how economic technological and bureaucratic factors have reshaped Chinese military thinking and behaviour this text questions the perception of a China threat and provides an appraisal of the Chinese military establishment emphasizing the interplay of domestic and external forces      Should Taiwan be Admitted to the United Nations? United States.

in Contemporary Taiwan J. Makeham,A. Hsiau,2005-08-19 This volume analyzes what is arguably the single most important aspect of cultural and political change in Taiwan over the past quarter century the trend toward indigenization bentuhua Focusing on the indigenization of politics and culture and its close connection with the identity politics of ethnicity and nationalism this volume is an attempt to map prominent contours of the indigenization paradigm as it has unfolded in Taiwan The opening chapters concern the origin and nature of the trend toward indigenization with its roots in the unique historical trajectory of politics and culture in Taiwan Subsequent chapters deal with responses and reactions to indigenization in a variety of social cultural and intellectual domains      The Soldier and the Citizen Monte R.
Bullard,2016-09-16 A soldier citizen describes the role of the Republic of China s military in the political socialization of Taiwan s citizens during the first two decades after the loss of the Chinese mainland      Development and Demographic Change in Taiwan Roger Mark Selya,2004 This book describes and analyzes the demographic changes that took place in Taiwan between 1945 and 1995 It uses an interdisciplinary methodology so that different approaches to demographic change can be compared and contrasted It attempts to evaluate Taiwan s experience so that lessons for the Third World can be extracted The content and presentation of the material are deliberately designed to replicate the 1954 work of Barclay Demographic Change and Colonial Development in Taiwan As such the book seeks to provide the reasons that economic development without demographic change took place under the Japanese while development with demographic change took place under the Chinese The volume is richly illustrated with some 82 original maps and graphs      Taiwan: A New History

Cambridge History of China      No Man an Island James Udden,2017-11-21 Taiwan is a peculiar place resulting in a peculiar cinema with Hou Hsiao hsien being its most remarkable product Hou s signature long and static shots almost invite critics to give auteurist readings of his films often privileging the analysis of cinematic techniques at the expense of the context from which Hou emerges In this pioneering study James Udden argues instead that the Taiwanese experience is the key to understanding Hou's art The convoluted history of Taiwan in the last century has often rendered fixed social and political categories irrelevant Changing circumstances have forced the people in Taiwan to be hyperaware of how imaginary identity above all national identity is Hou translates this larger state of affairs in such masterpieces as City of Sadness The Puppetmaster and Flowers of Shanghai which capture and perhaps even embody the elusive slippery contours of the collective experience of the islanders Making extensive uses of Chinese sources from Taiwan the author shows how important the local matters for this globally recognized director In this new edition of No Man an Island James Udden charts a new chapter in the evolving art of Hou Hsiao hsien whose latest film The Assassin earned him the Best Director Award at the Cannes Film Festival in 2015 Hou breaks new ground in turning the classic wuxia genre into a vehicle to express his unique insight into the working of history The unconventional approach to conventions is quintessential Hou Hsiao hsien An excellent and groundbreaking volume This book's very precise analyses of the films as well as their context make it the primary source for any scholar working on Hou in English Chris Berry King's College London In this first book length study on Hou Hsiao hsien James Udden illuminates the most intriguing yet mystifying filmmaker in world cinema No Man an Island is without doubt a major contribution to the fields of Chinese language cinema and film studies Emilie Yueh yu Yeh Lingnan University Hong Kong

Cinema Taiwan Darrell William Davis, Ru-shou Robert Chen, 2007-05-07 This collection presents an exciting and ambitious foray into the cultural politics of contemporary Taiwan film that goes beyond the auteurist mode the nation state argument and vestiges of the New Cinema

□□□□□□□□,1996 The Entrepreneurial State in China Jane Duckett,2006-10-19 Jane Duckett describes in detail new state business activities in China and explains why they have appeared Using research on the northern city of Tianjin during the 1990s she argues that individual departments within the Chinese state are involved in the market economy through the establishment of their own businesses The book demonstrates that many of these businesses are genuinely entrepreneurial in the sense of profit seeking risk taking and productive rather than rent seeking speculative or profiteering This entrepreneurialism is an important new dimension of state activity in China with implications for our understanding of the Chinese state This book develops an alternative to the local government state model and emphasises instead the State s dynamic entrepreneurial role in the process of economic reform

Literacy Development in A Multilingual Context Aydin Y. Durgunoglu,Ludo Verhoeven,2013-12-16 During the past decades literacy has gradually become a major concern all over the world Though there is a great diversity in both the distribution and degree of literacy in different countries there has been an increasing awareness of the number of illiterates and the consequences of being illiterate However literacy is no longer seen as a universal trait When one focuses on culturally sensitive accounts of reading and writing practices the concept of literacy as a single trait does not seem very feasible A multiplicity of literacy practices can be distinguished which are related to specific cultural contexts and associated with relations of power and ideology As such literacy can be seen as a lifelong context bound set of practices in which an individual s needs vary with time and place This volume explores the use of literacy outside the mainstream in different contexts throughout the world It is divided into four sections Section 1 presents an anthropological perspective analyzing the society and the individual in a society Section 2 presents a psychological perspective focusing on the individuals themselves and analyzing the cognitive and affective development of young children as they acquire literacy in their first and second languages Section 3 presents an educational perspective highlighting the variations in educational approaches in different societies as well as the outcomes of these approaches Section 4 summarizes the studies presented in this volume Both theoretical issues and educational implications related to the development of literacy in two languages are discussed An attempt is also made to open up new directions in the study of literacy development in multilingual contexts by bringing these various disciplinary perspectives together      Counterrevolution in China Thomas A. Marks, 2016-02-17 This ground breaking book spans 60 years of modern Chinese history from the much neglected non communist perspective Concentrating on Wang Sheng s career in relation to Chiang Kai Shek s extraordinary son Chiang Ching Kuo it shows that the KMT were perfecting the methods that were to make Taiwan an East Asian Tiger economy at the very point that they lost the mainland The book also provides a fascinating insight into Taiwan s efforts to aid South Vietnam and Cambodia from 1960 as the Indochina war unfolded
