Archetype, Culture, and the Individual in Education Clifford

Mayes,2020-03-16 In Archetype Culture and the Individual in Education The Three Pedagogical Narratives Clifford Mayes presents a unique approach to understanding how Jungian principles can inform pedagogical theory and practice In a time when what the educational historian Lawrence Cremin called the military industrial educational complex and its standardized education are running roughshod over the psyche and spirit of students Mayes deploys depth psychology especially the work of Jung to advance an archetypal approach to teaching and learning Mayes demonstrates how catastrophic it is to students when the classroom is governed by forces that objectify the individual in a paralysing stranglehold He argues that one's life narrative is significantly impacted by one's narrative as a learner thus schooling that commodifies learning and turns the student into an object has neuroticizing effects that will spread throughout that student's entire life In Part I Mayes explores the interaction between archetypes and various types of time ultimately focusing on the individual but always mediated by the cultural unconscious In Parts II and III he brings together education with post Jungian and post Freudian psychology examining transference countertransference in the classroom the Jungian idea of the shadow applied to educational processes Jung's unique vision of the symbol and its importance for educational theory and Jung's transcendent function as a prime educational modality Mayes concludes by looking to the future of archetypal pedagogy This groundbreaking work in the emerging field of Jungian pedagogy is invaluable reading in Jungian Studies depth psychological theory educational theory and for teachers and psychotherapists

Encountering Cruelty: The Fracture of the Human Heart Michael R. Trice,2011-04-21 Interest in recent years in reconciliation and conflict transformation has witnessed a great deal of attention to building a future through forgiveness and preventative measures in order to impede egregious wrongdoing This effort for a reconciled future is absent reflection on the nature of cruelty Cruelty has always been apparent in massive acts of wrongdoing and yet is repeatedly concealed in our assessment of the acts themselves This book is a theologically honest and deep structure exploration of cruelty in its personal communal and institutional encounters in human life Drawing on Nietzsche's challenge of cruelty to the western tradition the work offers a comprehensive study of how cruelty undermines care trust respect and justice all those elements of human reciprocity that mark our lives as interdependent beings The work concludes with a tightly written Epilogue on interpreting the theological meaning and accessibility of reconciliation today

Out of the Darkness Cortland Jones,2014-02 A personal testimony of salvation through life experiences Out of the Darkness encourages consideration of God's invitation of salvation through faith in Jesus Christ Author Cortland Jones provides insight on darkness and explores how God uses both circumstantial darkness and spiritual darkness to lead open hearts into a personal intimate encounter with Him Cortland shares stories of how he overcame difficult circumstances and how he has grown through God's unconditional love providing his testimony of how God spoke the light of salvation into his world Out of the Darkness presents a resource that includes biblical references from both the Old and New Testament to enlighten and encourage growth in the grace and truth of Christ on the subject of salvation It reveals truths from the Bible about God's plan purpose fulfillment power and glory in salvation Through Scripture and personal insights revealed through childhood and adulthood experiences Out of the Darkness describes God's personal call for Cortland to walk away from the pain of the past the torment of failure sin emptiness and thoughts of a hopeless future He offers this opportunity to grow in the grace and truth of Jesus Christ

Demitra's Number System Demitra Douglas, 2024-02-28 About the Book Demitra's Number System explores the beautifully pervasive nature of numbers and how they shape our reality By learning to navigate the numeric realms we can understand the journey that is spiritual ascension Based on her own observations and experience Demitra has shared her own unique means of deciphering By spirit directing her attention at just the right moment paired with a mind capable of detecting patterns her system was born Humankind too often gets stuck in repetitive cycles due to an inability to recognize our own shortcomings and ineffective way of navigating scenarios and relationships With Demitra's Number System one can learn what is holding them back or receive confirmation when energies are moving or shifting productively Demitra's Number System promotes growth a concept that is always relevant The system is remarkably accurate and easy to follow Numerology no longer has to be an elusive esoteric concept Now it can become a daily practice implemented by the masses It is the author's hope that readers will reconnect with God by studying and applying this unique numerology system Demitra hopes they will learn to recognize a divine presence in everything they do and will no longer feel alone When you learn what numbers represent you can see God everywhere About the Author Demitra Douglas is a 31 year old spiritual counselor teacher and numerologist She is also an animal lover who enjoys nature music traveling inward and mastering the arts of ascension and descension This incarnation her passion and purpose is helping others transmute their darkness

Salted With Fire Fred Kammer SJ, 2008-07-28 Like a good gumbo from the author's hometown of New Orleans this book is rich fare SALTED WITH FIRE blends the realities of social justice and the burdens of working for justice and peace with a hopeful spirituality all brewed in the cauldron of the 1960s 70s 80s and 90s The book is for the young who dream dreams of a more just world and for their elders who have grown bone weary fighting the good fight for justice and peace Community organizers social service workers political activists and parish social justice ministers will find here a sympathetic spirit The author is himself a social service practitioner who can deal both with the intricacies of social analysis as well as with a spirituality of coping hoping surviving and even flourishing amidst often discouraging conditions and bureaucratic red tape Adopting a four fold pastoral circle as his conceptual tool Kammer offers a solid practical and pastoral primer for those seeking to build a more humane and just society Readers will find here a resonant voice and a spiritual diet to nourish and sustain them over the long haul

Treat or Trick? Halloween in a Globalising World Malcolm Foley, Hugh O'Donnell, 2008-12-18 In 1999 the French bishops condemned the celebration of Halloween in France In 2003 the Moscow Department of Education recommended the banning of Halloween celebrations in all educational institutions under its control In 2008 a group of Catalan intellectuals launched an internet petition against the Halloween celebrations organised by the Port Aventura theme park arguing that they were detrimental to long standing Catalan traditions associated with 31 October In the meantime children and young people all over Europe and increasingly adults are energetically adopting and adapting the American version of Halloween as a source of fun community building and general revelry So are we all being tricked by rampant cultural imperialism or responding creatively to the arrival of Halloween as a welcome onset of winter treat This book which arose out of the first ever conference on the topic of Halloween held in Glasgow Scotland on 31 October 2006 brings together a series of studies examining the phenomenon of Halloween from a wide range of perspectives its origins the ways in which it is now and has been in the past celebrated in the British Isles its spectacular arrival in both Eastern and Western Europe over the last two decades its links with tourism and its multifaceted presence in the media What emerges is a phenomenon of astonishing complexity characterised by multiple meanings and intense battles over ownership

Singing in the Dark Ginny Owens, 2021-05-01 Far too often life's challenges and questions cause people to fight feelings of doubt and despair as they search endlessly for hope In Singing in the Dark Ginny Owens introduces the reader to powerful ways of drawing closer to God and how the elements of music prayer and lament offer rich vibrant and joyful communion with Him especially on the darkest days Ginny has gained a unique life perspective as she has lived without sight since age three She brings rich biblical teaching that will encourage readers and compel them to dig deep into the beautiful songs prayers and poetry of Scripture the same words through which the people of the Bible flourished in impossible circumstances Singing in the Dark includes reflection and journaling prompts at the end of each chapter

WORKING WITH IMAGES: THE ART OF ART THERAPISTS Bruce L. Moon, 2002-01-01 Working With Images The Art of Art Therapists is an effort to give voice to the artist aspect of our identity as art therapists This book is about how the artists work how they learned to do it why they do it This book will give you glimpses of the memories and perhaps the scars of the artists Be honored The artists in this book know that it is good to make art and they make good art Through their work they demonstrate their faith in the product and the process For some of them art making is their anchor in the turbulent world of helping professions For some images come in response to their clients For all of them making art deepens and enriches their lives Working With Images The Art of Art Therapists is a presentation of artworks and contextual essays by professional art therapists This book is foreworded by Don Siedien and includes an introduction that addresses the structure rationale and intent of this book The introduction is followed by the artist therapists contributions Each art therapist's selected artworks are presented on one full page in the text Immediately following the art piece is a brief biographical sketch a photo of the art therapist and his or her artist's statement From the very beginning of the art therapist profession in the United States there has been steady discussion of the relative importance of the artist aspect of art therapies professional identity In the thirty years that the American Art Therapy Association has been in existence there have been few other topics that have generated as much interest and debate at the annual national conference Over the past several years there has been growing interest in re igniting our artistic passions and welcoming them back into our professional identity This movement has been evidenced by a number of conference papers and workshops and professional journal articles focused on examining the integration of the artist and the therapist aspects of our work Working With Images The Art of Art Therapists presents art therapists as committed and serious fine artists This book will be a significant contribution to the literature and identity of the art therapy profession

Jung's Shadow Concept Christopher Perry,Rupert Tower,2023-05-05 This insightful volume is designed as a series of invitations towards living attentiveness examining how we all make the other through projection blaming and shaming the other outside ourselves our enemy with whom we prefer not to dialogue All of us are faced daily with individual and collective manifestations of the Shadow all that we fear despise and makes us feel ashamed Carl Jung s concept of the Shadow emerging as it did from his personal confrontation with the realms of his unconscious self is one of the most important contributions he made to the understanding of humanity and to depth psychology that realm where the focus is on unconscious processes The contributors to this book reframe his concept in the context of contemporary Jungian thinking exploring how the Shadow develops in an individual s infancy and adolescence and its culmination where collective manifestations of the Shadow are addressed The book offers a voyage through a series of fundamental Shadow concepts and themes including couples relationships disease organizations Evil fundamentalism ecology and boundary violation before ending with a chapter designed to help us integrate the Shadow and hold contra positions with patience and a tilt towards mutual understanding rather than being locked in polarities This fascinating new book will be of considerable interest to the general public Jungian analysts trainees scholars and therapists both in training and practice with an interest in the inner world

The 365 Caren Ellison,2024-05-16 God s purpose for our lives is positioned inside the 365 days of the year He empowered us to experience Remember nothing just happens in our 365 days The good bad and the ugly are all working together for our good including why we are here and how our duties pertain to creation and the Creator Still we may sometimes wonder if there is a divine plan for humankind or if we just exist In a spiritual guide shared to help believers build and nurture a strong relationship with Christ Caren Ellison invites truth seekers on a journey with her as she explores God s plan for humankind She searches the scriptures for our purposes and within each of the 365 days illustrates how God s plan has helped shape our lives Throughout her guide that also shares her unique life experiences Ellison gently reminds believers that we were created to live according to His purpose and plan and we glorify His presence as our Lord and Savior when we walk in His purpose The 365 God s One Year Plan utilizes scripture and a pastor s life experiences to guide believers to understand and embrace God s plan and purpose for them

Angels of Christmas Susan Robb,2022-09-06 Explore the four angelic visits surrounding the birth of Jesus with Susan Robb in The Angels of Christmas a four week Advent study The Angels of Christmas Hearing God's Voice in Advent a four week Advent study by Susan Robb explores the four angelic visits surrounding the birth of Jesus with Zechariah Mary Joseph and the shepherds In this study the reader will explore the visits and dive deep into the history of the angel Gabriel and other angels in the Old Testament The Angels of Christmas uses these four angelic appearances to discuss God's presence in history and our lives today The messages of the angels hold meaning for listeners both then and now A Stroll Before Dark Richard Church,2015-04-07 In this collection of essays Richard Church explores themes of countryside poetry family and finding inspiration in the mundane Split into two parts Moving About and Sitting Still these titles reflect the happy combination of travel sketches with literary criticism of observations on household duties with the philosophy drawn from a lifetime's study and practice of the art of writing First published in 1965 A Stroll Before Dark muses on everything from the wonder of the aurora borealis to the smallest details of life with a refreshing clarity and warmth Whether discussing the habits of his pet cat the poetry of John Betjeman the differences between the changing and yet unchanging face of his beloved Kent or a visit to a South African game reserve Church's readers will be enriched and entertained by the breadth of his knowledge the elegance of his prose and above all by his compassion humour and love of life The Great Mission of Jesus Christ on Earth John Entsuaah,2022-11-03 On earth today many Christians and humanity have now reached a stage where they must make a shift into the next level of their consciousness to enable them to communicate with Jesus Christ through prayer meditation and fasting to receive the baptism of the holy spirit to complete their rapture or ascension In his book The Great Mission of Jesus Christ John Entsuaah explains the most important key points The first key point are the hidden teachings of Jesus Christ which is also known as the spiritual gospel of Jesus Christ where many teachings of Jesus Christ were rejected by the Christian council organized by King Constantine during his reign as the Roman emperor in the second century The second key point is the great mission of Jesus Christ where he came to give humanity the power of the Holy Spirit to awaken their Christ consciousness to conquer sin and death In the third key point John Entsuaah explains the second coming of Christ which is about Christ conception and Christ consciousness awakening in the heart of every soul on earth through prayer meditation and fasting to connect directly with Jesus Christ to receive the atonement power as the grace Last of all he explains that the human consciousness separates us from God because of the spiritual fall of Adam and Eve caused by Satan Christ consciousness reconnects us back to God through Jesus Christ by receiving the atonement power through the baptism of the Holy Spirit and the light of Christ in the heart of our souls This transform us all into Christ like beings with Christ body Christ blood and Christ consciousness to inherit the kingdom of God 21st Century Perspectives on Indian Writing in English Debasish Lahiri,Pradipta Mukherjee,2022-12-05 The essays gathered here alternately adjust the focal length of the critical lens brought to bear upon texts and contexts in the area of Indian writing in English They bring into view both intense engagements with major voices in this literary scene and the wider socio historical perspectives in which they have thrived Three clearly defined sections on the genres of poetry prose and drama are augmented by three incisive interviews with the diasporic Indian English poet Bashabi Fraser the renowned Indian English fiction writer Kunal Basu and the premier Indian English playwright Mahesh Dattani The volume will appeal to students and teachers of postcolonial and comparative literatures It raises crucial and timely questions about the state of culture in India and the world the crisis of intolerance and the loss of memory and diversity It hones a post millennial perspective on literature written in the late 20th and early 21st centuries Poetry and Autobiography Jo Gill, Melanie Waters, 2013-12-16 This collection makes a critical and creative intervention into ongoing debates about the relationship between poetry and autobiography Drawing on recent theories of life writing the essays in the first part of this volume provide new analyses of works by a range of poets dating from the early modern period to the present day Exploring the autobiographical resonances of poems by Martha Moulsworth Mina Loy Anne Sexton Joe Brainard Edward Kamau Braithwaite and Gwyneth Lewis the authors here examine the extent to which discourses of truth and authenticity have been implicated in traditional interpretations of lyric poetry In doing so they endeavour to illuminate the complex intersections and divergences of poetry and autobiography asking what these forms might learn from each other about issues of shared concern from questions of identity and textuality to those of reference and audience The creative reflections which form the second part of the collection develop and respond to these questions in various suggestive and original ways here poetry and prose are used in order to test the relationship between poetry and life writing and to explore issues of memory time place subjectivity and voice This book was published as a special issue of Life Writing
