Mexico. 1883-88 Hubert Howe Bancroft, 1883      No Longer Newsworthy Christopher R. Martin, 2019-05-15 Until the recent political shift pushed workers back into the media spotlight the mainstream media had largely ignored this significant part of American society in favor of the moneyed upscale consumer for more than four decades Christopher R Martin now reveals why and how the media lost sight of the American working class and the effects of it doing so The damning indictment of the mainstream media that flows through No Longer Newsworthy is a wakeup call about the critical role of the media in telling news stories about labor unions workers and working class readers As Martin charts the decline of labor reporting from the late 1960s onwards he reveals the shift in news coverage as the mainstream media abandoned labor in favor of consumer and business interests When newspapers especially wrote off working class readers as useless for their business model the American worker became invisible In No Longer Newsworthy Martin covers this shift in focus the loss of political voice for the working class and the emergence of a more conservative media in the form of Christian television talk radio Fox News and conservative websites Now with our fractured society and news media Martin offers the mainstream media recommendations for how to push back against right wing media and once again embrace the working class as critical to its audience and its democratic function      "A Different Sense of Power" Thomas Fink, 2001 This volume analyzes the work of a racially ethnically and geographically diverse group of recent social poets These figures Thylas Moss John Yau Denise Duchamel Carolyn Forché Joseph Lease Gloria Anzaldúa Martin Espada Melvin Dixon and Stephen Paul Miller utilize a diversity of aesthetic strategies to address a number of central problems such as poetic speculations about dangers and opportunities of visual representations by dominant and marginalized groups effacement of specific communities histories and attempts at restoration of history      Journal of the House of Representatives of the United States United States.
