Morris Ph.D., 2019-02-28 Christian husbands are cursing choking punching beating kicking and in some instances using weapons to assault their wives Women Why Are You Weeping describes how trust is broken and collusive alliances are formed whenever the church chooses to not get involved in family violence issues When juxtaposed to Mary Magdalene's traumatic discovery at the tomb that caused her to cry they have taken away my Lord and I do not know where they have laid him this writing offers insight into ways Christ is poorly embodied when he is portrayed as complicitous in our unjust acts Women Why Are You Weeping is an appropriate inquiry into the depth of disappointments our fellow heirs of the grace of life undergo This question only appears twice in Scripture In both instances it is posed by divine beings looking into the affairs of mankind Policy and practical change will occur when the church views the violence as a concern of all God's people particularly clergy If the unredeemed can be there to listen to and comfort victims and have invested the money and time needed to give the victim survivors the encouragement and hope they so desperately seek how can the redeemed do less Too Much, Too Long? United States. Rural Victims of Crime Rachel Hale, Alistair Harkness, 2022-12-30 Rural Victims of Crime offers a pioneering sustained assessment of the rural victim It does so by examining and analysing the conceptual constructs of a victim and challenging the urban bias of victimisation and victimology in criminological study. Indeed, far too much criminological scholarship is based on the false assumption that rural areas are relatively crime free and thus free too of victims. Providing international perspectives, chapters in this edited collection focus centrally on notions of place and space and constructions of rural victims in a variety of contexts, exploring the impact that geographic location has on the type and prevalence of victimisation. The concept of victimisation is often considered in terms of interpersonal relationships between humans, neglecting the potent impact of victimisation of non-humans and the natural and built environment. Rural Victims of Crime discusses existing notions of victimology in relation to non-human subjects, broadening conceptualisations of the victim and associated impacts resulting from victimisation. Structured in three parts, Rural Victims of Crime conceptualises the rural victim, enhances understanding of the realities of rural victimisation, and considers both formal and informal responses to rural victimisation. Chapters are accompanied by practical contemporary case studies to connect theory with praxis. This book is an essential and valuable resource for academics, students, and practitioners alike in the fields of criminology, criminal justice, rural studies, victimology, geography, sociology, and spatiality.
