Magical Beaded Medicine Bag:

The Magical Beaded Medicine Bag Book Wendy Simpson Conner, 1997-07 Beadwork is one of the oldest and most global artforms. Considered the most enduring style of self beautification, people have been adorning themselves with beads since prehistoric times. Today's beadwork is considered an exciting genre of art; many people are rediscovering the unlimited possibilities when it comes to beads. The author of this series, Wendy Simpson Conner, is a third generation bead artist; her grandmother designed beaded gowns and jewelry for Anna Held, wife of Flo Ziegfeld, and the Ziegfeld Follies. Both beginning enthusiasts and accomplished bead artists will delight in this series of books. They are rich with thousands of illustrations and photographs and very comprehensive sections with step by step instructions for hundreds of projects. The Magical Beaded Medicine Bag Book explains the global artform of the medicine bag plus many patterns that can be created. Make your own Magic™. The author's writing style is very easy to understand and the step by step diagrams and many photographs make these books easy to get hooked on. The photographs are beautiful full color celebrations of fabulous beaded art that the reader can very easily make. This series is very inspirational and considered the most popular beading books on the market today. A must have for beginners and pros.

Magic's in the Bag Jude Bradley, Cheré Dastugue Coen, 2018-09-10 Powerful attraction in one small bag. Cultures worldwide have long incorporated small bags containing herbs, stones, and other sacred items as part of their belief systems, whether to ward off evil, protect them while traveling, or to attract positive elements into their lives. Egyptians carried amulets for protection. Native Americans wore medicine bags filled with healing herbs, and African Americans collected sticks, stones, roots, and bones inside flannel bags and called them mojo or gris gris. Gris gris and sachet bags are in essence a prayer or magical spell you can carry with you. Magic's in the Bag explores this history plus offers 75 simple spells to create your own gris gris bag, including bags for prosperity, safe travel, contacting spirits, protection, and more. You'll get tips on which plants to use, what stones are appropriate, what spells work best for phases of the moon, even how to grow a gris gris garden. Jude Bradley is a writer, editor, producer, and teacher. She also works as a spiritual consultant using card readings, mediumship, and energy guidance in her practice. Jude lives in the Boston area. A native of New Orleans, Cheré Dastugue Coen is a freelance journalist, teacher, and author of both nonfiction books and a paranormal mystery series under the pen name of Cherie Claire.
