How Do We Look? Fatimah Tobing Rony, 2021-10-18 In How Do We Look Fatimah Tobing Rony draws on transnational images of Indonesian women as a way to theorize what she calls visual biopolitics the ways visual representation determines which lives are made to matter more than others Rony outlines the mechanisms of visual biopolitics by examining Paul Gauguin's 1893 portrait of Anna la Javanaise a trafficked thirteen year old girl found wandering the streets of Paris as well as US ethnographic and documentary films In each instance the figure of the Indonesian woman is inextricably tied to discourses of primitivism savagery colonialism exoticism and genocide Rony also focuses on acts of resistance to visual biopolitics in film writing and photography These works such as Rachmi Diyah Larasati's The Dance that Makes You Vanish Vincent Monnikendam's Mother Dao 1995 and the collaborative films of Nia Dinata challenge the naturalized methods of seeing that justify exploitation dehumanization and early death of people of color By theorizing the mechanisms of visual biopolitics Rony elucidates both its violence and its vulnerability

Encountering Mary Sandra L. Zimdars-Swartz, 2014-07-14 In the past two centuries hundreds of apparitions of the Virgin Mary have been reported drawing crowds to the seers and the sites and constituting events of great religious significance for millions of people worldwide Here Sandra Zimdars Swartz provides a detective like investigation of the experiences and interpretations of six major apparitions including those at La Salette and Lourdes in France during the mid nineteenth century at Fatima Portugal in 1917 and the more recent ones at San Damiano Italy Garabandal Spain and Medjugorje Yugoslavia where the apparitions continue Adopting a phenomenological approach to these encounters with

Mary one that is neither apologetic nor antagonistic the author explores the tension between the personal meaning of the events for their subjects and the public appropriation of this meaning by a larger religious community Along the way she examines the backgrounds of the seers their willingness or reluctance to talk about the apparitions and their messages the amount of emotional support they received from family and community as news of the apparitions spread the reports of miracles at apparition sites the reactions of local authorities and the steps taken by the Roman Catholic Church in officially recognizing or rejecting the apparitions as worthy of belief The author concludes with a survey of religious worldviews based on Marian apparitions focusing especially on the now popular transcultural apocalyptic nature of these messages to the modern world Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Murder on the Champ de Mars Cara

Black,2015-03-03 A dying woman has secret about the unsolved murder of Parisian P I Aim e Leduc s father but is kidnapped before she can reveal it Paris April 1999 Aim e Leduc has her work cut out for her running her detective agency and fighting off sleep deprivation as she tries to be a good single mother to her new b b The last thing she has time for now is to take on a personal investigation for a poor manouche Gypsy boy But he insists his dying mother has an important secret she needs to tell Aim e something to do with Aim e s father s unsolved murder a decade ago How can she say no The dying woman s secret is even more dangerous than her son realized When Aim e arrives at the hospital the boy s mother has disappeared She was far too sick to leave on her own she must have been abducted What does she know that s so important it s worth killing for And will Aim e be able to find her before it s too late and the medication keeping her alive runs out Montreal After Dark

Matthieu Caron,2025-05-13 Sex and jazz liquor and gambling Montreal in the early twentieth century was a city that offered an exceptional nighttime scene in North America By mid century that scene came under scrutiny and Montreal s influential mayor Jean Drapeau would be elected for the first time on a reformist platform that promised to end corruption Over more than three decades Drapeau would endeavour to transform Montreal into a world class global city by regulating its nightlife Montreal After Dark chronicles the spaces where nighttime regulations were enforced and contested City authorities understood the night as enabling disorder and they reorganized policing and crafted bylaws to gain control over it Police and politicians mutually reinforced each other s drive to morally cleanse the urban landscape especially for international events like Expo 67 and the 1976 Olympics But in an era of social unrest Drapeau s administration also found itself responding to the protective services discontent The political culture of the city was quickly transformed following terrifying nights without their services Matthieu Caron shows how in an effort to incorporate the night into the expansionary tendencies of consumer capitalism municipal authorities took sides in a debate over who had the right to public space at night what constituted acceptable behaviour or expression whose sexual activity sustained the social order and whose threatened to destroy it In terms that are strikingly familiar today Montreal After Dark elucidates how the desires of politicians would come to reorganize how consumption and leisure labour and dissent noise sex and art were lived in Montreal after the sun went down

Critical Issues in Education Jack L. Nelson, Stuart B. Palonsky, Mary Rose McCarthy, 2020-08-12 Critical Issues in Education examines three questions that are at the core of the education debate in the United States What interests should schools serve What knowledge should schools teach How do we develop the human environment of schools When answering these queries the authors advocate the use of critical thinking which includes dialogue and dialectic reasoning Dynamic and interactive dialogue requires listening and assessment while dialectic stimulates the development of a creative response that encompasses both sides of an issue When applied these approaches engender an informative and stimulating discussion In order to explore the depth of current educational issues the Ninth Edition considers 15 topics providing supporting evidence and reasoning for two divergent views These issues include violence in schools the role of technology gender equity multiculturalism inclusion and disability and school choice Both civic and professional discussions regarding improvements will have consequences for students teachers and society As a result educational views and the social landscape in which they reside deserve critical study

Alleviative Objects David Frohnapfel, 2020-12-07 The global field of contemporary art is shaped by inter racial conflicts Alleviative Objects approaches Caribbean art through intersectional entanglements and combines decolonial epistemologies with critical whiteness studies and affect theory in order to rethink Euro and U S centric perspectives on art race and class David Frohnapfel shows how progressive racism in the discourse on Haitian art recenters Whiteness by performing benign innocent and heroic identifications with the artist group Atis Rezistans While the study turns critically towards Whiteness it also turns away from it and towards the compelling contributions of Haitian curators and artists to the decentralization of contemporary art

Loving Fanfiction Brit Kelley, 2021-05-30 Loving Fanfiction explores emotion within the context of fandoms specifically online fanfiction Through exploring fans narratives about themselves and the fanwork they produce and consume the author theorizes how identity cognition emotion the body and embodiment come together in literacy development and practices Drawing on affect theory to explore the complex roles of emotions literacy identity and the digital both in their own position and in the worlds of engaged fans Brit Kelley systematically analyses work from a six year ethnographic study across fandoms from Harry Potter and WWE to Gotham and Twilight Their analysis expands upon current understandings of fandom by more thoroughly theorizing the deeply emotional element of fanfiction practices and connects to the academic fan community to draw connections and implications for the role of emotion in teaching and research This unique perspective on emotions love and fandoms will be of significant interest to scholars and students of media and communication studies fan studies literature creative writing cultural studies digital humanities and

A Cultural History of Dress and Fashion in the Age of Empire Denise Amy Baxter, 2018-11-01 During the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the production of dress shifted dramatically from being predominantly hand crafted in small quantities to machine manufactured in bulk The increasing democratization of appearances made new fashions more widely available but at the same time made the need to differentiate social rank seem more pressing In this age of empire the coding of class gender and race was frequently negotiated through dress in complex ways from fashionable dress which restricted or exaggerated the female body to liberating reform dress from self defining black dandies to the oppressions and resistances of slave dress Richly illustrated with over 100 images and drawing on a plethora of visual textual and object sources A Cultural History of Dress and Fashion in the Age of Empire presents essays on textiles production and distribution the body belief gender and sexuality status ethnicity and visual and literary representations to illustrate the diversity and cultural significance of dress and fashion in the period      Women's Studies Esther F.
