THE REPORT
OF THE
COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS
ON THE
PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE,
RELATING TO THE AFFAIRS BETWEEN THE CONFEDERATE AND THE UNITED STATES.

— [Montgomery, Ala.
Published May 1, 1861.]
The Committee on Foreign Affairs, to whom was referred so much of the President's Message as relates to the affairs of the Confederate States with the United States, respectfully report:

That the truthful and able narration of the facts and principles involved in the contest between the Confederate States and the United States, which the President's Message contains, constitutes a vindication of the course of the Confederate States, which ought to satisfy the world of the justice of their cause. But all who propose to change the general order of things amongst nations, stand at disadvantage. They are looked upon as assailing the peace of the world; and hence those who break up a long established government, and effect thereby the interests of other nations, owe it to them, as well as themselves, to make the justification of their course as complete as possible. The contest between the Confederate and the United States, is not merely a contest of war. Wars too often determine nothing, but which nation is the strongest or bravest. This contest is a contest for constitutional government, in which the interests of all mankind are concerned. Your committee therefore propose.
