violence have been forcibly made defenseless raises for any movement of liberation the question of using violence in the interest of self defense Here philosopher Elsa Dorlin looks across the global history of the left from slave revolts to the knitting women of the French Revolution and British suffragists training in ju jitsu from the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising to the Black Panther Party from queer neighborhood patrols to Black Lives Matter to trace the politics philosophy and ethics of self defense In this history she finds a martial ethics of the self a practice in which violent self defense is the only means for the oppressed to ensure survival and to build a liveable future In this sparkling and provocative book drawing on theorists from Thomas Hobbes to Fred Hampton Frantz Fanon to Judith Butler Michel Foucault to June Jordan Dorlin has reworked the very idea of modern governance and political subjectivity Translated from the French by Kieran Aarons Weapon Systems ,
