In Dear Old London the poet wailed that a splendid Horace cheap for cash laughed at his poverty and in Dibdin's Ghost he revelled in the delights that await the bibliomaniac in the future state where there is no admission to the women folk who wanting victuals make a fuss if we buy books instead while in Flail Trask and Bisland is the very essence of bibliomania the unquenchable thirst for possession And yet despite these self accusations bibliophilia rather than bibliomania would be the word to characterize his conscientious purpose If he purchased quaint and rare books it was to own them to the full extent inwardly as well as outwardly The mania for books kept him continually buying the love of books supervened to make them a part of himself and his life The Love Affairs of a Bibliomaniac.
