The China Clippers Basil Lubbock, 1929 The China Clippers Basil Lubbock, 2015-02-15 This book is an effort to preserve the records of the most perfect type of sailing ship at the very height of its development and it has been written entirely for sailors and those who are interested in shipping I have put down as simply as possible the personal history of certain ships and that in the plain language of the sea without any attempt to explain technical or seafaring terms for the benefit of the landsman The material gathered together in this book has been culled from countless abstract log books as well as from information supplied to me not only by the men who sailed the ships but also by their owners designers and builders Indeed I have to thank so many people for their help that a page of print would not contain their names and I can only hope that this book may perhaps recall some pleasant sea memories and thus in some slight way recompense them for their kindness and trouble Reprint of the original edition 1899 Explanations and Sailing Directions to Accompany the Wind and Current Charts Matthew Fontaine Maury, 1859 The Art of Tonal Analysis Carl Schachter, 2016 Carl Schachter is the world's leading practitioner of Schenkerian theory and analysis His articles and books have been broadly influential and are seen by many as models of musical insight and lucid prose Yet perhaps his greatest impact has been felt in the classroom At the Mannes College of Music the Juilliard School of Music Queens College and the Graduate Center of the City University of New York and at special pedagogical events around the world he has taught generations of musical performers composers historians and theorists over the course of his long career In Fall 2012 Schachter taught a doctoral seminar at the CUNY Graduate Center in which he talked about the music and the musical issues that have concerned him most deeply the course was in essence a summation of his extensive and renowned teaching In The Art of Tonal Analysis winner of the Society for Music Theory's 2017 Citation of Special Merit music theorist Joseph Straus presents edited Illustrated by an Extensive Series of Portraits and Authentic Views Robert Burns,1866 The Works of Robert Burns Robert Burns,1843 The Wrath of the Lamb Anthony Tyrrell Hanson,2010-06-01 A study of the Book of Revelation suggested to Dr Hanson the idea of tracing the conception of the wrath of God through the Bible from its primitive and personalized form in the earliest strands of the Old Testament to its final development in the New Under the impression that the wrath of God in the New Testament must be interpreted as if it had the same meaning as in the Old some theologians have been driven to formulate a distorted doctrine of the atonement and others to repudiate the idea of the wrath altogether Dr Hanson shows that this is a false dilemma and that there is a true New Testament doctrine of the wrath profoundly influenced by the revelation of the love of God in Jesus Christ and at certain points essentially related to the Cross This doctrine he finds most fully expressed in the Book of Revelation Choice and Select Sermons Joseph Beaumont,1859 Sermons on Practical Subjects Beaumont (Rev.
