Objects, Commodities and Material Cultures in the Dutch

Republic Judith Noorman,Feike Dietz,2025-10-01 How did objects move between places and people and how did they reshape the Republic s arts cultures and sciences Objects were vitally significant for the early modern Dutch Republic which is known as an early consumer society a place famous for its exhaustive production of books visual arts and scientific instruments What happens when we push these objects and their materiality to the centre of our research How do they invite us to develop new perspectives on the early modern Dutch Republic And how do they contest the boundaries of the academic disciplines that have traditionally organized our scholarship In Objects Commodities and Material Cultures the interdisciplinary community of specialists around the Amsterdam Centre for the Study of Early Modernity innovatively explores the diverse early modern world of objects. Its contributors take a single object or commodity as a point of departure to study and discuss various aspects of early modern art culture and history from natural objects to consumer goods from knowledge instruments to artistic materials. The volume aims to unravel how objects have moved through regions, cultures and ages and how objects impacted people who lived and worked in the Dutch Republic.

Figuring Faith and Female Power in the Art of Rubens J. Vanessa Lyon, 2025-10-01 Figuring Faith and Female Power in the Art of Rubens argues that the Baroque painter, propagandist and diplomat Peter Paul Rubens was not only aware of rapidly shifting religious and cultural attitudes toward women but actively engaged in shaping them. Today Rubens's paintings continue to be used and abused to prescribe and proscribe certain forms of femininity. Repositioning some of the artist's best-known works within seventeenth-century Catholic theology and female court culture, this book provides a feminist corrective to a body of art historical scholarship in which studies of gender and religion are often mutually exclusive. Moving chronologically through Rubens's lengthy career, the author shows that in relation to the powerful women in his life, Rubens figured the female form as a transhistorical carrier of meaning whose devotional and rhetorical efficacy was heightened rather than diminished by notions of female difference and particularity.

The Signature Style of Frans Hals Christopher D.M. Atkins, 2025-10-01 This richly illustrated study is the first to consider the manifold functions and meanings of Hals's distinctive handling of paint. Atkins explores the uniqueness of Hals's approach to painting and the relationship of his manner to seventeenth-century aesthetics. He also investigates the economic motivations and advantages of his methods, the operation of the style as a personal and workshop brand, and the apparent modernity of the artist's style. The book seeks to understand the multiple levels on which Hals's consciously cultivated manner of painting operated for himself, his pupils and assistants, his clients, and succeeding generations of viewers. As a result, the book offers a wholly new understanding of one of the leading artists of the Dutch Golden Age and one of the most formative painters in the history of art in the Western tradition. It also provides a much-needed interrogation of the interrelationships of subjectivity, style, authorship, methods of artistic and commercial production, economic consumption, and art theory in early modernity.

Chats on Old Miniatures Joshua James Foster, 1908 The Athenaeum, 1919

In His Milieu Amy Golahny, Mia Mochizuki, Lisa Vergara, 2025-10-01 Collected in memory of the Vermeer scholar and Yale economist J. Michael Montias, these essays take into account the latest trends in the field and provide new data on a wide range of topics in Netherlandish art. Themes include the reception of paintings and architecture, art collecting as interpreted through inventories and other documents that reveal modes of display, relationships between patrons and painters, recently found or attributed works of art, artists as teachers, and the art market. Taken together, these focused studies offer fresh perspectives on the historical appreciation and evaluation of art. Drawing upon J. M. Montias's contribution to art history, these 32 essays present new analyses, attributions, and documents on Netherlandish art and material culture including the work of Vermeer Rubens Rembrandt van Eyck and others by internationally known scholars of art history and the economics of art
