Magical Realism Lois Parkinson Zamora, Wendy B. Faris, 1995 On magical realism in literature Magical Realism Lois Parkinson Zamora, Wendy B. Faris, 1997 Ordinary Enchantments Wendy B. Faris, 2004 Ordinary Enchantments investigates magical realism as the most important trend in contemporary international fiction defines its characteristics and narrative techniques and proposes a new theory to explain its significance In the most comprehensive critical treatment of this literary mode to date Wendy B Faris discusses a rich array of examples from magical realist novels around the world including the work not only of Latin American writers like Gabriel Garcia Marquez but also of authors like Salman Rushdie Gunter Grass Toni Morrison and Ben Okri Faris argues that by combining realistic representation with fantastic elements so that the marvelous seems to grow organically out of the ordinary magical realism destabilizes the dominant form of realism based on empirical definitions of reality gives it visionary power and thus constitutes what might be called a remystification of narrative in the West Noting the radical narrative heterogeneity of magical realism the author compares its cultural role to that of traditional shamanic performance which joins the worlds of daily life and that of the spirits Because of that capacity to bridge different worlds magical realism has served as an effective decolonizing agent providing the ground for marginal voices submerged traditions and emergent literatures to develop and create masterpieces At the same time this process is not limited to postcolonial situations but constitutes a global trend that replenishes realism from within In addition to describing what many consider to be the progressive cultural work of magical realism Faris also confronts the recent accusation that magical realism and its study as a global phenomenon can be seen as a form of commodification and an imposition of cultural homogeneity And finally drawing on the narrative innovations and cultural scenarios that magical realism enacts she extends those principles toward issues of gender and the possibility of a female element within magical realism Magical Realism in Twenty-First-Century Transnational Fiction D. Chichester, 2025-09-25 Magical Realism in Twenty First Century Transnational Fiction The Global Supernatural offers a much needed re evaluation of magical realism moving beyond traditional postcolonial frameworks to explore its vibrant evolution in the 21st century Analysing the works of contemporary authors like Helen Oyeyemi Mohsin Hamid Preeta Samarasan and Junot Diaz this book explores how magical realism has been adapted to depict the complex fluid identities and experiences of migrants and their children in a globalised world By employing the psychoanalytic concept of relationality it examines the intricate interplay between cultures beliefs and personal narratives Challenging outdated notions of magic versus realism this study reveals how the supernatural is used to express the disorientation paradox and trauma of transnational lives This book is essential for anyone seeking to understand the enduring creative power of magical realism Magical Realism, Latin American Theology, and the Appearance of a Pre-Critical Theory Alfredo Ignacio Poggi, 2024-01-04 Magical Realism Latin American Theology and the Appearance of a Pre Critical Theory Mary versus Ideology explores why the greatest boom of Marian apparitions in history related by poor rural women and children occurred simultaneously with the rise of urban elites secularizing ideologies and often in the same countries This unique glimpse goes beyond the simple stories and symbols of the Marian apparitions revealing a critique of the modern and postmodern social imaginaries that gave life to innumerable ideologies Utilizing the Latin American hermeneutic lenses of liberation theology and magical realism this book demonstrates how popular religion with its mythical narrative nucleus is a space of resistance against the totalizing projects of modernity Modern and postmodern proposals like those of Marxist or poststructuralist argue that one must use critical thinking to evade or at least expose ideologies Alfredo Ignacio Poggi on the contrary maintains that a naive or more aptly pre critical perception of the world is the best starting point for challenging contemporary ideologies

Patriarchy and Power in Magical Realism

Maryam Ebadi Asayesh,2017-08-21 Although the term magical realism appeared in 1925 in pictorial art in Germany it became well known with the boom of magical realist fiction in Latin America in the 1960s Since the 1980s it has become one of the popular modes of writing worldwide Due to its oxymoronic and hybrid nature it has caught the attention of critics Some have called it a postcolonial form of writing because of its prominence in postcolonial countries while others have called it a postmodern mode because of the time of its emergence and the techniques applied in these kinds of novels This book discusses how magical realism was used in the works of three contemporary female writers Indigo or Mapping the Waters 1992 by the British Marina Warner The House of the Spirits 1982 by the Latin American writer Isabel Allende and Fatma a novel of Arabia 2002 by the Saudi Arabian Raja Alem It shows how by applying magical realism these writers empowered women Using revisionary nostalgia these works changed the process of history writing by the powerful showed the presence of women and gave voice to their unheard stories Even the techniques applied in these novels presented the clash with patriarchy and power

Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions in Latin America

Jerónimo Arellano,2015-05-21 Iconoclastic in spirit Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions in LatinAmerica is the first study of affect and emotion in magical realist literature Against the grain of a vast body of scholarship it argues that magical realism is neither exotic commodity nor postcolonial resistance but an art form fueled by a search for spaces of wonder in a disenchanted world Linking the rise and fall of magical realism and kindred narrative forms to the shifting value of wonder as an emotional experience this thought provoking study proposes a radical new approach to canonical novels such as One Hundred Years of Solitude Received as one of the most convincing manifestations of the turn to affect in contemporary Latin American critical thought Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions draws on affect theory the history of emotions and new materialism to reframe key questions in Latin American literature and culture

Magical Feminism in the Americas: Resisting Female Marginalisation and Oppression through Magic Abu Shahid Abdullah, 2025-01-07. The book aims to show the way magical feminism resists female marginalisation and oppression in the Americas. Dealing with multiple victimisation of women in the Americas who have suffered not only because of their gender but also their race, ethnicity, political ideology, social status, financial insecurity and such, magical feminism provides a voice to them so that they can speak about their marginalisation and victimisation. In other words, by using magical feminism, these female authors attempt to give a voice to the oppressed women, enabling them to resist and challenge the traditional female role and to raise their voices against various social and political issues. The subversive and transgressive power of magical feminism enables the oppressed women to break patriarchal constraints and to reverse the traditional power structure. By creating an imaginary realm through traditions, local beliefs and rituals, myth, magic and the spirits of the dead ancestors as guides, magical feminist technique functions as a survival strategy for women in traumatic and oppressive situations and provides them consolation. The project includes a total of eight novels from African American Gloria Naylor's Mama Day, Latin American Isabel Allende's The House of the Spirits, Native American Louise Erdrich's Tracks, Chicana Ana Castillo's So Far from God, North American Gail Anderson Dargatz's The Cure for Death by Lightning, Central American Gioconda Belli's The Inhabited Woman, Hawaiian American Kiana Davenport's Shark Dialogues and Cuban American Cristina Garcia's Dreaming in Cuban, background.
