Saving the Souls of Medieval London Marie-Hélène Rousseau, 2016-04-01 St Paul s Cathedral stood at the centre of religious life in medieval London It was the mother church of the diocese a principal landowner in the capital and surrounding countryside and a theatre for the enactment of events of national importance The cathedral was also a powerhouse of commemoration and intercession where prayers and requiem masses were offered on a massive scale for the salvation of the living and the dead This spiritual role of St Paul s Cathedral was carried out essentially by the numerous chantry priests working and living in its precinct Chantries were pious foundations through which donors clerks or lay male or female endowed priests to celebrate intercessory masses for the benefit of their souls At St Paul s Cathedral they were first established in the late twelfth century and until they were dissolved in 1548 they contributed greatly to the daily life of the cathedral They enhanced the liturgical services offered by the cathedral increased the number of the clerical members associated with it and intensified relations between the cathedral and the city of London Using the large body of material from the cathedral archives this book investigates the chantries and their impacts on the life services and clerical community of the cathedral from their foundation in the early thirteenth century to the dissolution It demonstrates the flexibility and adaptability of these pious foundations and the various contributions they made to medieval society and sheds light on the men who played a role which until the abolition of the chantries in 1548 was seen to be crucial to the spiritual well being of medieval London     The Topographer and Genealogist John Gough Nichols,1858     A History of the Holy Eucharist in Great Britain Thomas Edward Bridgett,1908     A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles J. Proceedings of international conference at NUI Maynooth on Goethe's contribution to music Goethe was interested in and acutely aware of the place of music in human experience generally and of its particular role in modern culture Moreover his own literary work especially the poetry and Faust inspired some of the major composers of the European tradition to produce some of their finest works Martin Swales Subject Music Studies Goethe     The Chronicle of the Good Duke Louis II Bourbon Jean Cabaret d'Orville,2021-12-31 Duke Louis of Bourbon was a descendant of the French King Louis IX Saint Louis d 1270 and of the first Duke of Bourbon a position created in 1327 As a royal cousin of Kings Charles VI and Charles VII and the ruler of a key French duchy Louis was a major player in the Hundred Years War a general diplomat and mediator successful warlord first in his campaigns against the English then later in the campaigns launched by the French into the Baltic region Muslim North Africa and the Iberian peninsula A man of war he was also considered a pious Christian who moderated the worst excesses of the French royal dukes in the latter years of the 14th century making him a rare figure A leader in every aspect of a blood war from battlefield to high level politics who came out of it as a hero At least that is how his friends saw it What they thought of him is preserved in The Chronicle of the Good Duke Louis II which not only gives us a dramatic account of Louis as prince and warlord but also shows his friends observing him in action The resulting Chronicle is as much a portrait of Louis circle of friends as it is of Louis himself The book very like a collection of legends gives modern readers a striking picture of the Hundred Years War provides a vivid picture of the war camps courts and battlefields of the late fourteenth century Historian Steven Muhlberger renders his translation the first of the Chronicle into any modern language in crisp modern language that conveys the excitement of vivacity readers would have experienced six centuries ago     The Imperial Dictionary, English, Technological, and Scientific John Ogilvie,1856     The Statutes of Corpus Christi College, All Souls College, and Magdalen College, Oxford Corpus Christi College (University of Oxford),George Robert Michael Ward,1843     'The Right Ordering of Souls' Clive Burgess,2018 The relationship between people and parish in the late medieval ages illuminated by this study of a remarkable survival from the period In the two centuries preceding the Reformation in England economic political and spiritual conditions combined with constructive effect Endemic plague prompted a demonstrative piety and in a world enjoying rising disposable incomes this linked with current teachings especially the doctrine of Purgatory to sustain a remarkable devotional generosity Moreover political conditions and particularly war with France persuaded the government to summon its subjects assistance including responses encouraged in England's many parishes As a result the wealthier classes invested in and worked for their neighbourhood churches with a degree of largesse witnessed in parish buildings in many localities hardly equalled since Buildings apart the scarcity of pre Reformation parish records means however that the resonances of this response and the manner in which parishioners organised their worship are ordinarily lost to us This book using the remarkable survival of records for one parish All Saints Bristol in the later fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries scrutinises the investment that the faithful made If not necessarily typical it is undeniably revealing going further than any previous study to expose and explain parishioners priorities practices and achievements in the late Middle Ages In so doing it also charts a world that would soon vanish Dr CLIVE BURGESS holds a Senior Lectureship in late medieval history at Royal Holloway University of London A History of the Church of All Saints, Northampton Robert Meyrick Serjeantson, 1901 The Law Reports (Ireland) William Green, 1889 Includes reports from the Chancery Probate Queen's bench Common pleas and Exchequer divisions and from the Irish land commission
