficult issues raised by assessment and accreditation and the problems with which teachers will inevitably be faced.

Personal, Social, Academic and Career Development in Higher Education Arti Kumar, 2022-04-19 This book is about SOARing to Success, a pedagogy that engages individuals in a structured and supported process of personalised learning leading to the development of transferable career management and employability skills. The SOAR model, as it has come to be known and used, provides tried and tested ways for educators to implement Personal Development Planning (PDP), Career Development Learning (CDL) and employability agendas. The theoretical concepts and practical activities that are interpreted and integrated within SOAR require all learners to make meaningful, dynamic connections within and between Self, Opportunity, Aspirations and Results through inbuilt requirements for self-reflection, action and interaction, research analysis and synthesis. Especially relevant for regeneration in the post-pandemic world, this fully updated edition emphasises and addresses the needs to focus more broadly on multidimensional employability, enterprise and entrepreneurship, take account of post-Covid 19 educational and employment landscapes, changing labour market realities and employers' technology-enabled recruitment methods, engage proactively and positively with ways to strengthen resilience, health and wellbeing in ourselves and others, tackle academic learning and assessments with digital research and information literacy skills, become adaptable and/or adaptive according to the demands of different contexts, co-create with social enterprise and business skills a better world in which self-actualisation aligns with the actualisation of the UN's Sustainable Development Goals, reflect globalisation in the internationalisation of higher education. HE Packed full of useful practical features, this text and its e-resources will help all staff and education development professionals, teachers in HE and advisers to motivate and enable students to relate their learning and achievements to the demands of life and work in our times.

Personal, Social and Emotional Development in the Early Years Foundation Stage Sue Sheppy, 2012-11-12 The Practical Guidance in the Early Years Foundation Stage series will assist practitioners in the smooth and successful implementation of the Early Years Foundation Stage. Each book gives clear and detailed explanations of each aspect of Learning and Development and encourages readers to consider each area within its broadest context to expand and develop their own knowledge and good practice. Practical ideas and activities for all age groups are offered along with a wealth of expertise on how elements from the practice guidance can be implemented within all early years settings. The books include suggestions for the innovative use of everyday resources, popular books and stories. Using the clear and accessible material in this book practitioners will be guided through the process of helping children develop an understanding of themselves to help them gain independence and to become excited and motivated about their learning. Practical examples and ideas are linked to the Practice Guidance to ensure that practitioners feel confident in their ability to support and develop children's emotional well-being and social skills as well as develop their own knowledge and understanding of this important aspect of the EYFS.

Services for young people Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Education Committee, 2011-06-23. In this report the Education Committee warns that extending the National Citizen Service (NCS) offer to all 600 000 16-year-olds could have a price tag in excess of 350 million each year even if only 50% of young people take part. This would make it more costly than the entirety of youth services currently provided by local authorities. Instead the Committee calls for the NCS to be retained but become a form of accreditation for existing schemes which meet the Government's objectives. The report criticises the Government's failure yet to outline a youth policy or strategic vision for the sector. It says that youth services are suffering disproportionate cuts and that the Government should be prepared to take action to ensure that local authorities meet their statutory obligations. The Committee finds that evidence on the effectiveness of youth services is lacking and calls for more effort by government and service providers to help guide local authorities on where best to spend scarce resources. Youth services cannot be immune from public spending cuts and the sector must make better use of non-public forms of funding including charitable philanthropic and private sources.

Nurturing Personal, Social and Emotional Development in Early Childhood Debbie Garvey, 2017-09-21. An understanding of brain development can help early years practitioners to better nurture personal, social and emotional development in children. This book explains recent research and theory in easy-to-understand terms and explores how this knowledge can be used to support the needs of young children.

Global Frontiers of Social Development in Theory and Practice B. Mohan, 2015-07-15. This volume examines developmentality and the archeology of its social practices unfolding systemic failures that muffle progress. Economic climate and social justice are the areas of focus for this analysis of human social development in the fog of ideological institutional meltdowns.
