Nothing Is Impossible Ted Osius, 2021-10-15 Today Vietnam is one of America's strongest international partners with a thriving economy and a population that welcomes American visitors How that relationship was formed is a twenty year story of daring diplomacy and a careful thawing of tensions between the two countries after a lengthy war that cost nearly 60 000 American and more than two million Vietnamese lives Ted Osius former ambassador during the Obama administration offers a vivid account starting in the 1990s of the various forms of diplomacy that made this reconciliation possible He considers the leaders who put aside past traumas to work on creating a brighter future including senators John McCain and John Kerry two Vietnam veterans and ideological opponents who set aside their differences for a greater cause and Pete Peterson the former POW who became the first U S ambassador to a new Vietnam Osius also draws upon his own experiences working first hand with various Vietnamese leaders and traveling the country on bicycle to spotlight the ordinary Vietnamese people who have helped bring about their nation s extraordinary renaissance With a foreword by former Secretary of State John Kerry Nothing Is Impossible tells an inspiring story of how international diplomacy can create a better world      A Medic on the Mekong Alan Goodwin,2007-01-17 This story is about the two years I spent in Laos as a British Doctor working at an old French colonial hospital in Luang Prabang Set in 1967 and 68 the war was still raging with the Communists determined to win seven years later It describes the challenging job the Lao people and how my wife children and I lived in this foreign country Changes took place in my Christian faith and marriage and a young Hmong girl stole my heart It has humour pathos success and failure and gives a glimpse of life in an under developed country at war The book is about people suffering danger love life and death The recorded memories refuse to dim and die and are all true      Embroidered Hmong Story Cloths Susanne L. Bessac,1988      Objects and Frontiers in Modern Asia Lipokmar Dzüvichü,Manjeet Baruah,2019-03-06 Focusing on the geographies between the Mekong and the Indus this book brings objects to the centre of enquiry in the understanding of modern Asian frontiers It explores how a range of objects have historically been significant bearers and agents of frontier making For instance how are objects connected to aspects of state making social change everyday life diplomacy political and ecological worlds capital forms of violence resistances circulations and aesthetic expressions This book seeks to interrogate and understand the dynamism of frontiers from the vantage point of objects such as salt rubber tea guns silk scarves horses and opium It attempts to explore objects as sites of encounter mediation or dislocation between the social and the spatial The book not only locates objects in the specificities of frontier spaces but it also looks at how they are produced circulated and come to be intricately linked to a wide range of people institutions networks and geographies In the process it explores how objects traverse and come to inhabit multiple historical cultural and geographical scales This book will be of interest to researchers and academics working in areas of history social and cultural anthropology Asian studies frontiers and borderland studies cultural studies political and economic studies and museum studies      Fire in the Lake Frances FitzGerald,2024-09-24 A compassionate and penetrating landmark history of Vietnam and the Vietnam War New York Times Book Review Fitzgerald s Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award winning study of the Vietnam War remains essential reading thirty years after its initial publication Library Journal This magisterial work based on Frances FitzGerald s many years of research and travels takes us inside the history of Vietnam the traditional ancestor worshiping villages the conflicts between Communists and anti Communists Catholics and Buddhists generals and monks the disruption created by French colonialism and America s ill fated intervention and reveals the country as seen through Vietnamese eyes Originally published in 1972 Fire in the Lake was the first history of Vietnam written by an American and won the Pulitzer Prize the Bancroft Prize and the National Book Award With a clarity and insight unrivaled by any author before it or since Frances FitzGerald illustrates how America utterly and tragically misinterpreted the realities of Vietnam Fire in the Lake is a magnificent achievement huge wide ranging fascinating stimulating It is the first book I would recommend to anyone to read on Vietnam Martin Bernal New York Review of Books Fresh and enthralling FitzGerald fills an enormous gap by explaining the Vietnamese from their own point of view and by describing the war from the perspective of Vietnamese culture Kevin P Buckley Newsweek The bravest and most intelligent effort by an American writer to comprehend the Alice through the Looking Glass relationship between the Vietnamese and the Americans Laurence Stern Washington Post Book World A Fortune-Teller Told Me Tiziano Terzani,2010-02-17 Warned by a Hong Kong fortune teller not to risk flying for a whole year Tiziano Terzani a vastly experienced Asia correspondent took what he called the first step into an unknown world It turned out to be one of the most extraordinary years I have ever spent I was marked for death and instead I was reborn Traveling by foot boat bus car and train he visited Burma Thailand Laos Cambodia Vietnam China Mongolia Japan Indonesia Singapore and Malaysia Geography expanded under his feet He consulted soothsayers sorcerers and shamans and received much advice some wise some otherwise about his future With time to think he learned to understand respect and fear for older ways of life and beliefs now threatened by the crasser forms of Western modernity He rediscovered a place he had been reporting on for decades And it reinvigorated him The result is an immensely engaging insightful and idiosyncratic journey filled with unexpected delights and strange encounters A bestseller and major prizewinner in Italy A Fortune Teller Told Me is a powerful warning against the new missionaries of materialism The History of Human Marriage Edward Westermarck,1922 Vietnamese Supernaturalism Thien Do,2003-09-02 The beliefs and practices surrounding the meanings and symbols of the spirit world in Vietnam are explored in detail in this innovative study on popular religion in the country The author shows an abiding interest in the subconscious life at a grassroots level alongside rational formations of cosmological understanding which effect politics and economics on a national scale By bringing together oral histories reports and fiction writing alongside more conventional documented sources this book reveals an area of history which has been largely neglected The Commercialized Crafts of Thailand Erik Cohen,2000-07-01 This volume brings together two decades of research into the process of commercialization of the folk crafts of Thailand the conditions of its emergence the parties involved in its development the changes in the processes and organization of production which accompany it the channels through which commercialized craft products are marketed the nature of the audiences which they reach and the transformations in appearance and meaning which the products undergo as a result of their commercialization Each chapter deals with a specific issue in a particular context but virtually all of them relate to one or another of these principal aspects of the process of commercialization Part I explores the commercialization of hill tribe textiles particularly those of the Hmong refugees from Laos Part II presents a series of case studies of the various ways in which the products of lowland Thai craft villages became commercialized An Introduction to Vietnam Vietnam.
