Louise Arner Boyd, Arctic Explorer Durlynn Anema, 2000 A biography of the woman who gave up a wealthy and pampered life to make extensive explorations in the Arctic regions Politics, Identity, and Mobility in Travel Writing Miguel A. Cabañas, Jeanne Dubino, Veronica Salles-Reese, Gary Totten, 2015-06-26 This collection examines the intersections between the personal and the political in travel writing and the dialectic between mobility and stasis through an analysis of specific cases across geographical and historical boundaries The authors explore the various ways in which travel texts represent actual political conditions and thus engage in discussions about national transnational and global citizenship how they propose real world political interventions in the places where the traveler goes what tone they take toward political or socio political violence and how they intersect with political debates Travel writing can be viewed as political in a purely instrumental sense but as this volume also demonstrates travel writing's reception and ideological interventions also transform personal and cultural realities This book thus examines the ways in which politics material effects inform and intersect with personal experience in travel texts and engage with travel's dialectic of mobility and stasis In spite of globalization and efforts to eradicate the colonial vision in travel writing and in travel writing criticism this vision persists in various and complex ways While the travelogue can be a space of discursive and direct oppression these essays suggest that the travelogue is also a narrative space in which the traveler employs the genre to assert authority over his or her experiences of mobility This book will be an important contribution for interdisciplinary scholars with interests in travel writing studies global and transnational studies women's studies multicultural studies the social sciences and history The Polar Adventures of a Rich American Dame Joanna Kafarowski, 2017-11-04 The first comprehensive biography of Louise Arner Boyd the intrepid American socialite who reinvented herself as the leading female polar explorer of the twentieth century Born in the late 1880s to a gritty mining magnate who made his millions in the California gold rush and a well bred mother descended from one of New York's distinguished families society beauty Louise Arner Boyd was raised during a glittering era After inheriting a staggering family fortune she began leading a double life She fell under the spell of the north in the late 1920s after a sailing excursion to the Arctic Ocean Over the next three decades she achieved international notoriety as a rugged and audacious polar explorer while maintaining her flamboyant lifestyle as a leading society woman Yet despite organizing financing and directing seven daring Arctic expeditions between 1926 and 1955 she is virtually unknown today Kids InfoBits Presents: Famous Explorers Gale, Cengage Learning, Who was the first woman to fly over the North Pole What continents are named after the explorer Amerigo Vespucci Who is famous for his unsuccessful search for the Fountain of Youth Find out the answers to these questions and more in Kids InfoBits Presents Famous Explorers Famous Explorers contains authoritative age appropriate content covering over 40 explorers including Hernando Cortes James Cook and Erik the Red The content arranged in A Z format provides interesting and important facts and is geared to fit the needs

Arctic Cinemas and the Documentary Ethos Anna Westerstahl Stenport,2019-02-18 A collection of essays analyzing the representation of the Arctic region in documentary films Beginning with Robert Flaherty s Nanook of the North 1922 the majority of films that have been made in about and by filmmakers from the Arctic region have been documentary cinema Focused on a hostile environment that few people visit these documentaries have heavily shaped ideas about the contemporary global Far North In Arctic Cinemas and the Documentary Ethos contributors from a variety of scholarly and artistic backgrounds come together to provide a comprehensive study of Arctic documentary cinemas from a transnational perspective This book offers a thorough analysis of the concept of the Arctic as it is represented in documentary filmmaking while challenging the notion of The Arctic as a homogenous entity that obscures the environmental historical geographic political and cultural differences that characterize the region By examining how the Arctic is imagined understood and appropriated in documentary work the contributors argue that such films are key in contextualizing environmental indigenous political cultural sociological and ethnographic understandings of the Arctic from early cinema to the present Understanding the role of these films becomes all the more urgent in the present day as conversations around resource extraction climate change and sovereignty take center stage in the Arctic s representation Highly recommended Choice A thorough exploration of the inexorable links between the circumpolar regions and historic and contemporary documentary filmmaking It will b valuable to Arctic humanities specialists particularly as a welcome addition to scholarship on visual depictions of the Arctic by authors such as Ann Fienup Riordan Richard Condon Russell Potter and Peter Geller as well as Mackenzie and Westerstahl Steport s earlier co edited volume Films on Ice It will also be of use to anyone interested in ways of studying linkages between filmmaking environments and local and outsider communities Sarah Pickman Yale University H Environment January 2020

Women of Discovery Milbry Polk,Mary Tiegreen,2001 Across the centuries and from many lands women have set forth on journeys of exploration Visionaries adventurers artists and scientists these women challenged the limitations both physical and social of their times and in the face of formidable challenges expanded the world s body of knowledge Yet despite their extraordinary achievements they have remained unknown and unsung for too long No longer The stories of more than eighty extraordinary explorers and adventurers are vividly recounted and stunningly illustrated in Women of Discovery Here for the first time are gathered the tales of early voyagers such as the valiant tenth century Viking adventurer Unn the Deep Minded and seventeenth century Spanish conquistadora Catalina de Erauso Intrepid explorers like Mary Kingsley in Africa Alexandra David Neel in Tibet and Freya Stark in the Middle East traveled fearlessly into the blank spaces on the map Artist explorers including the great botanical painter Anna Maria Sibylla Merian in Surinam writer Zora Neale Hurston in Haiti and photographer Ruth Robertson in South America captured in their art the beauty and mystery of exotic lands Many brave women have ventured into extreme environments to bring back knowledge whether they were aviators like Amelia Earhart mountaineers like Annie Smith Peck or Arctic explorers like Irina and Valentina Kuznetsova And the annals of science would be far poorer without the work of such women as primatologists Jane Goodall and Dian Fossey ethnobotanist Nicole Maxwell and ichthyologist Eugenie Clark This is truly a gathering of heroines full of tales of courage talent intelligence and sheer determination With foreword by renowned journalist Christiane Amanpour Women of Discovery is a remarkable book an achievement in its own right and certain to thrill anyone captivated by the world changing drama of exploration

The Monorails of Mars Terry Walstrom,2014-07-16 THE MONORAILS OF MARS In the manner of a Hitchcock film the suspense runs deep and the plot twists into the macabre and horrific Who is controlling the finest minds of genius on two worlds How will the invasion of Earth by Mars and of Mars by Earth bring about the desire of fanatics for Harm aggedon What is behind the collaboration of Nikola Tesla and Thomas Edison to build an electric bridge Why are War Machines with Death Rays secretly manufactured by leading industrialists Who is the mysterious Ada who has walked the Earth from the time of Noah Why is a Las Vegas style religious theme park being built on Mars How did the son of the Lord of Apes become involved These and other suspense filled puzzles are examined and solved in a delightful and humorous look
