Reporters Report Reporters:

In Other News Stephanie Forshee, Rosellen Downey, 2016-03-01 You've read an incredible article. You're thinking how did the reporter do that? In Other News Reporters on Reporting digs into the stories of 12 journalists who have worked for leading news outlets including The Washington Post, BuzzFeed, NPR, TIME, ABC, the Los Angeles Times, and more. Finally, the reporter is the subject of the story.

Jargon buster: convergent journalism. Media convergence is the most significant development in the news industry in the last century. The ability to interchange text, audio, and visual communication over the Internet has fundamentally transformed the way news organizations operate. Convergence has enabled media companies to gather, disseminate, and share information over a variety of platforms. Throughout the history of journalism, it has been common for journalists to study one medium, such as traditional print or broadcast, and to anticipate a career working only in their chosen field. However, the 21st-century journalist has fluidity to write and deliver news content in a variety of formats. Source: <http://www.convergencejournalism.com>

Broadcast News Writing, Reporting, and Producing presents a solid foundation for any student learning how to become a broadcast journalist in today's world of convergent journalism. It is more important than ever that broadcast textbooks cover the most current trends in media. Convergent journalism: the coverage of news across multiple delivery platforms, such as the Internet, television, podcasts, iPods, blogs, etc., is here to stay. Broadcast journalism continues to morph as newer and more advanced content platforms are hatched and developed, and broadcast journalists must understand how to write, report, and produce for multiple platforms simultaneously. Just one crucial fact remains: students will need training on how to perform successfully in a world in which current events aren't just shown on the ten o'clock evening news. Broadcast News Writing, Reporting, and Producing will be completely overhauled to reflect the trends of convergent journalism on every page. New co-author Frank Barnas brings a multi-faceted perspective of writing, reporting, and producing that allows for multi-platform delivery systems and shows students with real-world examples the functions and practices of today's media. The new edition will be rewritten and restructured to accommodate common 16-week course modules and will be divided into four major sections of the news: gathering, writing, reporting, and producing. Sidebars featuring how examples used in the text relate to convergence in journalism help students to draw connections easily.

between current stories and trends in the industry The comprehensive approach of this text brings a multi faceted perspective of writing reporting and producing that is needed more than ever in today s world of convergent journalism This newest edition is being completely overhauled by the experienced journalist Frank Barnas New photos and illustrations a restructuring of the text expanded end of chapter exercises newer and more relevant examples and more information on producing all contribute to giving readers what they need most a nuanced understanding of how the media of today function in a world without news boundaries

Environment Reporters in the 21st Century James Simon,JoAnn Myer Valenti,David B. Sachsman,2011-12-31 Environment Reporters in the 21st Century is the story of a relatively new journalistic beat environmental reporting This book explores the development of the environmental beat as a specialty during the last thirty years It also discusses broader trends within American journalism resulting from technological changes that challenge traditional mediums especially newspapers and magazines The book is divided into three parts The first reviews the literature and explains the methodology The second describes the results of the authors research The third provides in depth accounts of environment reporters at work A final chapter puts the research in historical perspective viewing it in terms of the economic decline of the newspaper business and of local television news Journalists mediate a constant struggle among thousands of environmental activists corporate public relations people government officials and scientists to shape environmental reporting This volume tells the story of environmental reporting imaginatively and innovatively

The New York State Reporter ,1901 The Great Reporters David Randall,2005-09-01 Who are the greatest reporters in history This unique book is the first to try and answer this question Author David Randall searched nearly two centuries of newspapers and magazines consulted editors and journalism experts worldwide and the result is The Great Reporters 13 in depth profiles of the best journalists who ever lived They include nine Americans and four Britons ten men and three women whose lives were full of adventure wit and the considerable ingenuity required to bring the story home Among chapters are those on the reporter who Booked himself onto a ship likely to be sunk by the Germans so he could report its torpedoing Was called out to a multiple shooting who interviewed 50 witnesses went back to the office and wrote a Pulitzer Prize winning story of 4 000 words in two and a half hours Was deemed useless by her teacher but who went on to become the greatest crime reporter in history Wrote a story that changed the map of Europe Out bluffed a top Soviet official to get into Russia so he could cover the appalling famine there Feigned madness to get herself locked up in an asylum so she could expose its terrible conditions Was the best ever to apply words to newsprint Became a national hero in America because he stood up for the little guy and his war reporting told it like it really was At the age of 63 and after three major operations went under cover in Iran so she could report on the regime s repression Was nearly fired for fouling up his first major assignment but went on to shock his nation with his courageous war reporting Wrote faster than anyone who could write better and better than anyone who could write faster Single handedly took on the tobacco industry Said no to William Randolph Hearst Each
