Magic Moments First 20 Years Of Moving Pictures In Toronto 1894-1914:

Now Playing Paul S. Moore, 2008-04-17 Locates the origins of the mass audience and the emergence of everyday moviegoing in the culture of cities Encyclopedia of Early Cinema Richard Abel, 2005 One volume reference work on the first twenty five years of the cinema's international emergence from the early 1890s to the mid 1910s Reel Time Robert Morris Seiler, Tamara Palmer Seiler, 2013 In this authoritative work Seiler and Seiler argue that the establishment and development of moviegoing and movie exhibition in Prairie Canada is best understood in the context of changing late nineteenth century and early twentieth century social economic and technological developments From the first entrepreneurs who attempted to lure customers into movie exhibition halls to the digital revolution and its impact on moviegoing Reel Time highlights the pivotal role of amusement venues in shaping the leisure activities of working and middle class people across North America As marketing efforts the lavish interiors of the movie palace and the romantic view of the local movie theatre concealed a competitive environment in which producers exhibitors and distributors tried to monopolize the industry and drive their rivals out of business The pitched battles and power struggles between national movie theatre chains took place at the same time that movie exhibitors launched campaigns to reassure moviegoers that theatres were no longer the unclean and immoral places of amusement of yesteryear Under the leadership of impresarios the movie theatre rose up from these attacks to become an important social and cultural centre one deemed suitable for women and children An innovative examination of moviegoing as a social practice and movie exhibition as a commercial enterprise Reel Time depicts how the industry shaped the development of the Canadian Prairie West and propelled the region into the modern era Canada's Best Features Eugene P. Walz, 2002 Long recognized for outstanding National Film Board documentaries and innovative animated movies Canada has recently emerged from the considerable shadow of the Hollywood elephant with a series of feature films that have captured the attention of audiences around the world This is the first anthology to focus on Canada's feature films those acknowledged as its very best With essays by senior academics and leading scholars from across the country as well as some fresh new voices Canada's Best Features offers penetrating analyses of fifteen award winning films Internationally acclaimed directors David Cronenberg Atom Egoyan Denys Arcand and Claude Jutra are represented here Noteworthy films include Mon oncle Antoine often cited as Canada's number one film of all time such Cannes Festival favourites as Le dclin de l'empire am ricain and Exotica and cult films Careful by Guy Maddin and Masala by Srinivas Krishna The essays offer the latest word on these films and filmmakers done from a variety of perspectives Some of the films have never been examined in depth before Complete filmographies and bibliographies accompany each essay A contextualizing introduction by Professor Gene Walz provides the necessary overview An annotated bibliography of books on the Canadian film industry completes this impressive package Paul Bern E.J. Fleming, 2009-03-23 Paul Bern known throughout the movie business as Hollywood's Father Confessor earned a reputation for being a loyal and supportive friend and for becoming one of MGM's most respected and creative directors. After his death, though, he was said to have grown so depressed and despondent over his own apparent sexual inadequacies that he committed suicide and he would be denounced for attempting to rape his new bride Jean Harlow. In this biography, the author uncovers startling new facts and argues that MGM knew the real story of Bern's death: that an estranged, mentally ill common-law wife murdered him. MGM understood that the earlier spouse rendered Bern's marriage to Harlow its fastest rising star ambiguous, if not bigamous, so the studio staged a suicide and embarked on a very public tarnishing of his memory. Included are 93 rare photos, many lost for decades, along with three appendices examining the handwriting on an alleged suicide note and Bern's will and estate. Hollywood

Death and Scandal Sites E.J. Fleming, 2015-09-18 For more than a century, people have been drawn to sites of tragedy involving the rich, beautiful, and notorious of Hollywood. Tourists at the center of the movie universe flock to Rudolph Valentino's grave, the house where Marilyn Monroe died, the O.J. murders condo, the hotel where John Belushi overdosed, a myriad of haunted mansions. In its extensively researched and enlarged second edition, this book tells the stories of these locations and makes finding them simple. Seventeen driving tours include more than 650 sites. Each tour covers a specific area from Hollywood and the Sunset Strip to Brentwood and Malibu, covering the entire Los Angeles basin. Concise, easy-to-follow directions are given to each location, with 145 photos and the fascinating story behind each stop. Lunch-Bucket

Lives Craig Heron, 2015-06-03 Lunch Bucket Lives takes the reader on a bumpy ride through the history of Hamilton's working people from the 1890s to the 1930s. It ambles along city streets, peers through kitchen doors and factory windows, marches up the steps of churches and fraternal halls, slips into saloons and dance halls, pauses to hear political speeches, and above all, listens for the stories of men, women, youths, and children from families where people relied mainly on wages to survive. Heron takes wage earning as a central element in working-class life but also looks beyond the workplace into the households and neighbourhoods, settlement patterns, and housing, marriage, child care, domestic labour, public health, schooling, charity, and social work, popular culture, gender identities, ethnicity, and ethnic conflict, and politics in various forms, presenting a comprehensive view of working-class life in the first half of the twentieth century. This book has been published with the help of a grant from the Federation for the Humanities and Social Sciences through the Awards to Scholarly Publications Program, using funds provided by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada.
