Making Friends For God:

Making Friends Dee Brestin, 2013-09-30 Making friends is one of the most basic aspects of life so why does it often feel so difficult You reach out to others but they don't reach back You think you've found a friend but then they let you down or move away How do you forge genuine friendships that provide the encouragement and support you need With understanding and Making Friends for God Mark Finley, 2020 This book is about soul winning principles involved with sharing Christ's love and truth Witnessing is the role of each believer and comes as the natural result of knowing Jesus Following in His footsteps one can discover the universal principles for sharing their faith Making Friends for Christ Wayne McDill, 2010-04 Making Friends for Christ A Practical Approach to Relational Evangelism Second Edition This is not a gimmick It is not the next modern evangelism strategy for you or your church to use for a while and then discard when the next one comes along It is not about pretending to be friends with people to fulfill a hidden conversion agenda Making Friends for Christ is an exploration of loving others the way that Jesus loved us intentionally relationally and sacrificially The people all around us want to be loved They need a friend who will listen to them and care for them And that is just what Jesus wants us to do As we live in love and truth his light shines into people's lives so that they may know Love Himself Making Friends for Christ is a guide for learning how to be a real friend It offers practical everyday ideas for touching the people God has already put into your life You will learn how to be a good listener overcome common barriers and invest in relationships You can turn your home into a place of ministry and effectively tell how Christ has changed your life You can learn to pray in faith for your friends and family and join with other believers for support and encouragement This second edition of Making Friends for Christ is revised and enlarged for the challenges of the Twenty First Century evangelism Wayne McDill teaches Communication and Bible Exposition in Wake Forest North Carolina at Southeastern Seminary He has also taught courses in Evangelism Church Planting and Pastoral Leadership He is author of seven books including the first edition of Making Friends for Christ along with books on preaching and personal Christian growth Men and Women Making Friends in Early Modern France Lewis C. Seifert, Rebecca M. Wilkin, 2016-03-03 Today the friendships that grab people's imaginations are those that reach across inequalities of class and race The friendships that seem to have exerted an analogous level of fascination in early modern France were those that defied the assumption inherited from Aristotle and patristic sources that friendships between men and women were impossible Together the essays in Men and Women Making Friends in Early Modern France tell the story of the declining intelligibility of classical models of male friendship and of the rising prominence of women as potential friends The revival of Plato's friendship texts in the sixteenth century challenged Aristotle's rigid ideal of perfect friendship between men In the seventeenth century a new imperative of heterosociality opened a space for the cultivation of cross gender friendships while the spiritual friendships of the Catholic Reformation modeled relationships that transcended the gendered dynamics of galanterie Men and Women Making Friends in Early Modern France argues that the imaginative experimentation in friendships between men and women was a distinctive feature of early modern French culture. The ten essays in this volume address friend making as a process that is creative of self and responsive to changing social and political circumstances. Contributors reveal how men and women fashioned gendered selves and also circumvented gender norms through concrete friendship practices. By showing that the benefits and the risks of friendship are magnified when gender roles and relations are unsettled, the essays in this volume highlight the relevance of early modern friend making to friendship in the contemporary world.

Friendship with God (eBook) Trevor Hudson, 2015-05-01

Are you open to reimagining your relationship with God as a friendship? Do you want to be transformed into the person God wants you to be? Friendship with God transforms us. As we learn to trust God as our Divine Friend, it has a transforming effect on our whole lives. It affects how we pray, our relationships with each other, and the way we understand our everyday lives. It changes the way we think and feel, what we desire and long for, the way we see each other, and how we seek to live our lives in the world. We could say our friendship with God creates the climate in which you and I become the people God wants us to be. In his latest book Friendship with God, Trevor Hudson digs into these two interwoven themes of friendship and personal transformation. He explains that friendship is a helpful analogy for the intimate kind of relationship God wants with us. Put very simply, the gospel invites you and me into friendship with God. When we become friends with Jesus, we are drawn into God's greater dream for the world. This indeed is the purpose of our lives on earth. We are created to become friends of God and to partner with God in making his dream a greater reality in the world around us. Topics that are addressed include: Living Beyond Loneliness, God's Passionate Longing for Friendship, Getting to Know Our Friend, Understanding Prayer as Deepening Friendship, Looking Outward Together, Exploring Our Friend's Address Book, Discerning What Our Friend Wants Us to Do, Blessing Others as Our Friend Has Blessed Us, Facing Our Fears with Our Friend, Asking Our Friend the Hardest Question. The creator God, who loves us and set the whole universe into existence and who sustains our lives in the immediacy of each moment, wants our intimate friendship. As you explore this good news, you will be encouraged to see your faith and your life in a totally new way.

Genetics and Christian Ethics Celia Deane-Drummond, 2006

In the immediate future, we are likely to witness significant developments in human genetic science. It is therefore of critical importance that Christian ethics engages with the genetics debate, since it affects not just the way we perceive ourselves and the natural world, but also has wider implications for our society. This book considers ethical issues arising out of specific practices in human genetics, including genetic screening, gene patenting, gene therapy, genetic counselling, as well as feminist concerns. Genetics and Christian Ethics argues for a particular theological approach that derives from a modified version of virtue ethics, drawing particularly on a Thomistic understanding of the virtues, especially prudence or practical wisdom and justice. The book demonstrates that a theological voice is highly relevant to contested ethical debates about genetics.

God the Child Graham Adams, 2024-04-30 We express the mystery of God with diverse metaphors but mostly in Adult terms In this experimental theological adventure Graham Adams imagines what might flow from a more thorough being of God Aware that the Child can be idealized he selects particular characteristics of childhood in order to disrupt God's omnipresence omnipotence and omniscience The smallness of the Child re-envisages divine location in sites of smallness like an open palm receiving the experiences of the overlooked The weakness of the Child reimagines divine agency as chaos event subverting prevailing patterns of power and evoking relationships of mutuality And the curiosity of the Child reconceives divine encounter as horizon seeker imaginatively and empathetically pursuing the unknown These possibilities are brought into dialogue both with other theologies Black disabled and queer and with pastoral loss economic ecological injustice and theological education Through these conversations God the Child emerges not only as a new model for God but intrinsic to God's new social reality which is close at hand

Friendship and the Moral Life Paul J. Wadell C.P., 1990-11-30 Friendship and the Moral Life is not simply a theoretical argument about how moral theology might be done if it took friendship more seriously Rather the book exhibits how without friendship our lives are morally not worth living The book begins with a consideration of why a new model of the moral life is needed Wadell then examines the ethics of Aristotle who viewed the moral life as based on a specific understanding of the purpose of being human with friendship being an important factor in enabling people to acquire virtues necessary for achieving this purpose Through the thought of Augustine Aelred of Reivaulx and Karl Barth the question is raised whether friendship is at odds with Christian love or whether their relation depends on one's narrative account of friendship Thomas Aquinas understanding of charity as friendship with God is examined to clarify this relationship By locating friendship within the story of God's redemption through Christ Wadell helps us see why friendship properly understood is integral to the Christian life and not at odds with it Such a friendship draws us to love all others who seek God and teaches us not to restrict our concern to a special few in preferential love The book closes by investigating how friendship as a model for the moral life might work in everyday life God's Grand Design William R. Arnold, 2021-06-30

God's Grand Design By William R Arnold Edited by Ms Aurora Payad Arnold God's Grand Design is to restore mankind to its original state of sacred perfection after Adam and Eve fell and created the original sin of disobedience hiding and lying to the Lord When God cursed the serpent for tempting Adam and Eve to be like God he promised to send his only begotten Son to save humanity He did via the incarnate word in the womb of the immaculately conceived Virgin Mary God wants to be man and receive a new body to defeat death through Jesus Christ Man wants to become God to receive eternal life Man's journey to become God starts from being an ignorant baby gaining knowledge to a cowardly teenager obtaining courage to an adult converting greed to generosity to a wise man changing selfishness to unselfishness and at last to a free man able to think for himself in eternal service to God in his kingdom The journey requires him to know right from wrong good from evil and God's will from man's will and thus defeat evil worldly temptations and demonic possession Through Christ God and man are destined to become one through three advents making the God Man Christ into the new human spirit blessings Then the Man God Jesus becomes the new human flesh to make all things perfect in the sight of God Jesus Christ came as a priest on a donkey to decode the Torah bring knowledge and remove blindness to defeat sin By his death and resurrection he granted free redemption to man's flesh to give him a new body The second coming of Jesus Christ as thief in the night will bring awakening to remove deafness by teaching God's truths to defeat evil As a just judge on a cloud on his third advent the Lord will remove mankind's dumbness to defeat death And then man can become worthy of receiving God's rewards of paradise in heaven or heaven on earth
