Abstract

Writing assessment is a crucial part of language teaching process. A good writing assessment can promote students' writing. However, some teachers and students do not attach much importance on writing assessment. This research aims to discuss the kinds and functions of writing assessment and give some advice for English teachers to help their assessment on writing.

Keywords

Writing Assessment; High School; Writing Teaching.

1. Introduction

According to the National English Curriculum Standard for Senior High school(2017 edition, 2020 revised), the purpose of assessment is to improve English learning and teaching, complete course design and supervise the learning quality. The assessment need to be centered by the key competence of English learning, throughout the whole process of teaching. Different people give different definition of assessment. Rod Ellis define assessment as assessment is a feedback to the information conveyed by the learner. He hold the idea that assessment can give learners more information and plays an indispensable role in writing teaching. Weigle pointed out that the assessment of students' writing ability is an important task for teachers, and designing fair and effective methods to assess their students' progress and achievements is an essential skill.

Many scholars have done researches about writing assessment. Zeng and Xu talk about the effective feedback in writing assessment. They point out that teachers need to use various ways to give feedback to students' writing, so that to improve students' writing ability[1]. Su talks about junior high school English writing assessment based on the integration of teaching, learning and assessing. She analyzed the problems which exist in writing assessment during junior high school and gave some advice on how to assess writing[2]. Zhang and Yang made a case study on exploring the status quo of high school English teachers' writing assessment literacy. The research found the complexity and contextualization of teacher's writing assessment[3]. Shao and Lin made a study on the construction of a learning-oriented college English writing assessment system. This study constructs a learning-oriented college English writing assessment system, which aims to promote writing learning as its primary goal by incorporating multiple assessment methods and providing diverse feedback[4]. Yao made a research about the backwash effect and its application in evaluation of secondary school English writing. She put forward the specific measures of the backwash effect[5]. Xu analyzed the problems and solutions in the evaluation of middle-school English writing. Based on the analysis, she gave some suggestions to the process of writing assessment[6].

2. Writing Assessment Method

The main writing assessment methods are Teacher Assessment, Peer Assessment, Self-assessment, Automated Assessment and Combined Feedback Assessment.
