Policy Analysis in the Twenty-First Century Beryl A. Radin, 2019 The field called policy analysis focused originally on the formulation of new policies and was structured to give advice to those in the top reaches of government agencies Within several decades the field moved beyond the formulation stage of the policy process creating new policies to agenda setting implementation and evaluation of existing policies New skill sets emerged and staff were found in many parts of the policy world Despite these changes there has been little attention paid to the possible shifts in the relationship between analysts and clients and students of policy analysis often enter the world of work with little exposure to the situations they might face Policy Analysis in the Twenty First Century is designed to familiarize students with the diversity of experiences that they can expect to face in their practitioner role Author Beryl Radin bases the discussion on case studies that illustrate realities in the current policy analysis environment Set in very different environments including
