Magic Carpets Romance:

The Romance of the Magic Carpet M.J. Whittall Associates, 1926 New Approaches to Popular Romance Fiction
Sarah S.G. Frantz, Eric Murphy Selinger, 2014-01-10 Despite the prejudices of critics popular romance fiction remains a complex dynamic genre It consistently maintains the largest market share in the American publishing industry even as it welcomes new subgenres like queer and BDSM romance Digital publishing originated in erotic romance and savvy online communities have exploded myths about the genre s readership Romance scholarship now reflects this diversity transformed by interdisciplinary scrutiny new critical approaches and an unprecedented international dialogue between authors scholars and fans These eighteen essays investigate individual romance novels authors and websites rethink the genre s history and explore its interplay of convention and originality By offering new twists in enduring debates this collection inspires further inquiry into the emerging field of popular romance studies Romance Barbara Fuchs, 2004-09-09 Often derided as an inferior form of literature romance as a literary mode or genre defies satisfactory definition dividing critics scholars and readers alike This useful guidebook traces the myriad transformations of romance from medieval courtly love to Mills and Boon and claims that its elusive and complex nature serves as a touchstone for larger questions of literary and cultural theory such as How does the history of romance as a category force us to rethink the historicization of literary genres What definitions can we provide for our own time to help us recognize and analyze new forms of romance To what extent is the resistance to romance a resistance to the imaginative force of literature The case for romance as a concept is presented clearly and imaginatively arguing that its usefulness to contemporary critics can be maintained if it is regarded as a literary strategy rather than a fixed genre In encouraging the reader to consider the fluidity of literature Romance will be of equal value to all students of historical and comparative literatures and of modern literary forms Romance of the Airman

Victorian Keats and Romantic Carlyle ,2022-02-22 Both John Keats and Thomas Carlyle were born in 1795 but one rarely thinks of them together When one does curious speculations result It is difficult to think of Carlyle as a young Romantic or of Keats as a Victorian Sage but had Carlyle died prematurely and had Keats lived to a ripe old age we might now be considering a Romantic Carlyle and a Victorian Keats Such a juxtaposition leads one to consider the use and abuse the fusions and confusions of period terms in literary history and in criticism Does Carlyle represent Romanticism as typically as Keats Does Keats's work give us any cause to believe that he might have developed into a Victorian poet Do the terms Romanticism and Victorian have any useful literary historical and literary critical value What are the marks of the transition from one to the other Or is the existence of such a transition an illusion In this volume some essays consider aspects of Keats or of Carlyle independently or together or focus on contemporaries of one or other or of both and explore the effect of their literary and ideological relationships and the often indefinable sense that we all have of different styles manners and periods as well as the awareness that we might all be equally deceived about such distinctive boundaries and definitions

I Love Disney's Magic Kingdom Danielle Kelly, Ian Wilson, 2025-05-13 Celebrate your love of the Magic Kingdom with a must have handbook that features everything from its stunning history to its iconic rides and attractions to surprising trivia behind the scenes facts and more From Main Street USA to Fantasyland and beyond I Love Disney's Magic Kingdom explores every area of the park and is made for the true Disney fanatic complete with surprising trivia behind the scenes facts fun quizzes and so much more Whether you visit the Disney Parks many times throughout the year or simply love all things Disney you know there's always more to learn about the parks Written by a former Disney cast member and diehard Disney fan herself you'll learn insider info on its most iconic attractions rides and foods such as Look down When visiting Tony's Town Square Restaurant on Main Street USA you'll find that Disney Imagineers recreated a special moment from Lady and the Tramp just outside of the restaurant if you look closely you can find Lady's and Tramp's paw prints Big Thunder Mountain Railroad in Frontierland might feel like it's taking you on an out of control train ride but did you know its max speed is only 36 miles per hour Instead of intense drops it uses tight turns small dips and lots of momentum to make you feel like you're traveling faster than you really are Love it or hate it it's a small world in Fantasyland has a big impact When you make a wish with your spare change that money is collected every time the ride is cleaned and is donated to local children's charities This is the ultimate Magic Kingdom experience that would surprise even Walt himself

Romance and Power in the Hollywood Eastern Nalini Natarajan, 2020-11-07 This book develops the idea of the Eastern as an analytically significant genre of film Positioned in counterpoint to the Western the famed cowboy genre of the American frontier the Eastern encompasses films that depict the eastern and southern frontiers of Euro American expansion Examining six films in particular Gunga Din 1939 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 Heat and Dust 1983 A Passage to India 1984 Indochine 1992 and The English Patient 1996 the author explores the duality of the Eastern as both aggressive and seductive depicting conquest and romance at the same time In juxtaposing these two elements the book seeks to reveal the double process by which the Eastern both diminishes the East and Global South and reinforces ignorance about these regions histories and complexity thereby setting the stage for ever escalating political aggression

Living in Romantic Baghdad Ida Donges Staudt, 2012-08-06 In 1924 an adventurous young couple accepted a commission to open an American school for boys in Baghdad Setting foot on Iraqi soil the very day that the Constituent Assembly convened in

Baghdad to frame a constitution for the new nation Ida Staudt and her husband Calvin witnessed the birth of this fledgling country For the next twenty three years they taught hundreds of young boys whose ethnicity religious background and economic status were as varied as the region itself Cultivating strong bonds with their students and their families the Staudts were welcomed into their lives and homes ranging from the royal palace to refugee huts and Bedouin tents In her enlightening memoir Staudt skillfully interweaves the political and historical setting with personal anecdotes recalling the people she encountered and the places she explored With vivid descriptions she relates the complexities of the people the grandeur of the antiquities and the beauty of the region s topography Living in Romantic Baghdad evokes the city the villages and the communities of Iraq capturing a unique chapter in modern Iraqi history one marked by pluralism and tolerance and putting a human face on a largely misunderstood country

The Dying Romantic Kevin Alan Lamb,2014-02-21 The Dying Romantic is a collection of poetic longings that allude to the discovery of the soul and self in the physical and emotional world As a result of fearing vulnerability romantics often appear to be a dying race Replaced with the man that would rather purchase the smile on your face and keys to your heart than pay attention listen and appreciate the blessing of getting to know you This collection will help remind you how beautiful and spectacular you have always been while igniting the fervent passion and understanding that you can be better while helping others do the same Immense love is invested in this creation fueled by the understanding that what you share with this world is what it keeps of you While reading the words within these pages internalize the words of another that have served as my inspiration along the way Where you invest your love you invest your life Marcus Mumford Woman's Home Companion ,1924 Boston Cooking-school Magazine of Culinary Science and Domestic Economics ,1920 California, Romantic and Beautiful George Wharton James,1914
