Citizenship Curriculum in Asia and the Pacific David L. Grossman,Wing On Lee,Kerry J. Kennedy,2008-08-31 Based on case studies of 11 societies in the world's most dynamic region this book signals a new direction of study at the intersection of citizenship education and the curriculum Following their successful volume Citizenship Education in Asia and the Pacific Concepts and Issues published as No 14 in this series the editors widely regarded as leaders in the field in the Asia Pacific region have gone beyond broad citizenship education frameworks to examine the realities tensions and pressures that influence the formation of the citizenship curriculum Chapter authors from different societies have addressed two fundamental questions 1 how is citizenship education featured in the current curriculum reform agenda in terms of both policy contexts and values and 2 to what extent do the reforms in citizenship education reflect current debates within the society From comparative analysis of these 11 case studies the editors have found a complex picture of curriculum reform that indicates deep tensions between global and local agendas On one hand there is substantial evidence of an increasingly common policy rhetoric in the debates about citizenship education On the other it is evident that this discourse does not necessarily extend to citizenship curriculum which in most places continues to be constructed according to distinctive social political and cultural contexts Whether the focus is on Islamic values in Pakistan an emerging discourse about Chinese democracy a nostalgic conservatism in Australia or a continuing nation building project in Malaysia the cases show that distinctive social values and ideologies construct national citizenship curricula in Asian contexts even in this increasingly globalized era This impressive collection of case studies of a diverse group of societies informs and enriches understanding of the complex relationship between citizenship education and the curriculum both regionally and globally

Religion, Terrorism and Globalization K. K. Kuriakose, 2006 The culture of violence has gained a religious colouring in modern days With a destructive technological impetus the question arises Is there abuse of religious teachings Is there any religious basis for violence and war Then follow questions about the purpose of religion and the significance of concepts of peace and non violence As some find justification for war and violence in their religion an inquiry must be made about the influence of religious scriptures on peace Globalisation has had a varied impact on political social cultural and religious behavioural systems This landmark volume attempts to comprehend the concepts of non violence and peace within different religious and cultural traditions      Representative American speeches Albert Craig Baird,Lester Thonssen,2013

Index to American Reference Books Annual ,1995      Freedom of Speech in the Western World Anthony Gray,2019-10-04 The United States Bill of Rights was groundbreaking in providing constitutional recognition to freedom of speech In the past century the Supreme Court has decided hundreds of cases concerning free speech providing an established system of jurisprudence to analyze free speech cases This book explains the development in the US case law and compares it to developments in similar jurisdictions such as Canada Australia and the United Kingdom and Europe Anthony Gray critiques the jurisprudence of each nation studied while noting some important similarities and differences in terms of how free speech is protected in the Western world what causes these differences what one system might learn from others and whether convergence in approach can be expected      News for Everyman David H. Culbert,1976-03-23 His research has been relentless and his appraisals impeccable Add for good measure a delightful literary style Eric Barnouw
