Maid In Taiwan:

Maid in Taiwan Barbara North, 1984 Factory Women in Taiwan Lydia Kung, 1994 An important study of Taiwan's first generation of working women documenting their and their families' views of their employment and the effects that wage earning has on the status and lives of these women Working Women and State Policies in Taiwan Fen-ling Chen, 2000-09-29 This book concentrates on exploring the changing relationship between the state and working women in Taiwan by incorporating social economic political and ideological factors into the historical analysis. It traces the history of state policies on women's employment, the impact of family and gender ideology on women's employment, women's roles in capitalist development and the influence of women's movements on policy making in Taiwan. Finally, it analyses the Taiwanese welfare regime in a gender critical way The Minor Arts of Daily Life David K. Jordan, Andrew D. Morris, Marc L. Moskowitz, 2004-03-31 The Minor Arts of Daily Life is an account of the many ways in which contemporary Taiwanese approach their ordinary existence and activities. It presents a wide range of aspects of day to day living to convey something of the world as experienced by the Taiwanese themselves. Contributors: Alice Chu, Chien Juh Gu, David K. Jordan, Paul R. Katz, Chin Ju Lin, Andrew D. Morris, Marc L. Moskowitz, Scott Simon, Shuenn Der Yu Sexual Abuse Ersi Abaci Kalsoğlu, 2012-03-23 Sexual assault can be considered as an expression of aggression through sex. This in turn can have serious negative effects on a survivor's social and occupational functioning. This book has been organized towards that specific approach by compiling the scientific work of very well known scientists from all over the world. The psychological victimization of sexual assault, the physiological aspect of sexual abuse and the different attitudes in coping with sexual assault based on different cultural backgrounds are analyzed. Having in mind that one solution may not necessarily be suitable for all cases, we hope that this book will open a debate on sexual assault for future practice and policy and that it will be a step forward to break the silence Everyday Gender at Work in Taiwan Ting-Fang Chin, 2018-02-09 This book explores professional women's experiences of gender in the Taiwanese workplace in the wake of the rapid transformation of the country's economy, identifying attitudes to gender in a heterosexist and heteronormative social culture. It contributes to understanding women's relationships with their superiors and peers at work and the strategies that they have used to negotiate with these role partners to achieve their own personal and career goals. It notes that compared to women in other East Asian economies, women in Taiwan have a more consistent career trajectory and that the local women's movement and activism has brought Taiwan a long way in improving women's employment rights, but argues that it is too soon to claim that gender inequality has been banished from the workplace. Based on qualitative in-depth interviews, the book explores the participants' accounts of gendered and heteronormative practices at work in two contexts: organisational management and everyday social encounters. It investigates gender inequality at work by focusing on women employees' everyday experiences and examines structural and institutional factors affecting gendered arrangements as well as personal experiences in negotiating gender A key read for students and scholars in gender and employment studies this book will also be of interest to those working within the field of employment sociology and organisational culture Maid to Order in Hong Kong Nicole Constable, 2017-12-15 Middle class Chinese women in the global city of Hong Kong have entered the workforce in unprecedented numbers over the past three decades and the demand for foreign domestic workers has soared A decade ago some foretold the decline in foreign workers and the influx of mainland workers But today over 120 000 women from the Philippines over 90 000 from Indonesia and thousands more from other parts of South and Southeast Asia serve as maids on two year contracts in Hong Kong sending much needed remittances to their families abroad Nicole Constable tells their story by updating Maid to Order in Hong Kong with a focus on the major changes that have taken place since Hong Kong's reunification with mainland China in 1997 the Asian financial crisis of the late 1990s and the outbreak of SARS in 2002 2003 Interweaving her analysis with the women's individual stories she shows how power is expressed in the day to day lives of Filipina domestic workers and more recent Indonesian arrivals Cinema Taiwan Darrell William Davis, Ru-shou Robert Chen, 2007-05-07 This collection presents an exciting and ambitious foray into the cultural politics of contemporary Taiwan film that goes beyond the auterist mode the nation state argument and vestiges of the New Cinema Framing the Bride Bonnie Adrian, 2003-12-08 With a wedding impending the Taiwanese bride to be turns to bridal photographers makeup artists and hair stylists to transform her image beyond recognition They give her fairer skin eyes like a Western baby doll and gowns inspired by sources from Victorian England to MTV An absorbing consideration of contemporary bridal practices in Taiwan Framing the Bride shows how the lavish photographs represent more than mere conspicuous consumption They are artifacts infused with cultural meaning and emotional significance products of the gender and generation based conflicts in Taiwan's hybrid system of modern matrimony From the bridal photographs the book opens out into broader issues such as courtship marriage kinship globalization and the meaning of the West and Western cultural images of beauty Bonnie Adrian argues that in compiling enormous bridal albums full of photographs of brides and grooms in varieties of finery posed in different places and exuding romance Taiwanese brides engage in a new rite of passage one that challenges the terms of marriage set out in conventional wedding rites In Framing the Bride we see how this practice is also a creative response to U S domination of transnational visual imagery how bridal photographers and their subjects take the project of globalization into their own hands defining its terms for their lives even as they expose the emptiness of its images Custom Maid War for New World Disorder Peter De Krassel, 2005-08 Following on from Custom Maid Spin Peter de Krassel turns his unique international perspective and controversial pen onto the business of war In the course of reviewing the conflicts of the 20th century and today he argues that to end or at least minimize the cycle of 21st century violence humanity is inflicting on itself America must lead the peaceful charge for change To do so Americans need to learn and understand the reasons for war and how future wars can be stopped War is no the answer to hunger oil territorial expansion ethnic cleansing or the survival of America On the contrary it is its escalating destructive downfall He points to China's re emergence as a global power as America's greatest challenge and one that must be resolved peacefully America must keep in mind the warning by the Greek historian Thucydides more than 2 000 years ago that belief in the inevitability of conflict can become one of its main causes In other words America cannot afford to become a victim of its own political spin Peter de Krassel's treatment on war reads like a journalistic account of Heart of Darkness We are like Marlow journeying down a political river with each chapter forcing us to shed another layer of ignorance in order to acquire new insight But this work also brings with it a sense of hope for we the people are capable of molding our own destiny as long as we have the wisdom and courage to change things

Custom Maid Knowledge for New World Disorder Peter G. de Krassel,2008-05-19 Political commentator Peter de Krassel contends that globalization was a 19th Century model of economics that was based on scarcity and actually died in the last decade of the 20th Century when the whole World was in surplus In this fast paced geopolitical journey across America China the Middle East and beyond de Krassel looks at the history of the major empires of the last 150 years including that of the USA their achievements shortcomings and religious failures that all lead to globalization Learning from the past he posits interlocalism as the successor to globalization This latest book in his Custom Maid series offers a completely revolutionary new approach to contemplating our future and is must read material for anyone with an interest in understanding the political and economic situation now and wanting to see how the future might look
