The Report: Nigeria 2017, The Yoruba in Transition Toyin Falola, Ann Genova, 2006 With the introduction of globalization and domestic change pulsing through Nigeria its citizens find themselves in a social political and economic transition period After decades of military rule and political instability Nigeria has reintroduced itself as a democratic state in 1999 This change has brought about questions of how to get Nigeria moving toward economic growth and social unity in the face of globalization the polarization of Christians and Muslims in Africa and crises such as HIV AIDS The Yoruba one of Nigeria's most well known and historically prevalent ethnic groups in Nigeria has taken an active role in dealing with these issues. Whether motivated by a nationalist vision of a unified successful Nigeria or for their own interests in reclaiming political space and retaining Yoruba culture the Yoruba have greatly contributed to discussions on this transitional era. Contributors to this work display a wide range of disciplines and viewpoints making this work accessible to readers familiar and unfamiliar to the Yoruba. The Yoruba in Transition captures views on the era highlighting recommendations for this new Nigeria and emphasizing contemporary issues that the Yoruba face. The contributors, many of them Yoruba, illuminate the complexity of identity and how the Yoruba seek to communicate their values, project an image and live their lives. Included are essays dealing with contemporary issues such as migration, health, agricultural production, cyber crime and the role of women in Yoruba society. The Yoruba in Transition represents a rare recording of how people within and outside Nigeria view the new millennium for the Yoruba. The essays are well written, analytical and insightful. As a comprehensive and critical volume, Falola and Genova have succeeded in editing an important reader in Yoruba studies. This significant volume will be invaluable to scholars, public policy analysts and lay readers of Yoruba and Nigerian studies. The Journal of the Royal African Society, The African Book Publishing Record, 2003.

The Global Competitiveness Report 2002-2003 World Economic Forum, 2003-03-27. The annual Global Competitiveness Report is widely recognized as the world's leading cross country comparison of data and information relating to economic competitiveness and growth. Over the years the Report has become the most authoritative and comprehensive assessment of the comparative strengths and weaknesses of national economies throughout the world. The World Economic Forum continues its tradition of excellence with The Global Competitiveness Report 2002-2003 which provides the most updated and recent data, rankings and analysis of 75 industrialized and emerging economies and the latest thinking and research from prominent academics and international institution leaders on global competitiveness. This year's report begins by presenting the widely quoted global competitive index that really comprises two indices: one for growth and one for productivity. It then provides global and regional analyses with examinations of the competitive landscapes of Africa, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe and Latin America. Essays on a wide range of special topics follow, including national innovative capacity, governance, foreign direct investment and trade performance. The Report concludes with detailed country profiles, data presentation and an exhaustive survey of senior business executives that touches on business conditions, infrastructure, the character of the regulatory regime, the quality of government, organized labor, corruption and tax evasion. The Global Competitiveness Report 2002-2003 provides essential information for business leaders, government decision makers and for academics to examine the critical challenges facing a multitude of the world's economies.

The Global Competitiveness Report 2003-2004 World Economic Forum, 2004. The Global Competitiveness Report 2003-2004 is the 24th of the World Economic Forum's annual rankings of the world's leading economies Written in a non technical language and style this report aims to appeal to a broad audience consisting of policy makers business leaders and academics NEPAD in the Nigerian Dock ,2004 The Global Enabling Trade Report 2008 ,2008 Africa Development ,2006 A quarterly journal of the Council for the Development of Economic and Social Research in Africa Revue trimestrielle du conseil pour le d veloppement de la recherche economique et sociale en Afrique

Escaping Poverty and Unemployment in Africa Joe U. Umo,2024-07-17 Escaping Poverty and Unemployment in Africa A Flagship Strategy calls out unemployment as a major cause of poverty and sees both of them as twins representing two sides of the same bad coin After several years of failures in addressing the twin crises with stand alone policies and programs in Nigeria and other African countries the book proposes an innovative strategy aimed at addressing mass unemployment and mass poverty simultaneously Inspired by the author s field experience as one of the key actors in the successful implementation of the UNDP ILO sponsored Jobs for Africa JFA program in over ten African countries between 1998 and 2001 the book presents an alternative framework from the failed extant approaches for tackling the stubborn crises of unemployment and poverty in the continent The proposed Flagship Strategy is a cocktail of three key policy elements namely

- 1 putting in place a maximum employment driven macroeconomic economic stability
- 2 mobilizing and empowering ready to engage transformational entrepreneurs for leading investment projects programs to ensure success and sustainability and
- 3 undertaking massive investment for poverty reducing employment IPRE projects in all the key sectors of the economy

Given Nigeria s exceptionalism in Africa s poverty profile the application of the Flagship Strategy has been illustrated for over eight key sectors of this nation s economy This presents a model for possible replication across other African countries The empirical validation in the application of the three elements of the Flagship Strategy along with the successful experience of emerging industrializing countries of South Korea Singapore and China etc in achieving massive reductions in poverty and unemployment using the elements of the strategy commends its application to African and other developing countries facing the twin challenges The book is intended to serve generally as an informative read for all who are interested in escaping poverty and unemployment either by themselves or for the people they care about It has also in particular offered fresh strategic insights to scholars and students of development working on African poverty and unemployment challenges It can furthermore easily serve as a policy blueprint manual for policymakers and or politicians with genuine interests in finding quick and sustainable solutions to Africa s daunting and existential poverty and unemployment challenges New Challenges in the Cassava Transformation in Nigeria and Ghana Felix I. Nweke,2004 Conference Publications Guide ,1974 7th International Conference on Tourism Research Prof Rishi Balkaran,Dr Chris Hattingh,2024-03-18 These proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 7th International Conference on Tourism Research ICTR 2024 hosted by the Centre for Tourism Research in Africa at the Cape Town Hotel School Cape Peninsula University of Technology South Africa on 18 19 March 2024 The Conference Chair is Prof Rishi Balkaran and the Programme Chair is Dr Chris Hattingh both from Cape Peninsula University of Technology CPUT South Africa ICTR is a well established event on the academic research calendar and now in its 7th year the key aim remains the opportunity for participants to share ideas and meet the people who hold them The scope of papers will ensure an interesting two days The subjects covered illustrate the wide range of topics that fall into this important and ever growing area of research Today more than ever there is a need for research and scientific guidance as the tourist sector struggles to cope with the consequences of the Covid 19 pandemic inflation socio political turbulences climate change and disaster risk Prospects for Democracy in Nigeria United States.
