Koala Ann Moyal, Michael Organ, 2008 The koala is both an Australian icon and an animal that has attained flagship status around the world Yet its history tells a different story While the koala figured prominently in Aboriginal Dreaming and Creation stories its presence was not recorded in Australia until 15 years after white settlement Then it would figure as a scientific oddity despatched to museums in Britain and Europe a native animal driven increasingly from its habitat by tree felling and human settlement and a subject of relentless hunting by trappers for its valuable fur It was not until the late 1920s that slowly emerging protective legislation and the enterprise of private protectors came to its aid This book surveys the koalas fascinating history its evolutionary survival in Australia for over 30 million years its strikingly adaptive physiognomy its private life and the strong cultural impact it has had through its rich fertilisation of Australian literature The work also focuses on the complex problems of Australia's national wildlife and conservation policies and the challenges surrounding the environmental economic and social questions concerning koala management. Koala embraces the story of this famous marsupial in an engaging historical narrative extensively illustrated from widely sourced pictorial material.

Voracious Children Carolyn Daniel, 2006 First Published in 2006 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an information company The Magic Pudding (illustrated) Norman Lindsay, 2020-02-26 The Magic Pudding is a children's classic novel written in 1918 by Australian author and illustrator Norman Lindsay. It is a comic fantasy and the story is set in Australia with humans mixing with anthropomorphic animals. It's the story of a magic pudding which no matter how often it is eaten always reforms in order to be eaten again. The pudding is owned by three friends who must defend it against Pudding Thieves who want it for themselves. The book is divided into four slices instead of chapters. There are many short songs interspersed throughout the text varying from stories told in rhyme to descriptions of a character's mood or behaviour and verses of an ongoing sea song. Wanting to see the world Bunyip Bluegum the koala sets out on his travels taking only a walking stick. At about lunchtime feeling more than slightly peckish he meets Bill Barnacle the sailor and Sam Sawnoff the penguin who are eating a pudding. The pudding is a magic one which no matter how much one eats it always reforms into a whole pudding again. He is called Albert has thin arms and legs and is a bad tempered ill-mannered so-and-so into the bargain. His only pleasure is being eaten and on his insistence Bill and Sam invite Bunyip to join them for lunch. They then set off on the road together Bill explaining to Bunyip how he and Sam were once shipwrecked with a ship's cook on an iceberg where the cook created the pudding which they now own. Later on they encounter the Pudding Thieves a possum and a wombat. These nasty varmints are scum of the earth barely fit to own the air that fills their lungs. Bill and Sam bravely defend their pudding while Bunyip sits on Albert so that he cannot escape while they are not looking. Later that night sitting round the fire Bill and Sam grateful for his contributions of the day invite Bunyip to join them and become a member of the Noble Society of Pudding Owners.

The Magic Pudding Norman Lindsay, 1977-01-01 Unsettling Narratives Clare Bradford, 2007 Children's books seek to assist children to understand themselves and their world. Unsettling Narratives: Postcolonial Readings of Children's Literature demonstrates how settler society texts position child readers as citizens of postcolonial nations how they represent the colonial past to modern readers what they propose about race relations and how they conceptualize systems of power and government. Clare Bradford focuses on texts produced since 1980 in Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand and includes picture books novels and films by Indigenous and non-Indigenous publishers and producers. From extensive readings the author focuses on key works to produce a thorough analysis rather than a survey. Unsettling Narratives opens up an area of scholarship and discussion the use of postcolonial theories relatively new to the field of children's literature and demonstrates that many texts recycle the colonial discourses naturalized within mainstream cultures.

The Magic Pudding Norman Lindsay, 2012-09-25 The Magic Pudding describes the adventures of a koala bear.
