Repression Of Crime Studies In Historica:

The Repression of Crime Harry Elmer Barnes,1926 Freedom's Ferment - Phases of American Social History to 1860 Alice Felt Tyler,2011-03-23 In its first half century the United States was visited by scores of curious European travellers who came to investigate the strange new world that was being created in the Western Hemisphere In their accounts of the experience they praised or condemned the institutions and national characteristics spread out before them seized avidly upon all differences from the European norm and worried each peculiarity beyond recognition and beyond any just limit of its importance Americans themselves with the keen sensitiveness of the young and the boasting enthusiasm natural to vigorous creators of new ideas and institutions examined the work of their hands and believing it good reassured themselves and answered their calumniators in a flood of aggressive replies Every American interested in a reform movement a new cult or a Utopian scheme burst into print adding another to the rapidly growing list of polemic books and pamphlets From this variety of sources it is possible to recapture something of the inward spirit that gave rise to the more familiar and more tangible events of America s youth The Bulletin of Friends Historical Association Friends' Historical Association,1927 Rites of Execution : Capital Punishment and the Transformation of American Culture, 1776-1865 Riverside Louis P. Masur Professor of History University of California,1989-02-16 Between the seventeenth and nineteenth centuries Western societies abandoned public executions in favor of private punishments primarily confinement in penitentiaries and private executions The transition guided by a reconceptualization of the causes of crime the nature of authority and the purposes of punishment embodied the triumph of new sensibilities and the reconstitution of cultural values throughout the Western world This study examines the conflict over capital punishment in the United States and the way it transformed American culture between the Revolution and the Civil War Relating the gradual shift in rituals of punishment and attitudes toward discipline to the emergence of a middle class culture that valued internal restraints and private punishments Masur traces the changing configuration of American criminal justice He examines the design of execution day in the Revolutionary era as a spectacle of civil and religious order the origins of organized opposition to the death penalty and the invention of the penitentiary the creation of private executions reform organizations commitment to social activism and the competing visions of humanity and society lodged at the core of the debate over capital punishment A fascinating and thoughtful look at a topic that remains of burning interest today Rites of Execution will attract a wide range of scholarly and general readers Bulletin of Friends' Historical Society of Philadelphia ,1927 Prowess, Piety, and Public Order in Medieval Society ,2017-03-06 Richard Kaeuper s career has examined three salient concerns of medieval society knightly prowess and violence lay and religious piety and public order and government most directly in three of his monographs War Justice and Public Order Oxford 1988 Chivalry and Violence in Medieval Europe Oxford 1999 and Holy Warriors Penn 2009 Kaeuper approaches historical questions with an eye towards illuminating the inherent complexities in human ideas and ideals and he has worked to untangle the various threads holding together cultural constructs such as chivalry licit violence and lay piety The present festschrift in his honor brings together scholars from across disciplines to engage with those same concerns in medieval society from a variety of perspectives Contributors are Bernard S Bachrach Elizabeth A R Brown Samuel A Claussen David Crouch Thomas Devaney Paul Dingman Daniel P Franke Richard Firth Green Christopher Guyol John D Hosler William Chester Jordan Craig M Nakashian W Mark Ormrod Russell A Peck Anthony J Pollard Michael Prestwich Sebastian Rider Bezerra Leah Shopkow and Peter W Sposato The American Historical Review John Franklin Jameson, Henry Eldridge Bourne, Robert Livingston Schuyler, 1926 American Historical Review is the oldest scholarly journal of history in the United States and the largest in the world Published by the American Historical Association it covers all areas of historical research A Catalogue of the Law Collection at New York University Julius J. led to the adoption of the indeterminate sentence system whereas the European criminological approach resulted in the formulation of the dual track system with punishment and measures of security This theoretical divide discussed at many international congresses and in studies of comparative criminal law not only reflects two different ideas on the legitimacy and purpose of punishment but also corresponds to two different constitutional views of criminal law The book considers the relation between constitutional frameworks rule of law and Rechtsstaat and penological claims explaining how some of the tenets of penal liberalism such as principle of legality and separation of powers were affected by penal modernism even with the rise of authoritarian regimes It examines the dilemmas provoked by criminology focusing on the role of the judge in the execution of sentences the distribution of sentencing powers among judicial and administrative bodies the balance between social security and individual guarantees and the inconsistencies of preventive detention Filling a notable gap in Anglo American literature by providing a sophisticated panoramic analysis of the development of criminology in late nineteenth and first half of the twentieth century Europe Reinventing Punishment will be of interest to scholars of criminology criminal law and criminal justice studies as well as legal historians and theorists Monthly Bulletin of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh,1927 Books and Notes of the Los Angeles County Free Library Los Angeles County Public Library,1928 Psychological Index ... an Annual Bibliography of the Literature of Psychology and Cognate Subjects ... ,1927 Indiana Law Journal ,1926 Includes section Book reviews The Yale Law Journal ,1927 California Law Review ,1927 A Critical Analysis of the New History Brother H.
