David Pearson,Rebecca Barr,2001-07-01 In this volume 10 reviews of significant reading research methodologies are reprinted from the Handbook of Reading Research Volume III The editors have judged that these specific methodologies have had great impact on reading research since the publication of Volume II in 1991 This text is especially well suited for use in upper level undergraduate and graduate level reading research methods courses

Teachers' Voices Freema Elbaz Luwisch,2006-04-01 This book draws on ideas about the nature of teaching and teacher knowledge teacher development and school reform and narrative as methodology for understanding the lives and work of teachers These ideas have been elaborated over the past 20 years or so by many researchers who see storytelling as the interactive process which constitutes the site of the production of teachers knowledge Narrative research makes it possible to pay attention to the wider concerns that shape the work of teaching looking at the whole lives of teachers and other educational practitioners and exploring those lives as embedded in multiple contexts Listening to teachers speak about whatever most concerns them in their work it is not surprising that we hear a wide range of different voices not only from different teachers but within the speech of any one teacher The purpose of this book is to reflect back to the field a multidimensional multivoiced portrayal of teaching as it is bringing our attention to both the complexity and the possibility inherent in the work of teachers Approaching teaching in this way as multivoiced allows us to hear possibilities for change and development in the stories of teachers and classrooms Literary Culture and U.S. Imperialism John Carlos Rowe,2000 John Carlos Rowe considered one of the most eminent and progressive critics of American literature has in recent years become instrumental in shaping the path of American studies His latest book examines literary responses to U S imperialism from the late eighteenth century to the 1940s Interpreting texts by Charles Brockden Brown Poe Melville John Rollin Ridge Twain Henry Adams Stephen Crane W E B Du Bois John Neihardt Nick Black Elk and Zora Neale Hurston Rowe argues that U S literature has a long tradition of responding critically or contributing to our imperialist ventures Following in the critical footsteps of Richard Slotkin and Edward Said Literary Culture and U S Imperialism is particularly innovative in taking account of the public and cultural response to imperialism In this sense it could not be more relevant to what is happening in the scholarship and should be vital reading for scholars and students of American literature and culture

Curriculum Development in the Postmodern Era Patrick Slattery, 2013 This landmark text was one of the first to introduce and analyze contemporary concepts of curriculum that emerged from the Reconceptualization of curriculum studies in the 1970s and 1980s This new edition brings readers up to date on the major research themes postmodernism ecological hermeneutics aesthetics and arts based research race class gender sexuality and classroom practices within the historical development of the field from the 1950s to the present Like the previous editions it is unique in providing a comprehensive overview in a relatively short and highly accessible text Provocative and powerful narratives both biography and autoethnography throughout invite readers to engage the complex theories in a personal conversation School based examples allow readers to make connections to schools and society teacher education and professional development of teachers Changes in the Third Edition New Glossary brief summaries in the text direct readers to the Companion Website to read the entire entries New analysis of the current accountability movement in schools including the charter school movement More international references clearly connected to international contexts More narratives invite readers to engage the complex theories in a personal conversation Companion Website new for this edition Doing Visual Research Claudia Mitchell, 2011-05-25 This is an innovative introduction to the use of photography collaborative video drawing objects multi media production and installation in research Claudia Mitchell explains how visual methods can be used as modes of inquiry as well as modes of representation for social research She provides a range of conceptual and practical approaches to a variety of tools and methods while also highlighting the interpretive and ethical issues that arise when engaging in visual research She draws on her own work throughout to offer extensive examples from a variety of settings and with various populations The Oxford Handbook of Qualitative Research Patricia Leavy, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Qualitative Research presents a comprehensive and student friendly overview of the field of qualitative research and is intended for students of all levels faculty and researchers across the social sciences It provides strong focus on methods instruction with coverage of theoretical approaches analysis writing evaluation and the politics of research Ability Profiling and School Failure Kathleen M. Collins, 2013 Exploring the social contextual forces that shape the appearance of academic ability disability this book shows how these forces influence the perception of academic underachievement by minority students

Adams, Stacy

Holman Jones, Carolyn Ellis,2016-05-23 In this definitive reference volume almost fifty leading thinkers and practitioners of autoethnographic research from four continents and a dozen disciplines comprehensively cover its vision opportunities and challenges Chapters address the theory history and ethics of autoethnographic practice representational and writing issues the personal and relational concerns of the autoethnographer and the link between researcher and social justice A set of 13 exemplars show the use of these principles in action Autoethnography is one of the most popularly practiced forms of qualitative research over the past 20 years and this volume captures all its essential elements for graduate students and practicing researchers Education Reform in Societies in Transition ,2006-01-01 Framed against the background of educational change this book proposes to examine the relationship between curriculum change teacher professional development policy reform and the processes of educational change The main aims of the book are to 1 focus on educational changes and reconstruction in transitional societies that have undergone political economic and social change in the past two decades 2 provide a forum for the dissemination of research on education reconstruction and reform in transitional societies 3 disseminate ideas that enhance both the practical and theoretical aspects of educational changes in these societies 4 further knowledge and understanding of emerging trends and issues in education in these societies 5 reflect the realities of educational scenarios in each transitional society The book presents an in depth exploration of educational reconstruction in 15 transitional societies In each chapter the authors have provided an overview of educational processes in the country a distillation of education change or reform and or reconstruction in each transitional society Collectively the chapters in the book have attempted to contribute to a better understanding of the educational system in respective countries by identifying the challenges and obstacles the policy implications the teacher professional development needs and curriculum reform efforts Northern Experience and the Myths of Canadian Culture Renée Hulan,2002 She considers each of these diverse genres in terms of the way it explains the cultural identity of a nation formed from the settlement of immigrant peoples on the lands of dispossessed indigenous peoples

The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Data Analysis Uwe Flick,2013-12-18 The wide range of approaches to data analysis in qualitative research can seem daunting even for experienced researchers This handbook is the first to provide a state of the art overview of the whole field of QDA from general analytic strategies used in qualitative research to approaches specific to particular types of qualitative data including talk text sounds images and virtual data The handbook includes chapters on traditional analytic strategies such as grounded theory content analysis hermeneutics phenomenology and narrative analysis as well as coverage of newer trends like mixed methods reanalysis and meta analysis Practical aspects such as sampling transcription working collaboratively writing and implementation are given close attention as are theory and theorization reflexivity and ethics Written by a team of experts in qualitative research from around the world this handbook is an essential compendium for all qualitative researchers and students across the social sciences

Precarious Flânerie and the Ethics of the Self in Contemporary Anglophone Fiction Eva Ries,2022-06-21 Even though the literary trope of the fl neur has been proclaimed dead on several occasions it still proves particularly lively in contemporary Anglophone fiction This study investigates how fl nerie takes a belated ethical turn in its more recent manifestations by negotiating models of ethical subjectivity Drawing on Michel Foucault s writings on the aesthetics of existence as well as Judith Butler s notion of precariousness as conditio humana it establishes a link between post sovereign models of subject formation and a paradoxical constellation of fl nerie which surfaces most prominently in the work of Walter Benjamin By means of detailed readings of Ian McEwan s Saturday Siri Hustvedt s The Blindfold Teju Cole s Open City Dionne Brand s What We All Long For and Robin Robertson s The Long Take Or a Way to Lose More Slowly this book traces how the ambivalence of fl nerie and its textual representation produces ethical norms while at the same time propagating the value of difference by means of disrupting societal norms of sameness Precarious Flânerie and the Ethics of the Self in Contemporary Anglophone Fiction thus shows that the fl nerie text becomes a medium of ethical critique in post postmodern times
