Davis, Lilian W. Mina, Ryan P. Shepherd

Research On Composing:

Research on Composition Peter Smagorinsky, 2006 Covering the period between 1984 and 2003 this authoritative sequel picks up where the earlier volumes Braddock et al 1963 and Hillocks 1986 now classics in the field left off It features a broader focus that goes beyond the classroom teaching of writing to include teacher research second language writing rhetoric home and community literacy workplace literacy and histories of writing Each chapter is written by an expert in the area reviewed and covers both conventional written composition and multimodal forms of composition including drawing digital forms and other relevant media Research on Composition is an invaluable road map of composition research for the next decade and required reading for anyone teaching or writing about composition today Handbook of Research on Writing and Composing in the Age of MOOCs Monske, Elizabeth A., Blair, Kristine L., 2016-11-29 The development of online learning environments has enhanced the availability of educational opportunities for students By implementing effective curriculum strategies this ensures proper quality and instruction in online settings The Handbook of Research on Writing and Composing in the Age of MOOCs is a critical reference source that overviews the current state of larger scale online courses and the latest competencies for teaching writing online Featuring comprehensive coverage across a range of perspectives on teaching in virtual classrooms such as MOOC delivery models digital participation and user centered instructional design this book is ideal for educators professionals practitioners academics and researchers interested in the latest material on writing and composition strategies for online classrooms Methods and Methodology in Composition Research Gesa Kirsch, Patricia A. Sullivan, 1992 In original essays fourteen nationally known scholars examine the practical philosophical and epistemological implications of a variety of research traditions Included are discussions of historical theoretical and feminist scholarship case study and ethnographic research text and conversation analysis and cognitive experimental and descriptive research Issues that cross methodological boundaries such as the nature of collaborative research and writing methodological pluralism the classification and coding of research data and the politics of composition research are also examined Contributors reflect on their own research practices and so reflect the current state of composition research itself

Supporting Research Writing Valerie Matarese, 2012-11-06 Supporting Research Writing explores the range of services designed to facilitate academic writing and publication in English by non native English speaking NNEs authors It analyses the realities of offering services such as education translation editing and writing and then considers the challenges and benefits that result when these boundaries are consciously blurred It thus provides an opportunity for readers to reflect on their professional roles and the services that will best serve their clients needs A recurring theme is therefore the interaction between language professional and client author The book offers insights into the opportunities and challenges presented by considering ourselves first and foremost as writing support professionals differing in our primary approach through teaching translating editing writing or a combination of those but with a common goal This view has major consequences for the training of professionals who support English language publication by NNES academics and scientists Supporting Research Writing will therefore be a stimulus to professional development for those who support English language publication in real life contexts and an important resource for those entering the profession Takes a holistic approach to writing support and reveals how it is best conceived as a spectrum of overlapping and interrelated professional activities Stresses the importance of understanding the real world needs of authors in their quest to publish Provides insights into the approaches used by experienced practitioners across Europe

Multimodal Composing and Writing Transfer Kara Poe Alexander, Matthew Davis, Lilian W. Mina, Ryan P. Shepherd, 2024-02-15

Multimodal Composing and Writing Transfer explores transfer across various contexts of multimodal composing extending the early conversations connecting multimodality to writing Contributors address how writing transfer theories intersect with multimodal composing and present methods for facilitating transfer across modes and media offering insight into how writers can learn to compose when they encounter familiar modes in new contexts Over the past two decades the concepts of multimodal composing and writing transfer have grown and reshaped the nature of writing studies but rarely have the ways in which these areas overlap been studied This collection shows how this shift in writing studies has been mutually informative covering a wider range of contexts for multimodality and writing transfer than just in first year composition courses It places composition teaching practices and multimodal research in conversation with learning transfer theory to provide an in depth examination of how they influence one another Multimodal Composing and Writing Transfer develops these intersections to connect multimodal composition and writing practices across a wide array of fields and contexts Scholars across disciplines postsecondary writing teachers writing program administrators writing center directors and graduate students will find this collection indispensable and child writing and literacy interconnections between writing reading and speech digital writing writing in communities writing in the sciences and engineering writing instruction and assessment and writing and disability A section on international measures for assessment of writing is a new addition to this compendium of research This Handbook serves as a comprehensive resource for scholars graduate students and advanced undergraduates in writing studies and rhetoric composition creative expression education and literacy studies

The Function of Theory in Composition Studies

Raul Sanchez,2012-02-01 How can theory improve our knowledge of writing Raul Sanchez answers this question by examining dominant theoretical trends in composition studies over the last fifteen years citing their common origins in a narrow representational metatheory of writing He argues that this adherence actually leads the field away from its objects of study writing and the writing subject Through this extended critique he elaborates an alternative metatheory one that restores writing to the conceptual center of composition studies by emphasizing its generative rather than its representational characteristics particularly in increasingly networked and textualized cultures

Self-regulated Learning and Second Language Writing Lin Sophie Teng,2022-05-30 This monograph is to investigate practical applications and contributions of self regulated learning SRL to second foreign language L2 writing from sociocognitive and sociocultural perspectives It showcases a comprehensive and updated review of conceptual and methodological issues of SRL and the state of the art research on its applications to L2 learning and teaching This volume further elaborates the design and results of a large scale project which conducts observational and intervention studies investigating SRL strategies in L2 writing This book reveals that a cross disciplinary understanding of SRL strategies plays a crucial role in advancing theoretical functions of SRL and in extending its applications to L2 education in general and L2 writing in particular This book makes significant contributions to developing and validating new conceptual frameworks and tools for evaluating multidimensional structures of SRL strategies and self efficacy in L2 writing elucidating the interplay of personal behavioral environmental and psychological factors with SRL strategies and writing performance and presenting an effective self regulation instructional model for nurturing L2 learners motivation and confidence to strategize reflect and succeed in writing Teng has established herself as one of the prominent scholars in the discussion of self regulated learning strategies Her contribution to the fields of L2 writing and strategic learning are undeniable This monograph is an excellent showing of how her endeavors to bring established theories from educational psychology to applied writing research have progressed over a number of methodologically rigorous studies It should be required reading for anyone with an interest in cultivating strategic writers not only in the Chinese context but worldwide Nathan Thomas UCL Institute of Education

Teaching Information Literacy and Writing Studies

Grace Veach,2018-09-15 This volume edited by Grace Veach explores leading approaches to foregrounding information literacy in first year college writing courses Chapters describe cross disciplinary efforts underway across higher education as well as innovative approaches of both writing professors and librarians in the classroom This seminal work unpacks the disciplinary implications for information literacy and writing studies as they encounter one another in theory and practice during a time when fact or truth is less important than fitting a predetermined message Topics include reading and writing through the lens of information literacy curriculum design specific writing tasks transfer and assessment

Resources in Education,1998 Digital Reading and Writing in Composition Studies Mary R. Lamb,Jennifer M. Parrott,2019-03-13 As digital reading has become more productive and active the lines between reading and writing become more blurred This book offers both an exploration of collaborative reading and pedagogical strategies for teaching reading and writing that reflect the realities of digital literacies This edited scholarly collection offers strategies for teaching reading and writing that highlight the possibilities opportunities and complexities of digital literacies Part 1 explores reading and writing that happen digitally and offers frameworks for thinking about this process Part 2 focuses on strategies for the classroom by applying reading theories design principles and rhetorical concepts to instruction Part 3 introduces various disciplinary implications for this blended approach to writing instruction What is emerging is new theories and practices of reading in both print and digital spaces theories that account for how diverse student readers encounter and engage digital texts This collection contributes to this work by offering strategies for sustaining reading and cultivating writing in this landscape of changing digital literacies The book is essential for the professional development of beginning teachers who will appreciate the historical and bibliographic overview as well as classroom strategies and for busy veteran teachers who will gain updated knowledge and a renewed commitment to teaching an array of literacy skills It will be ideal for graduate seminars in composition theory and pedagogy both undergraduate and graduate and teacher education courses and will be key reading for scholars in rhetoric and composition interested in composition history assessment communication studies and literature pedagogy

Assessing Writers' Knowledge and Processes of Composing Lester Faigley,1985 This volume offers a new perspective on the evaluation of writing The first half of the volume reviews research on composing and examines existing methods of evaluating writing The second half sets some limitations in assessing changes in composing processes describes some methods researchers in other areas have used to investigate cognitive processes and outlines a model of writers knowledge that can lead to comprehensive assessments of writing skills

Reconnecting Reading and Writing Alice S. Horning,Elizabeth W. Kraemer,2013-09-06 Reconnecting Reading and Writing explores the ways in which reading can and should have a strong role in the teaching of writing in college Reconnecting Reading and Writing draws on broad perspectives from history and international work to show how and why reading should be reunited with writing in college and high school classrooms It presents an overview of relevant research on reading and how it can best be used to support and enhance writing instruction

Speaking About Writing Alain Coulon,1994-04-29 This volume makes a powerful case for the analysis of the spoken word as a source of data to study writing The contributors focus on issues involved in the collection analysis and interpretation of data Their approaches go beyond simple quantitative qualitative differences examining the very underpinnings of the various assumptions of distinct methodologies Divided into four major areas of inquiry the book looks at different aspects of conducting think aloud protocol analysis retrospective accounts discourse analysis and interviews in the field

The Politics of Writing Studies Robert Samuels, 2017-09-07 A friendly critique of the field The Politics of Writing Studies examines a set of recent pivotal texts in composition to show how writing scholarship in an effort to improve disciplinary prestige and garner institutional resources inadvertently reproduces structures of inequality within American higher education Not only does this enable the exploitation of contingent faculty but it also puts writing studies a field that inherently challenges many institutional hierarchies in a debased institutional position and at odds with itself Instead of aligning with the dominant paradigm of research universities where research is privileged over teaching theory over practice the sciences over the humanities and graduate education over undergraduate writing studies should conceive itself in terms more often associated with labor By identifying more profoundly as workers as a collective in solidarity with contingent faculty writing professionals can achieve solutions to the material problems that the field in its best moments wants to address Ultimately the change compositionists want to see in the university will not come from high theory or the social science research agenda it must come from below Offering new insight into a complex issue The Politics of Writing Studies will be of great interest to writing studies professionals university administrators and anyone interested in the political economy of education and the reform of institutions of higher education in America
