Repression Of Evangelism In Greece:

The Repression of Evangelism in Greece John Warwick Montgomery, 2001-03-14 Evangelism can lead to jail sentences in Greece historically the cradle of democracy Lawyer Theologian John Warwick Montgomery who has successfully fought the Greek anti proselytism law in the European court of human rights here analyses the Greek religious and civil rights paradox A book for human rights advocates missionaries and all who support an open marketplace for religious expansion Religious Freedom in the Near East, Northern Africa and the Former Soviet States Edward P. Lipton, 2002 Human rights of which the freedom of religion is a critical component are promised by most governments on Planet Earth But promises are promises In real life religious liberty is far from a universal fact This book surveys the countries of Africa based on U S State Department reports and is augmented by a current bibliography and a useful index

Apologetics, Mission and New Religious Movements: A Holistic Approach Philip Johnson, 2010-07-11 It is this search for balance and his real desire to speak into living situations that sets Johnson's work apart from earlier studies of cults and new religions At the same time his work is innovative in other ways The History of Apologetics Zondervan, 2020-06-16 ECPA Christian Book Award 2021 Finalist Biography Memoir Explore Apologetics through the Lives of History's Great Apologists The History of Apologetics follows the great apologists in the history of the church to understand how they approached the task of apologetics in their own cultural and theological context Each chapter looks at the life of a well known apologist from history unpacks their methodology and details how they approached the task of defending the faith By better understanding how apologetics has been done readers will be better able to grasp the contextualized nature of apologetics and apply those insights to today's context The History of Apologetics covers forty four apologists including Part One Patristic Apologists Part Two Medieval Apologists Part Three Early Modern Apologists Part Four 19th C Apologists Part Five 20th C American Apologists Part Six 20th C European Apologists Part Seven Contemporary Apologists Collectivistic Religions Slavica Jakelc, 2016-05-23 Collectivistic Religions draws upon empirical studies of Christianity in Europe to address questions of religion and collective identity religion and nationalism religion and public life and religion and conflict It moves beyond the attempts to tackle such questions in terms of choice and religious nationalism by introducing the notion of collectivistic religions to contemporary debates surrounding public religions Using a comparison of several case studies this book challenges the modernist bias in understanding of collectivistic religions as reducible to national identities A significant contribution to both the study of religious change in contemporary Europe and the theoretical debates that surround religion and secularization it will be of key interest to scholars across a range of disciplines including sociology political science religious studies and geography John Warwick Montgomery's Legal Apologetic Ross Clifford, 2016-01-22 Dr Montgomery is one of our leading Christian apologists His writings have influenced several generations of apologists from around the globe His debates are legendary This book purports to break new ground apologetically as it assesses Dr Montgomery's work

It focuses on his legal historical apologetic and in the process reframes it for both for the tough minded and the tender hearted. It shows not only the rationality of Montgomery's work but also that his writings pave the way for an apologetic to New Age followers and to those who place experience before reason. A special feature of this analysis concerns Montgomery's apologetic insights on the occult and paganism. This book also breaks new ground as the legal apologetic model has not been previously assessed; it illustrates that a juridical apologetic style has a rich history dating back to the Gospels themselves. The present work should thus be of particular interest to apologists, theologians, philosophers of religion, pastors and all who are concerned to share the legal historical fact of the Resurrection of Jesus together with its relevance in a secular age.

Fighting the Good Fight, 3rd and Enlarged Edition John Warwick Montgomery, 2020-10-27

John Warwick Montgomery is considered to be one of the foremost living apologists for classical biblical Christianity. A renaissance scholar with a flair for controversy, he lives in France, England and the United States. His international activities have brought him into personal contact with some of the most exciting events of our time: not only was he in China in June 1989 but he was in Fiji during its 1987 bloodless revolution, was involved in assisting East Germans to escape during the time of the Berlin Wall and was in Paris during the revolutionary days of May 1968. He has had personal contact with world leaders such as President Anwar Sadat of Egypt and English Prime Minister Tony Blair. He has been centrally involved in evangelical and Lutheran church affairs such as the Wenham conference on the authority of Scripture and the inerrancy controversies in the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod. His public debates with atheist Madalyn Murray O'Hair, Bishop James Pike, death of God advocate Thomas Altizer and situation ethicist Joseph Fletcher are historic. His wife is the internationally celebrated orchestral harpist Lanalee de Kant. Dr. Montgomery is the author or editor of more than fifty books in five languages. He holds ten earned degrees including a Master of Philosophy in Law from the University of Essex, England, a Ph.D. from the University of Chicago, a Doctorate of the University in Protestant Theology from the University of Strasbourg, France, and the higher doctorate in law LL.D. from the University of Cardiff, Wales. He is an ordained Lutheran clergyman, an English barrister, an avocat au Barreau de Paris, France, and is admitted to practise as a lawyer before the Supreme Court of the United States. He obtained acquittals for the Athens 3 missionaries on charges of proselytism at the Greek Court of Appeals in 1986 and won the leading religious liberty cases of Larissis v Greece and Bessarabian Orthodox Church v Moldova before the European Court of Human Rights. Professor Montgomery's autobiography offers an opportunity for the reader to meet one of the most fascinating figures in the contemporary church, to understand how he attained his influence in so many diverse areas of modern life and to comprehend the Christ-centered philosophy of life that has motivated all of his activities. This autobiography manifests the author's willingness to speak frankly about those with whom he has agreed and disagreed and is lightened with his well-known sense of humour. Readers have a remarkable and unique treat in store for them.

Legitimizing Human Rights Angus J.L. Menzies, 2016-04-22

When does the exercise of an interest constitute a human right The contributors to Menuge's edited collection offer a range of secular and religious responses to this fundamental question of the legitimacy of human rights claims The first section evaluates the plausibility of natural and transcendent foundations for human rights A further section explores the nature of religious freedom and the vexed question of its proper limits as it arises in the US European and global contexts The final section explores the pragmatic justification of human rights how do we motivate the recognition and enforcement of human rights in the real world This topical book should be of interest to a range of academics from disciplines spanning law philosophy religion and politics Tough-minded

Clapsis, 2004 Churches seek to supply their people with pastoral support and theological insight even when the community's self-understanding is evolving in the midst of a pluralistic environment. This anthology explores various ways in which churches of the Orthodox tradition are meeting the challenges of a post-modern world. The authors' presentations identify contemporary opportunities for Christian witness, promoting ministries of healing and renewal within a diverse society. Interesting topics such as cultural identity and ethnic conflict, globalization and human rights, violence, forgiveness, and reconciliation, world mission, and spirituality are discussed. International Trade and Business Law Review Gabriel

Suffering and Persecution Myrto Theodorou, 2024-09-17 God's love in Jesus Christ for the salvation and recreation of all things is still the hope of the world. This Christian affirmation is the reality that holds all things together. Yet in today's world, it is easy to understand why the church is in pain and declining in its Christian and moral influence. Rethinking Church in the 21st Century is the culmination of three years of exploration into the condition of the church around the world today Bringing together a diverse community of Christian voices these essays offer reflections and admonitions to ignite the hearts of pastors and leaders during the dynamic vulnerable and hopeful times we face In this first volume scholars and church leaders from across the globe respond to writings on suffering and persecution The authors examine the universal themes of suffering and address topics such as violence natural disasters and persecution through contextually rooted lenses The resulting essays are an authentic richly diverse collection that offers fresh perspectives for the church to reflect on together

Paideia: The Ideals of Greek Culture: Volume I. Archaic Greece: The Mind of Athens Werner Jaeger, 1986-10-23 Werner Jaeger's classic three volume work originally published in 1939 is now available in paperback Paideia the shaping of Greek character through a union of civilization tradition literature and philosophy is the basis for Jaeger's evaluation of Hellenic culture Volume I describes the foundation growth and crisis of Greek culture during the archaic and classical epochs ending with the collapse of the Athenian empire The second and third volumes of the work deal with the intellectual history of ancient Greece in the Age of Plato the 4th century B C the age in which Greece lost everything that is valued in this world state power liberty but still clung to the concept of paideia As its last great poet Menander summarized the primary role of this ideal in Greek culture when he said The possession which no one can take away from man is paideia
