Re/constructing "the Adolescent" Jennifer Andrea Vadeboncoeur, Lisa Patel Stevens, 2005 Young people today are frequently demonized by media images as well as by classroom reports Dominant discourses as ways of seeing and talking about youths are constructed and managed by adults and offer young people a limited set of roles to play and options for engaging with society Contributors to Re Constructing the Adolescent problematize the social construction of the adolescent through a critique of the discourses that position youths and an examination of how youths enact contest and sometimes transform those same discourses These studies combining empirical research and semiotic analyses offer a fresh perspective on young people in western societies today at the level of everyday discourse embodied through gesture and symbolic action with material effects

Disrupting

Secondary STEM Education Margery Gardner, 2024-12-19 This volume brings into focus the pivotal educational years during adolescence when many learners are exposed to implicit and explicit messages that STEM is not a viable educational pathway for them Challenging this notion Disrupting Secondary STEM Education brings together a collective of critical educators who share what disruptive STEM teaching looks and feels like from an insider perspective as well as the ways they purposefully create curriculum to subvert existing structures that can confine learning Through disruptive STEM teaching a joy for learning is kindled as well as a sense of empowered criticality in students that can support their development as global citizens facing complex futures The collection shares stories across a spectrum of educators from those beginning their teaching journey to those who ve stood up against narrow curriculum and standardized testing for years in the capacity of both P 12 teachers and teacher educators The voices of these educators illustrate how the work of disruptive STEM teaching can be actualized within cohorts of future teachers achieved through early engagement with critical theories and generative field experiences that support and affirm a wide array of identities This book provides multiple theoretical and practical access points for the reader to understand the work of disruptive STEM teaching and offers a way forward for those interested in developing more critical curriculum in their own classrooms As such it will be important reading for postgraduate students and researchers in Social Justice Education and STEM Education as well as for in service educators
