Absorbing Perfections Moshe Idel, 2008-10-01 In this wide ranging discussion of Kabbalah from the mystical trends of medieval Judaism to modern Hasidism one of the world's foremost scholars considers different visions of the nature of the sacred text and of the methods to interpret it Moshe Idel takes as a starting point the fact that the postbiblical Jewish world lost its geographical center with the destruction of the temple and so was left with a textual center the Holy Book Idel argues that a text oriented religion produced language centered forms of mysticism Against this background the author demonstrates how various Jewish mystics amplified the content of the Scriptures so as to include everything the world or God for example Thus the text becomes a major realm for contemplation and the interpretation of the text frequently becomes an encounter with the deepest realms of reality Idel delineates the particular hermeneutics belonging to Jewish mysticism investigates the progressive filling of the text with secrets and hidden levels of meaning and considers in detail the various interpretive strategies needed to decode the arcane dimensions of the text

Seven Brief Lessons on Magic Paul Tyson, 2019-09-18 Is magic real Could anything be real that can't be quantified or scientifically investigated Are qualities like love beauty and goodness really just about hormones and survival Are strangely immaterial things like thought and personhood fully explainable in scientific terms Does nature itself have any intrinsic value mysterious presence or transcendent horizon Once we ask these questions the answer is pretty obvious of course science can't give us a complete picture of reality Science is very good at what it is good at but highly important aspects of human meaning are simply outside of science's knowledge range So how might we better relate scientific facts to qualitative mysteries How might we integrate our powerful factual knowledge with wisdom about the higher meaning of things This book defines magic as the real qualities and mysteries of the world that science just can't grasp It looks at how we came to put magic in the box of subjective make believe It explores how we might get it out of that box and back into our understanding of reality
