Man Before God Thomas Merton On Social Responsibility:

Man Before God Frederic Joseph Kelly, 1974 Merton and Walsh on the Person Robert L. Imperato, 2014-09-16
Bob Imperato teaches religious studies at Saint Leo University where he is coordinator of the Religious Studies Department Bob studied psychology at Columbia University MA 1969 where he began searching for God While in New York he was inspired by Swami Satchidananda to practice yoga Meditation led Bob back to his childhood religion Catholicism and inspired him to spend a decade in a Trappist Cistercian monastery at the Abbey of Gethsemani He desired to communicate about God and he chose to complete both an MA and PhD in Theology at Fordham University in order to dedicate himself to teaching religion on the college level He has taught in New Jersey Kansas California and Florida and frequently lectures in parish and diocesan programs He has published a number of articles on spirituality and hopes to continue writing and teaching The Social God Kenneth Leech, 2003-10-28 The central theme of The Social God is the belief that God is social and that both Christian prayer and Christian social action are rooted in the nature of God Christian action in the fields of social justice and the political arena is rooted in Christian doctrine The Social God stresses the essential unity of doctrine and action of prayer and politics examining the Christian understanding of God and his relationship with the world Kenneth Leech emphasizes the centrality of the Incarnation and reveals the other aspects of Christian spirituality the dangers of a new fascism and the need for a renewal of Christian theology Thomas Merton on Mysticism Raymond Bailey, 1975 Originally presented as the author's thesis Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Louisville Includes bibliographical references Archetypes of Conversion Anne Hunsaker Hawkins, 2014-03-07 This sensitive and imaginative study explores the phenomenon of conversion in three major religious autobiographies the Confessions of Saint Augustine Grace Abounding by John Bunyan and Thomas Merton's The Seven Storey Mountain These three religious figures could hardly be more different and yet as Hawkins shows their conversion narratives are remarkably similar in patterns of theme figure and action This archetypal approach is particularly appropriate to spiritual autobiography which is less concerned with self than with soul and which seeks to relate the individual to a divine reality that is universal and timeless Hawkins approach to these texts is sophisticated yet free of jargon and doctrinaire psychologizing Here archetypal analysis becomes not an end in itself but also a means to investigate the complexity of the individual text Hawkins archetypal analysis serves not only to discern continuities but also to explore cultural ideological and psychological variations Adapting William James's distinction between crisis and lysis conversion Hawkins shows that the conversion paradigm central to each autobiography determines its religious meaning its formal structure and its archetypal emphases The author approaches the phenomena of conversion with a blend of critical detachment and imaginative sympathy She is always careful to honor the authenticity of religious experience and for this reason her commentary succeeds in illuminating it The result is an interdisciplinary study that will appeal to the psychologist and literary critic as well as the student of religion But these narratives of conversion offer paradigms that apply to any deeply significant change for they are of interest and concern to all readers seeking to find meaning in their lives Hawkins makes us feel both the immediacy and the permanence of these texts for What is human in them speaks to what is human in us Illusions of Freedom Jeffrey M. Shaw,2014-06-02 Illusions of Freedom examines the opinions and ideas of two twentieth century writers Thomas Merton a Catholic monk living in the United States and Jacques Ellul a French Protestant Contemporaries they never met or corresponded with each other but their critique of the influence that technology was beginning to have on the human condition is strikingly similar Both Merton and Ellul drew upon the ideas of others in formulating their worldview to include Karl Barth Soren Kierkegaard Aldous Huxley and Karl Marx Jeffrey Shaw examines the influence that these other philosophers had on Merton and Ellul as they formulated their own ideas on technology s impact on freedom Tracing the similarities and in some cases the differences between their critiques of technology and the idea that progress is always to be seen as something inherently good one finds that they bring a unique perspective to the debate and offer readers an alternative avenue for reflecting on the meaning of technology and its impact on our lives in the twenty first century Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1976

Solitude in the Thought of Thomas Merton Richard Anthony Cashen,1981 Thomas Merton Marquita Breit,Robert E. Daggy,1986 The Social Thought of Thomas Merton David W. Givney,2009 This new edition traces the evolution of Thomas Merton s social thought particularly as it evolved toward a way of nonviolence and peacemaking grounded in contemplation and Christian love It identifies the social context that shaped Merton including civil rights and racism the Vietnam War and a growing nuclear threat And it explores the religious influences and experiences that shaped Merton including Catholic social teaching particularly Pope John XXIII s encyclical letter Pacem in Terris Peace on Earth the words and actions of Mahatma Gandhi and Martin Luther King Jr the practice of contemplation and Zen and Merton s own life as a Trappist monk Thomas Merton, Monk and Artist Victor A. Kramer,1987 Thomas Merton James Thomas Baker,2021-12-14 Thomas Merton Social Critic organizes and critically analyzes the social thought of the Cistercian monk who has become an internationally known symbol of the spiritual element in man The author evaluated all of Merton s writings published and unpublished then discussed his interpretations with Merton personally The result is a perceptive relation of Merton s social thought to its genesis in his own life experiences and contemplation a faithful rendering of Merton s thought on the problems of our time Merton the author makes clear called for a spiritual social and religious union It was a poetic and sometimes unimplemented solution to alienation and division a valid and authentic if at times limited response to the contemporary chaos This study will be greeted by a strong reaction from Mertonians everywhere Christian Conversion Walter E. Conn,2006-07-01 Walter Conn has provided us with something we have needed for a long time a scholarly study of Christian conversion that draws synthetically from present day psychology philosophy and theology and uses these insights to analyze actual Christian religious experience And in doing that Conn has produced what is probably the best treatment to date of foundational moral theology To follow Conn through the pages of this volume is to become acquainted with most of today's important reflection on human moral and personal development But one emerges with much more than relevant information about what is being said Conn's own view of conversion goes beyond the thinkers from whom he draws and provides a basic challenge to and enrichment of our understanding of faith and morality Bernard Cooke Holy Cross College Walter E Conn is Professor of Theology and Religious Studies at Villanova University He is also the editor of Horizons journal of the College Theology Society

Thomas Merton, Contemplative Critic Henri J. M. Nouwen, 1981 A unique meditation on the life writings of Thomas Merton by one of the most popular Catholic writers today In reading this book one can meet for a brief moment the living spirit of Merton It is a refreshing encounter John Eudes Bamberger The Art of Thomas Merton Ross Labrie, 1979 A study and general literary introduction to the writings of Thomas Merton displaying his versatility in mastering various literary forms including novel diary essay and poem Thomas Merton as Writer and Monk Peter Kountz, 1991 Kountz concentrates on a limited time period 1915 Merton's birth to 1951 which comprises Merton's premonastic life and his first 10 years as a monk in order to determine why and how Merton became a writer and why and how his writing influenced and guided his conversion to Catholicism and his entrance into Gethsemani Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Seven Mountains of Thomas Merton Michael Mott, 1986-03 Uitvoering biografie van de Amerikaanse trappist en schrijver 1915-1968 Thomas Merton's Dark Path William H. Shannon, 1987-03-01 In the mystical tradition the dark or apophatic way has a long history It is the way of John of the Cross of Master Eckhart of Juliana of Norwich of the anonymous author of The Cloud of Unknowing and of Thomas Merton This dark path of contemplation that Merton followed wrote about extensively and considered the focal point of his life is the subject of William H Shannon's book

The Genesee Diary Henri J. M. Nouwen, 2013-11-20 During his seven month stay in a Trappist monastery Henri Nouwen had a unique opportunity to explore crucial issues of the spiritual life and discover a quiet stream underneath the fluctuating affirmations and rejections of my little world Nouwen participated fully in the daily life of the Abbey of the Genesee in upstate New York in work and in prayer From the early weeks in the abbey dominated by conflicting desires and concerns to the final days of Advent when he finds a new sense of calm expectation Nouwen never loses his critical honesty Insightful compassionate often humorous always realistic The Genesee Diary is both an inspiration and a challenge to those who are in search of themselves The Genesee Diary beautifully lifts the heart and mind to God Christianity Today This is an extraordinary account of a man seeking inner peace and total commitment to God a fine portrait of cloistered life a beautifully written account of one man's soul searching Publisher's Weekly Back to the Rough Grounds of Praxis Daniel Franklin Pilario, 2005 What is praxis How do we do theology from its perspective These are the main questions which this book seeks to answer As propaedeutic to theological reflection it surveys the notion of praxis in the philosophical sociological and anthropological traditions from Aristotle and Marx to contemporary theories It argues that Pierre Bourdieu's theory of practice achieves a critical synthesis of these different traditions making it a viable theological dialogue partner. Bourdieu provides us with a praxeological theory to scrutinize the complexity of the social realm and an epistemological theory to understand the mystery of God's presence in these socio-historical conjunctures which serve as the privileged and only locus of His/Her revelation. The author thus engages two theologians who take praxis/practice as central to their theological methods: Clodovis Boff (liberation theology) and John Milbank (radical orthodoxy). From the perspective of its appropriated framework, this work attempts to avoid the limitations as well as preserves the gains achieved by these two approaches as it also explores the rudiments of a theological method relevant to our post-Marxist and postmodern global contexts.
