Prehistory Of Australia:

A History of Australia Mark Peel, Christina Twomey, 2017-12-22 This vivid multi dimensional history considers the key cultural social political and economic events of Australia s history Deftly weaving these issues into the wider global context Mark Peel and Christina Twomey provide an engaging overview of the country s past from its first Indigenous people to the great migrations of recent centuries and to those living within the more anxiously controlled borders of the present day This engaging textbook is an ideal resource for undergraduate students and postgraduate students taking modules or courses on the History of Australia It will also appeal to general readers who are interested in obtaining a thorough overview of the entire history of Australia from the earliest times to the present in one concise volume A Concise History of Australia Stuart Macintyre, 2015-10-09 Australia is the last continent to be settled by Europeans but it also sustains a people and a culture tens of thousands years old For much of the past 225 years the newcomers have sought to replace the old with the new This book tells how they imposed themselves on the land and describes how they brought technology institutions and ideas to make it their own The fourth edition incorporates the far reaching effects of an export and investment boom in the early years of the twenty first century that lifted Australia to unprecedented prosperity The sale of minerals and energy enabled the economy to withstand the global financial crisis of 2007 08 but there was no agreement on how the wealth was to be managed and its benefits distributed The book describes a continuing search for solutions to climate change the unauthorised arrival of refugees Indigenous disadvantage and generational change Prehistory To Politics Tim Bonyhady, Tom Griffiths, 2016-10-18 Who are public intellectuals Why do they matter What is the difference between an academic and an intellectual Prehistory to Politics explores these issues by examining the life and work of John Mulvaney one of Australia s foremost prehistorians who has both changed our understanding of the past and made a major contribution to public debate and public policy about world heritage archaeological and conservation practice the function and operation of museums and the relevance of the humanities A major campaigner for preservation of the Franklin River in the early 1980s Mulvaney has also been an influential member of the Australian Heritage Commission and one of the most important advocates of the National Museum of Australia He played a significant role in the campaign to preserve the site of First Government House in Sydney Perhaps most controversially he has been outspoken in his views about the return of skeletal remains by Australian Museums to Aboriginal people In exploring these many facets of Mulvaney s work Prehistory to Politics not only has much to say about the changing nature of Australian universities and the opportunities and obligations of academics but also casts new light on a wide set of archaeological anthropological and environmental issues It is both a history of ideas and a book about their implementation Biological Anthropology and Prehistory Patricia C. Rice, Norah Moloney, 2016-12-05 Written specifically for courses that cover biological anthropology and archaeology this superbly illustrated new text offers the most balanced and up to date introduction to our human past Devoting equal time to biological anthropology and prehistory this text exposes students to the many sides of major controversial issues involving students in the scientific thought process by allowing them to draw their own conclusions Amidst discussions of bones and artifacts the text maintains a focus on people demonstrating to students how biological anthropology and archaeology apply to their lives today Featuring the latest research and findings pulled from the original sources this new text is far and away the most up to date text available In addition the superior art program features hundreds of photographs and figures and the multimedia presentation options include documentary film clips and lecture launcher videos Pat Rice a recipient of AAA s Outstanding Teacher Award and past president of the General Anthropology Division of AAA and Norah Moloney an experienced professor and active archaeologist present the material in a clear refreshing and straightforward writing style
