French Cinema and the Great War Marcelline Block,Barry Nevin,2016-02-04 Even a century after its conclusion the devastation of the Great War still echoes in the work of artists who try to make sense of the political moral ideological and economic changes and challenges it spawned France the military major power of the Western Front carries the legacy of battles on its own soil and countless French lives lost defending the nation from the Central Powers It is no surprise that the impact of the First World War can still be seen in French films into the present day French Cinema and the Great War Remembrance and Representation provides the first book length study of World War I as it is featured in French cinema from the silent era to contemporary films Presented in three thematic sections Recording and Remembering the Great War Women at the Front and Interrogating Commemoration the essays in this volume explore the ways in which French film contributes to the restoration and modification of memories of the war Films such as La Grande Illusion King of Hearts A Very Long Engagement and Joyeux Noel are among those discussed in the volume s examination of the various ways in which film mediates personal and collective memories of this critical historical event This volume will be an invaluable resource not only to those interested in French Cinema or the cinema of the Great War but also to those interested in the impacts of war more generally on the cultural output of nations torn by the violence death and destruction of military conflict The Silent Cinema Reader Lee Grieveson,Peter Krämer,2004 The Silent Cinema Reader brings together key writings on cinema from the beginnings of film in 1894 to the advent of sound in 1927 addressing the development of film production and exhibition technologies methods of distribution film form and film culture during this critical period on film history Thematic sections address film projection and variety shows storytelling and the Nickelodeon cinema and reform feature films and cinema programs classical Hollywood cinema and European national cinemas Each section is introduced by the editors and contains suggestions for further readings and film viewings French Cinema Rómi Fournier Lanzoni,Rómi

Fournier-Lanzoni,2015-10-22 An all encompassing history of French motion pictures and cinematographic trends chronologically from 1895 to the present The European Cinema Reader Catherine Fowler,2002 This comprehensive introduction to national cinemas in Europe brings together classic writings by key filmmakers such as Sergei Eisenstein Luis Buñuel and John Grierson and critics from Andre Bazin to Peter Wollen Revisiting the French Resistance in Cinema, Literature, Bande Dessinée, and Television (1942-2012) Christophe Corbin,2019-05-03 Revisiting the French Resistance in Cinema Literature Bande Dessinée and Television 1942 2012 examines how fictional works have contributed to shaping the image of the French Resistance and offers a key to understanding France s national psyche Christophe Corbin explores themes including the making of the myth of an honorable country united against a common enemy comedies gently poking fun at it and fictional works debunking it straightforwardly the invisibility and resurfacing of women in films and novels as well as contemporary depictions of the Resistance on television Case studies include sometimes forgotten or lesser known works such as Aragon's wartime poetry early films such as Le P re tranquille or Casablanca inspired Fortunat iconic films and novels such as Le Silence de la mer or La Grande Vadrouille but also contemporary fictional works such as Effroyables jardins and Un H ros tr s discret or the popular TV series Un Village fran ais It will be of interest to scholars and students in cultural studies film studies French studies history and media studies

The French Cinema Book Michael

Temple, Michael Witt, 2018-01-18 This thoroughly revised and expanded edition of a key textbook offers an innovative and accessible account of the richness and diversity of French film history and culture from the 1890s to the present day The contributors who include leading historians and film scholars provide an indispensable introduction to key topics and debates in French film history Each chronological section addresses seven key themes people business technology forms representations spectators and debates providing an essential overview of the cinema industry the people who worked in it including technicians and actors as well as directors and the culture of cinema going in France from the beginnings of cinema to the contemporary period

Race, Class, and Gender in "Medieval" Cinema L. Ramey, T. Pugh, 2007-02-19

The medieval film genre is not in general concerned with constructing a historically accurate past but much analysis nonetheless centers on highlighting anachronisms This book aims to help scholars and aficionados of medieval film think about how the re creation of an often mythical past performs important cultural work for modern directors and viewers The essays in this collection demonstrate that directors intentionally insert modern preoccupations into a setting that would normally be considered incompatible with these concepts The Middle Ages provide an imaginary space far enough removed from the present day to explore modern preoccupations with human identity

Theorising National Cinema Valentina Vitali, Paul

Willemsen, 2019-07-25 Why do we think of clusters of films as national cinema Why has the relationship between the nation and film become so widely and uncritically accepted Theorising National Cinema is a major contribution to work on national cinema by many of the leading scholars in the field It addresses the knotty and complex relationship between cinema and national identity showing that the nationality of a cinema production company and the films that it made have not always been seen as pertinent The volume begins by reviewing and rethinking the concept of national cinema in an age of globalisation and it goes on to chart the parallel developments of national film industries and the idea of a nation state in countries as diverse as Japan South Korea Russia France and Italy The issues of a national cinema for nation states of contested status with disputed borders or displaced peoples is discussed in relation to film making in Taiwan Ireland and Palestine The contributors also consider the future of national cinema in an age of trans national cultural flows exploring issues of national identity and cinema in Latin America Asia the Middle East India Africa and Europe Theorising National

Cinema also includes a valuable bibliography of works on national cinema The Cinema Book Bloomsbury Publishing,2019-07-25 The Cinema Book is widely recognised as the ultimate guide to cinema Authoritative and comprehensive the third edition has been extensively revised updated and expanded in response to developments in cinema and cinema studies Lavishly illustrated in colour this edition features a wealth of exciting new sections and in depth case studies Sections address Hollywood and other World cinema histories key genres in both fiction and non fiction film issues such as stars technology and authorship and major theoretical approaches to understanding film Hungarian Cinema John Cunningham,2004 Hungarian cinema has often been forced to tread a precarious and difficult path Through the failed 1919 revolution to the defeat of the 1956 Uprising and its aftermath Hungarian film makers and their audiences have had to contend with a multiplicity of problems In the 1960s however Hungary entered into a period of relative stability and increasing cultural relaxation resulting in an astonishing growth of film making Innovative and groundbreaking directors such as Mikl s Jancs Hungarian Rhapsody The Red and the White Istv n Szab Mephisto Sunshine and M rta M szaros Little Vilma The Last Diary emerged and established the reputation of Hungarian films on a global basis This is the first book to discuss all major aspects of Hungarian cinema including avant garde animation and representations of the Gypsy and Jewish minorities The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz,MaryEllen Higgins,2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was created in France by Louis Lumi re in 1895 with the invention of the cin matographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cin matographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumi re s La Sortie de l usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumi re factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges M li s Alice Guy and Charles Path Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world s best directors Jean Renoir Jean Luc Godard Fran ois Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve G rard Depardieu and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike The Cinema of France Phil Powrie,2006 An in depth look at some of the best and most influential French films of all time The Cinema of France contains 24 essays each on an individual film The book features works from the silent period and poetic realism through the stylistic developments of the New Wave and up to more contemporary challenging films from directors such as Abel Gance Jean Renoir Marcel Carné François Truffaut Jean-Luc Godard Alain Resnais Agnès Varda and Luc Besson Set in chronological order The Cinema of France provides an illuminating history of this essential national cinema and includes in depth studies of films such as Un Chien Andalou 1929 Les Vacances de Monsieur Hulot 1953 Le Samouraï 1967 Shoah 1985 Jean de Florette 1986 Les Visiteurs 1993 and La Haine 1995 Making Jazz French Jeffrey H. Jackson, 2003-08-05 A history of jazz in interwar France concentrating on the ways this originally American music was integrated into French culture Alice Guy Blaché Alison McMahan, 2014-08-22 Alice Guy Blaché 1873-1968 the world's first woman filmmaker was one of the key figures in the development of narrative film From 1896 to 1920 she directed 400 films including over 100 synchronized sound films produced hundreds more and was the first and so far the only woman to own and run her own studio plant The Solax Studio in Fort Lee NJ 1910-1914 However her role in film history was completely forgotten until her own memoirs were published in 1976 This new book tells her life story and fills in many gaps left by the memoirs Guy Blaché's life and career mirrored momentous changes in the film industry and the long time span and sheer volume of her output makes her films a fertile territory for the application of new theories of cinema history the development of film narrative and feminist film theory The book provides a close analysis of the one hundred Guy Blaché films that survive and in the process rewrites early cinema history French Film Susan Hayward, Ginette Vincendeau, 2014-04-23 The second edition of this innovative textbook brings together leading scholars to provide detailed analyses of twenty-two key films within the canon of French cinema from the 1920s to the 1990s Films discussed include masterpieces such as Renoir's La Bête Humaine and Carne's Les Enfants du Paradis popular classics such as Les Vacances de Monsieur Hulot and Ma Nuit chez Maud landmarks of the New Wave such as Les 400 Coups and A bout de souffle important films of the 1990s such as Nikita and La Haine The films are considered in relation to such issues as the history of French cinema the social and cultural contexts of their production and reception the relationship with Hollywood cinema gender politics authorship and genre Each article is accompanied with a guide to further reading and a filmography of the director and the new edition also includes a fully revised introduction and a bibliography on French cinema French Colonial Documentary Peter J. Bloom, 2008 Despite altruistic goals humanitarianism often propagates foreign and sometimes unjust power structures where it is employed Tracing the visual rhetoric of French colonial humanitarianism Peter J. Bloom's unexpected analysis reveals how the project of remaking the colonies in the image of France was integral to its national identity French Colonial Documentary investigates how the promise of universal citizenship rights in France was projected onto the colonies as a form of evolutionary interventionism Bloom focuses on the promotion of French education efforts hygienic reform and new agricultural techniques in the colonies as a means of renegotiating the social contract between citizens and the state on an international scale Bloom's insightful readings disclose the pervasiveness of colonial iconography including the relationship between natural man and colonial subjectivity representations of the Senegalese Sharpshooters as obedient brave and sexualized colonial subjects and the appeal of exotic adventure narratives in the trans Saharan film genre Examining the interconnection between French documentary realism and the colonial enterprise Bloom demonstrates how the colonial archive is crucial to contemporary Peter J Bloom is associate professor of film and media studies at the University of California Santa Barbara y debates about multiculturalism in France Consuming Visions Suzanne K. Kaufman,2018-09-05 Plastic Madonnas packaged holy tours and biblical theme parks can arouse discomfort laughter and even revulsion in religious believers and nonbelievers alike Scholars too often see the intermingling of religion and commerce as a corruption of true spirituality Suzanne K Kaufman challenges these assumptions in her examination of the Lourdes pilgrimage in late nineteenth century France Consuming Visions offers new ways to interpret material forms of worship female piety and modern commercial culture Kaufman argues that the melding of traditional pilgrimage activities with a newly developing mass culture produced fresh expressions of popular faith For the devout women of humble origins who flocked to the shrine this intensely exciting commercialized worship offered unprecedented opportunities to connect with the sacred and express their faith in God New devotional activities at Lourdes transformed the act of pilgrimage the train became a moving chapel and popular entertainments such as wax museums offered vivid recreations of visionary events Using the press and the strategies of a new advertising industry to bring a mass audience to Lourdes Church authorities remade centuries old practices of miraculous healing into a modern public spectacle These innovations made Lourdes one of the most visited holy sites in Catholic Europe Yet mass pilgrimage also created problems The development of Lourdes while making religious practice more democratically accessible touched off fierce conflicts over the rituals and entertainments provided by the shrine These conflicts between believers and secularists played out in press scandals across the European continent By taking the shrine seriously as a site of mass culture Kaufman not only breaks down the opposition between sacred and profane but also deepens our understanding of commercialized religion as a fundamental feature of modernity itself Dead Ringers Jennifer Forrest,Leonard R. Koos,2012-02-01 While the popular press has criticized movie remakes as signs of Hollywood s collective lack of imagination the essays in Dead Ringers reveal the centrality and staying power of remakes as a formative genre in filmmaking The contributors show that the practice of remaking films dates back to the origins of cinema and the evolution of film markets In fact remakes were never so prevalent as during the Classic Hollywood period when filmmaking had achieved its greatest degree of industrialization and they continue to play a crucial role in the development of film genres generally Offering a variety of historical commercial theoretical and cultural perspectives on the remake Dead Ringers is a valuable resource for students of film history and theory as well as those interested in the cultural politics of the late twentieth century
