the Wild Amaranth Janet Marinelli,2014-07-29 An important horticultural memoir articulating a new landscape art that s both environmentally sensitive and rich in creativity Janet Marinelli left her comfortable city garden to join a botanist colleague in search of the rare Seabeach Amaranth one of our many native species that is in danger of extinction The result of the ensuing seven year odyssey Stalking the Wild Amaranth is a work of science and a work of art Marinelli tells the story of her discovery that contemporary gardening is out of sync with theories evolving on the frontiers of science and philosophy She also tells of her quest for a new garden art that nurtures a greater richness and variety of earthly life Inspired by the legacy of Henry David Thoreau Marinelli blends history horticulture erudition and personal insight into a narrative that ponders the relationship between humankind and nature She fleshes out a vision for a new ecologically wise landscape art disagreeing ultimately with those who insist that growing native plants is the only way to recover our environmental equilibrium Gardeners she writes should be free to experiment to let our imaginations run wild to learn how to be the creators of biodiversity as well as the preservers and restorers A Place of My Own Michael Pollan,2013-03-06 A captivating personal inquiry into the art of architecture the craft of building and the meaning of modern work A room of one s own Is there anybody who hasn't at one time or another wished for such a place hasn't turned those soft words over until they'd assumed a habitable shape When Michael Pollan decided to plant a garden the result was the acclaimed bestseller Second Nature In A Place of My Own he turns his sharp insight to the craft of building as he recounts the process of designing and constructing a small one room structure on his rural Connecticut property a place in which he hoped to read write and daydream built with his own two unhandy hands Invoking the titans of architecture literature and philosophy from Vitruvius to Thoreau from the Chinese masters of feng shui to the revolutionary Frank Lloyd Wright Pollan brilliantly chronicles a realm of blueprints joints and trusses as he peers into the ephemeral nature of houseness itself From the spark of an idea to the search for a perfect site to the raising of a ridgepole Pollan revels in the infinitely detailed complex process of creating a finished structure At once superbly written informative and enormously entertaining A Place of My Own is for anyone who has ever wondered how the walls around us take shape and how we might shape them ourselves Praise for A Place of My Own A glorious piece of prose Pollan leads readers on his adventure with humor and grace Chicago Tribune Pollan alternates between describing the building process and introducing informative asides on various aspects of construction These explanations are deftly and economically supplied Pollan's beginner status serves him well for he asks the kind of obvious questions about building that most readers will want answered The New York Review of Books By shrewdly combining just the right mix of personal reflection architectural background and nuts and bolts detail Michael Pollan enables us to see feel and understand what goes into the building of a house The result is a captivating and informative adventure John Berendt author of Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil An utterly terrific book an inspired meditation on the complex relationship between space the human body and the human spirit Francine du Plessix Gray A tour de force Phillip Lopate Mirrors of Infinity: Allen S. Weiss, 1995 Resource added for the Landscape Horticulture Technician program 100014 Imperial Identity in the Mughal Empire Lisa Balabanlilar, 2015-12-13 Having monopolized Central Asian politics and culture for over a century the Timurid ruling elite was forced from its ancestral homeland in Transoxiana at the turn of the sixteenth century by an invading Uzbek tribal confederation The Timurids travelled south establishing themselves as the new rulers of a region roughly comprising modern Afghanistan Pakistan and northern India and founding what would become the Mughal Empire 1526-1857 The last survivors of the House of Timur the Mughals drew invaluable political capital from their lineage which was recognized for its charismatic genealogy and court culture the features of which are examined here By identifying Mughal loyalty to Turco-Mongol institutions and traditions Lisa Balabanlilar here positions the Mughal dynasty at the centre of the early modern Islamic world as the direct successors of a powerful political and religious tradition Nature, Culture, and Race in Colonial Cuba Lee Sessions, 2024-06-18 A new and necessary examination of how nineteenth century Cuban white elites viewed the natural world material culture and political power as intertwined In the decades before the Cuban wars of independence white elites exploited the island's natural history and culture to redefine racial identity and reassert authority These practices occurred in the face of challenges to their political power from Cubans of mixed race and as Cuba's dependence on sugar led to ecological and economic precarity Lee Sessions uses close visual analysis to investigate how white elites wielded power by manipulating material culture placing in conversation for the first time the natural history museums botanical gardens and thousands of paintings drawings and prints produced in and about Cuba from 1820 to 1860 This important and novel book explores how groups used material culture to imagine their own future at a moment when racial and political dynamics were changing rapidly while facing an ecological disaster of unimaginable scale

On the Scope and Truth of Theology Robert Cummings Neville, 2006-06-05 This is the first volume of Robert Cumming Neville's magnum opus Theology as Symbolic Engagement Neville is the premier American systematic theologian of our time His work is profoundly influenced by Paul Tillich Friedrich Schleiermacher and the American pragmatists John Dewey and Charles Sanders Pierce From Tillich he takes the notion of religion art and morality as symbol and the notion that religion is the substance of culture and culture the form of religion Thus theology is symbolic engagement with cultural forms and Neville explores the ways that such engagement occurs among various religious traditions One of the most important tasks in theology is to devise ways of testing correcting or affirming claims that we had been unable to question before This book will argue that system in theology is not merely correlating assertions but rather building perspectives from which we can render the various parts of theology vulnerable for assessment In fact one of the unique features of this book is its engagement with other religions Such dialogue has been a feature of Neville's work from the beginning Theology as Symbolic Engagement breaks the boundaries of systematic theology and moves away from the static character that characterizes such enterprises from Barth onward Instead Neville's book showcases the dynamic character of all theology The hallmark of this entire project is its effort to show theology to be hypothetical and to make it vulnerable to correction

Unnatural Horizons Allen S. Weiss, 1998 Unnatural Horizons presents a selective history of the last five centuries of landscape architecture at the intersection of poetics and science rhetoric and technology and philosophy and politics It investigates the relations between garden aesthetics and metaphysics discussing issues similar to those raised by Weiss's critically acclaimed Mirrors of Infinity The Western garden has always served as a setting for music dance theater sculpture and architecture as well as the minor arts of meditative contemplation and erotic seduction The history of landscape architecture is therefore inextricable from the histories of the other arts and must be studied from an interdisciplinary and polycultural point of view Some of the topics included in this book are the influence of neo Platonic philosophy on the Italian Renaissance garden erotic fantasies and the 18th century libertine garden the contrast between Thoreau's romantic notion of virgin nature and changes in perception due to increasing speed and mechanization and the limits of landscape architecture as art form in 20th century gardens

Michelangelo Red Antonioni Blue Murray Pomerance, 2011-03-15 Michelangelo Antonioni who died in 2007 was one of cinema's greatest modernist filmmakers The films in his black and white trilogy of the early 1960s L'avventura La Notte L'eclisse are justly celebrated for their influential gorgeously austere style But in this book Murray Pomerance demonstrates why the color films that followed are in fact Antonioni's greatest works Writing in an accessible style that evokes Antonioni's expansive use of space Pomerance discusses The Red Desert Blow Up Professione Reporter The Passenger Zabriskie Point Identification of a Woman The Mystery of Oberwald Beyond the Clouds and The Dangerous Thread of Things to analyze the director's subtle and complex use of color Infusing his open ended inquiry with both scholarly and personal reflection Pomerance evokes the full range of sensation nuance and equivocation that became Antonioni's signature
